

POWERS IN HIS DEFENCE.

HE EXPLAINS HIS SHARE IN THE PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE GOEBEL MURDER AT KENTUCKY'S CAPITAL.

Georgetown, Ky., July 30.—Caleb Powers, ex-Secretary of State, who was arrested in his own behalf but did not complete his testimony on direct examination. He probably will be on the stand all day to-morrow. Powers admitted that he organized the body of mountaineers who went to Frankfort on several occasions last winter, but declared this was done for the Legislature with the consent of the State.

He denied that Henry Youstey had the keys to his office on the day of the assassination, but said there were two keys to the office, one of which was in the possession of the former. Assistant Secretary of State, W. H. Cullton, and another in possession of "Ben" Row, Governor Taylor's colored porter. Powers says neither of these keys was ever in his possession, and that he had his own key in his pocket in Louisville the day of the assassination.

Davidson is supposed to be in the State of Washington, and Row, the colored porter, is said to be at Anderson, Ind. The defence opened its side of the case with a motion for peremptory instructions for a verdict of acquittal. The motion was submitted without argument and was promptly overruled by the Court.

Mr. Faulkner stated the case for the defence. He said the defence would show that the State's case was based on a partisan basis, and that politics was responsible for the present prosecutions. He intimated that the prosecution knows the identity of the assassin, but has concealed him. It would be admitted, he said, that Caleb Powers and Charles Finley organized and brought to Frankfort the State militia, who were arrested there on January 25, but that this was only to petition the Legislature, and not to intimidate that body. He declared that the men who composed the militia were not bad characters, as charged by the other side, and he charged also that the Democrats had large bodies of men in Frankfort to back up the militia.

He said Powers had in his pocket at the time of the killing the keys to his office, which the prosecution alleges had been given Youstey; that Powers never conferred with Youstey, Berry Howard, "Jim" Howard, Green, Golden or "Dick" Combs, and that "Jim" Howard was not on the Capitol grounds after the killing.

He asserted that the witness of the main witness for the prosecution, was never in Frankfort until recently; that Finley Anderson and Robert Noakes testified for money, and W. H. Cullton in the hope of obtaining immunity from prosecution, and that Wharton Golden's evidence would be successfully contradicted.

POWERS BEGINS HIS EVIDENCE. The defendant, Caleb Powers, first took the witness stand. His witness he never knew "Jim" Howard, Harry Whittaker or "Dick" Combs, three of the defendants, prior to the assassination. He had only known Youstey since January 1. In regard to the bringing of the mountaineers to Frankfort the witness said:

There were three crowds of men brought to Frankfort, and I had something to do with the organization of them. I used them as witnesses before the Contest Board, and also to show by their presence the interest they felt in the contest. I had heard of their coming to Frankfort, and I was directed to the contest by the newspapers. I was directed to the contest by the newspapers, and I was directed to the contest by the newspapers.

Mr. Bradley, of counsel for the prosecution, objected to this statement, and asked that it be excluded, on the ground that newspaper reports could not be given in evidence. The Court ruled that it was incompetent for the witness to detail newspaper reports or tell of apprehensions which he based on newspaper reports.

He said he had received information that Mr. Hill, the contestant for Secretary of State, would not wait until the contest was settled in court, but would try to take forcible possession as soon as the Contest Board acted. "If that sort of thing had been attempted," he said, "I intended to hold the office. I had a commission from Governor Taylor, and he had ordered the bringing of the crowd of men to show their interest in political affairs. He also advised that they be brought armed, and promised to pay the expenses. I acted on this. The plans were kept a secret to prevent dropping us through a bridge or derailing our train. I told those in the conference that the utmost secrecy must be observed in getting them there before the afternoon session the defendant resumed the stand. He read to the jury receipts from various persons which, he said, were for money paid by him for board for some of the mountain men brought by him to the State capital. He then told of the Barboursville conference, at which Finley, Powers and other mountaineers were present, and John A. Black, who strongly opposed the movement. The witness said he assured Black that he and Finley would use their best endeavors to keep the crowd from degenerating into a mob, but denied that he told Black he was going to organize a mob.

NOTHING DONE TO LEGISLATURE. He said he had no recollection of having said in the presence of W. H. Cullton that the Legislature would have thirty minutes in which to act, and that he had said that the Legislature would have Democratic legislators. Afterward he said positively that no such remark was made, and added: "The men came and nothing of the sort was done. We could have cleaned them up," as Cullton put it, if he had desired.

He said he had seen the men from Frankfort on the evening of January 25, about which Noakes testified last week and told of a breach of the peace which occurred at the residence of Governor Taylor. He said he had seen the men on the morning of the conference at the home of Postmaster P. Clay Elkin, at Lexington, in which the witness and others participated. This was the day the Legislature adjourned. He said that at the conference he decided that the vote had not been properly taken, and that Berry should refuse to sign the petition. POLICEMAN LACKED JUDGMENT. DEVERY AND CLAUSEN CENSURE THE MAN WHO ARRESTED A LITTLE GIRL.

Chief Devery is angry about the arrest of six-year-old Dora Callahan last Friday night by Policeman Powers, who saw the child pick three toy leaves for her doll in Stuyvesant Park. The toy was released by Magistrate Mott next morning. "Powers made a fool out of himself," the Chief said yesterday. "He cannot fall back on the usual plea of mistake, for he was doing his duty. There can be no excuse for arresting a child with a doll in her arms."

Chief Devery declined to say what punishment would be meted out to Powers. President Clausen of the Park Board said yesterday that he had been told of some remarks said to have been made by Chief Devery in criticism of the Park Department's rules for the police who are detailed in the parks.

"The fault is not with the rules," said President Clausen. "Under the old regime we had little or no trouble. Our policemen were then expected to use common sense, and they did so. If a child stepped on the grass a Magistrate would order it taken up, and the child would be taken care of. But since the Park police are under control of the regular police, they don't do that. They just get out their meaning. The arrest of that little girl was a serious lack of judgment on the part of the policeman."

POOL GIVES POLICEMAN THE LIE. MAGISTRATE DOESN'T BELIEVE HIM WHEN HE SAYS HE DIDN'T CLUB A WOMAN.

Just before adjourning court for the day Magistrate Pool, who is sitting in Jefferson Market Court, yesterday afternoon had a wordy war with Policeman Zuh, of the Macdougal-st. station, and told the policeman that he did not believe him. Josephine Vogelans, a colored woman, who was arrested shortly after midnight Saturday for creating a disturbance at Macdougal-st. station, 31 Zuh with clubbing her at the time he made the arrest.

Policeman Zuh swore that he had never clubbed the woman on the lower part of the body. A wordy war followed between Magistrate Pool and the policeman. The Magistrate interrupted the policeman as he said:

"I don't believe you. This woman was dressed, and I think that you clubbed her."

Policeman Zuh replied that he did not club the woman, and again the Magistrate told him that he did not believe his testimony. The Magistrate added that it was impossible to charge a policeman with assault, because every other policeman will come forward to help the accused policeman out of any predicament.

After a few more words, during which the Magistrate had heard of no proof to lessen his doubts, the woman's witnesses had been spirited away, he discharged the prisoner. The Magistrate and the policeman started out by the same aisle. "Step aside," called the Magistrate to Zuh, "for I suppose you'll be hitting me."

The policeman stepped back and went out by another aisle.

NO STRIKE AT HAVEMEYERS' EXPECTED. Arthur Donner, treasurer of the American Sugar Refining Company, denied yesterday that a strike is impending in the Havemeyer refinery in Brooklyn.

It is reported that a strike is threatened because of an intimation which has been conveyed to the board of directors that the wages of the men are to be reduced 50 cents a day. When Mr. Donner was asked about this report yesterday, he said he had heard of no proposal to lessen wages, and added that if such a step were contemplated he would have some knowledge of it.
