

This was in 1894, when Mr. Croker pushed upon Mr. Hill the nomination for Governor of New-York and Mr. Hill was badly beaten by Levi P. Morton.

HOW ILLINOIS TREATED STEVENSON. Mr. Hill enjoyed bringing forward Mr. Stevenson, because the latter had been badly treated by the Democrats of Illinois at their State Convention.

Mr. Hill also was opposed to the nomination of Charles A. Towne, and was influential in the ranks of those who brought about the nomination of Mr. Stevenson.

BRYAN DECIDED NOT TO APPEAR. But Mr. Bryan, after consultation with Senator Jones and ex-Governor Stone of Missouri, at midnight last night decided not to come here.
