FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

SHE WILL CELEBRATE HER EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY TO-DAY.
Florence Nightingale will to-day celebrate eighty years of life. She has lived for many years past in a quiet spot in the West of London, in a modest house, whose every room is filled with the tokens of esteem that have been showered upon her.

THE FIRST WOMAN'S CLUB.

"REFLECTIONS ON THE RISING SUN" AND "KINDRED SUBJECTS DISCUSSED AT THE MEETINGS."
The first woman's club has been held from once more, this time in Boston, says "The Clubwoman."

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

at their letters crossed in the mails, Miss Nightingale had written the Government offering her services and saying that she thought the soldiers needed good nursing, such as women alone could give.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

Colgate & Co.'s Violet Water. Refreshing—Invigorating.
The band of heretics and sectarians on November 4th the night before Inkerman. There were then about a hundred and fifty soldiers in the Turkish barracks on the Bosphorus, which had been sent to the English for a hospital—two miles of sick beds.

ELECTION OF THE P. W. L.

ALTHOUGH THERE WERE TWO TICKETS IN THE FIELD, EVERYTHING WAS HARMONIOUS.
During a session of nearly five hours, about one hundred and fifty members of the Professional Woman's League sat in the assembly room at the League House, No. 129 Broadway, yesterday, and elected their Executive Committee and chairman of thirteen standing committees for the coming year.

CLUBHOUSE FOR COLLEGE WOMEN.

It is proposed by the large number of women graduates of colleges in this city to establish a Woman's University Club on the plan of the men's. The intention is to lease a house large enough to contain dining, reading and a few living rooms.

MRS. STANFORD'S GIFT.

Mrs. Leland Stanford has just presented to the Right Rev. Bishop Grace, of the Catholic diocese of Sacramento, Cal., and his successors forever the beautiful Stanford Mansion at Eighth and N sts., together with an endowment fund of $75,000.

JENNIE CREEK, THE GIRL HEROINE.

Miss Jennie Creek, of Marion, Ind., the girl heroine, who saved from disaster a World's Fair train on the Panhandle Railroad, receives letters constantly asking for her autograph, picture or some account of her brave deed. As her means are limited, her friends have decided to issue a souvenir booklet containing pictures of her, a copy of ten years and at the present time, a picture of the train, the Royal Legion medal given her by the French Legion of Honor and her French diploma. The book, it is claimed, will be the most useful tract of a female's education.

MODEL CHILDREN'S HOME.

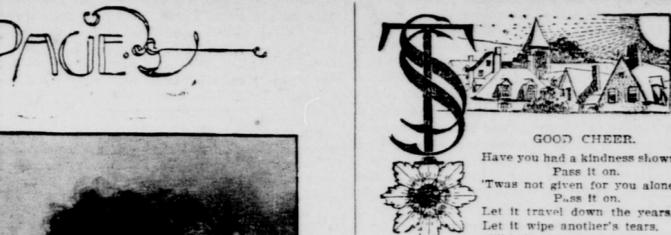

The Franklin County Children's Home, at Columbus, Ohio, was asked to prepare an exhibit for the Paris Exposition, having been selected as a "model" children's home in the United States. Its exhibit consisted of photographs and reports.

IN MARKET LAND.

A curious functionary to be seen in the markets of Paris is the egg tester. He sits with a lighted candle before him and tests every egg brought into the market by holding it to the flame. The market women are usually young, pretty, good natured and vivacious, thus adding to the attractiveness of their artistically displayed wares.

NEW OFFICERS OF THE MOTHERS' CLUB.

Harris; first vice-president, Mrs. Charles Burckhard; second vice-president, Mrs. Charles T. Marvin; third vice-president, Mrs. S. M. Chesley; recording secretary, Mrs. E. Benedict; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edward Schupp; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Seymour; and auditor, Mrs. L. D. Blake.

GOOD CHEER.

Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Twas not given for you alone—Pass it on. Let it travel down the years, Let it wipe another's tears, Till in heaven the deed appears—Pass it on.

"AT THE EVENING TIME THERE SHALL BE LIGHT."

I cannot see the way that I should go, As I wind down around life's dizzy height, Although I pray and plead; and yet I know, That "at the evening time there shall be light."

DU VAL BETWEEN TWO FIRMS.

IF HE MAKES A HIGH SCORE AT CREDMOOR IT MAY BE PROTESTED.
If Brevet Captain H. C. Du Val, one of the sharpshooters of the 7th Regiment, should happen to make an unusually high score to-day at Credmoor, where Company I shoots his score will doubtless be protested. The Adjutant-General yesterday signed his release from the regiment, but up to last night the release had not been signed by the Governor. To all intents and purposes he is out of the company, and does not want to go to Credmoor. But in order to steer clear of possible complications, he has decided to take part in the shooting.

HAYTAN FAILS FOR SECOND TIME.

JAMES PAYNE GETS SPECIAL EXAMINATION AT OPHTHALMIC HOSPITAL.
The kindness of Vice-President George W. Clark of the New-York Ophthalmic Hospital, yesterday secured for James Payne, of Hayti, a colored student, a second examination, in the hope that he would be able to qualify as an eye, ear and throat specialist. The Examining Board gave Mr. Payne what was considered a perfectly fair examination several weeks ago, but he failed to qualify. Mr. Payne, wishing to have his year of study go for naught, he renewed his studies, and through Vice-President Clark got a second trial. The examination took place yesterday afternoon at the hospital before a full board of members of the faculty. Mr. Payne failed a second time. He was greatly discouraged.

COUNTRESS SCHIMMELMANN TO BAPTISTS.

SHE TELLS OF HER CONVERSION AND HER WORK AMONG BALTIC FISHERMEN.
Countess Schimmelmann, of Denmark, yesterday addressed the Baptist Ministers' Conference at the Central Baptist Church, in West Forty-second-st. She began by telling of her conversion while living in her father's castle. She then told how she had labored among the Baltic fishermen, and how a Government Commission was appointed to inquire into the condition of the fishing population. The Countess congratulated the Baptists present upon being members of a Church, founded wholly upon the Bible. Ecclesiasticism, she declared, brought ruin wherever it gained control.

APPRISERS AND MERIT SYSTEM.

GOVERNOR ASKED NOT TO APPROVE THE STATE CIVIL SERVICE BOARD'S ACTION.
The Civil Service Reform Association has appealed to Governor Roosevelt not to approve the action of the State Civil Service Commission in exempting the recently appointed appraisers under the Inheritance Tax laws from examination under Civil Service regulations. The letter to the Governor contains the following:

DOCTOR ACCUSED OF ANNOYING WOMEN.

Dr. Charles H. Tobynne, of No. 121 West Nineteenth-st., was arraigned before Magistrate Mayo in the West Side Court yesterday afternoon to answer a charge of assault preferred against him by Lillian Dunworth, of No. 125 West Nineteenth-st., a stenographer. She alleges that on Saturday Dr. Tobynne passed her home and made remarks reflecting upon her character. After they had some words she says that he slapped her face and dragged her into the hallway by the hair. She also alleges that Dr. Tobynne has made demands upon her throat. Dr. Tobynne admitted that he had taken hold of the young woman.

NEW PLAN TO MARKET THE RAISIN CROP.

John M. Chapman, of the John M. Chapman Company, No. 165 Hudson-st., one of the largest dealers in raisins in this section of the country, yesterday that the dispatch from Fresno, Cal., published yesterday morning in The Tribune, announcing a plan adopted by the Raisin Growers' Association for handling the raisin crop for the next three years, was accurate. He said:
