

NEWPORT FULL OF GAYETY

DINNER IN HONOR OF THE BRITISH

AMBASSADOR-INTEREST IN COMING WEDDINGS-ENTERTAINMENTS PLANNED.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 4 (Special).—Two coming out balls and two housewarmings are expected, the former by Mr. Van Alen and Mrs. Brooks for their daughters, and the latter by Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Dyer. Mrs. Dyer has been the guest of Mrs. Van Alen...

WATCH HILL'S DIVERSIONS

PLANS FOR GOLF MATCHES MANY GUESTS AT THE HOTELS.

Watch Hill, R. I., Aug. 4 (Special).—This ocean air makes guests enjoying a most unprecedented season thus far, and the indications are that the business will increase rather than decrease in the next three weeks. This week finds the hotels well filled by guests, and the round of social gayeties are keeping their minds well occupied.

The Red Coat hop given on Tuesday evening in honor of the British ambassador, was the most successful dance of the season. The rooms were tastefully decorated and trimmed. The dancing hall was crowded. A number of the men wore the regulation golf costume, and many women also wore the red coat.

On Tuesday evening of next week at the Larkin Hotel, Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Dyer will give a social gathering for the benefit of the Watch Hill Hospital. The program will include a play, which will undoubtedly attract many to that hotel. On Sunday night the Hampton Quartet will render plantation melodies. The full dress hop at the Larkin House on Saturday evening was largely attended. A supper was served in the evening.

The sale of the old Ward McAllister farm in Middletown for a Catholic church recalls the time, not many years ago, when this tract of land, beautifully situated on the shore of Narragansett Bay, was the scene of many social gatherings of fashionable people during the summer season. Here, from a large bungalow or reception hall erected on a bluff commanding a view of the bay, Mr. McAllister was wont to dispense his genial hospitality, his outdoor parties being among the recognized features of the year. It seems a striking contrast that a spot so associated in the past with feasting and mirth should finally be transformed into a resting place for the dead.

The automobile in its various forms is everywhere, but perhaps nowhere is so much in evidence as in front of the Casino during the fashionable hours, from 11:30 to 1:30 daily. So great has become the number of automobiles that an expert driver, in uniform, is on duty during the hours to remove the cars as they drive up and are left by their occupants for the concert and the gathering within the Casino. At the Golf Club, also, some provision has become necessary for their accommodation, and work has already been begun upon a stand in form for that purpose, just in front of the clubhouse.

One of the notable social entertainments of the week was the dinner given by Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock in honor of Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador, at Cliff Lawn. The house and grounds table were brilliantly illuminated for the occasion, the table being set with a miniature lake, with night blooming flowers, and Egyptian lotus floating on its surface. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Willing, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, Mrs. Isaac Bell, Jr., Mrs. Richard Gambrell, Augustus Jay, Lispenard Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gerry.

Arrivals have been given during the week by Mrs. Elisha Dyer, Mrs. Robert and Josephs Mrs. Williams Grosvenor, Mrs. Frank and Selma Grosvenor, Mrs. C. Schermerhorn, Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. Edwin Parsons, Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll, Mrs. J. Woodward, Mrs. W. B. Fisher, Miss Josephine Johnson, Mrs. Harry Park, Mrs. L. Q. Jones, Mrs. O. H. Belmont, at the Clamshell Club; Mrs. M. J. Brooks, Mrs. M. J. Brooks, Mrs. Burke-Roché, James J. Van Alen, Casimir De Rham.

FINE DAYS AT LENOX.

PREPARATIONS FOR REGATTA, GOLF TOURNAMENTS AND HORSE SHOW.

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 4 (Special).—Lenox has been enjoying a week of splendid summer weather. The days have been clear and not unbearably warm, and the nights have been cool and conducive to sleep.

The cottagers and the rustics at the hotels have enjoyed the fine weather to the utmost, and there has been a good deal of driving and other forms of entertainment and amusement. The interest in the golf fields seems to have found a new lease of life, and the course has been lively. Many of the cottagers who have been away at the seashore are returning, and within a fortnight the fall season at Lenox will be in full swing.

The opening day of the Alexandra Cup will be the regatta on Lake Mahkekean, the golf tournament for the President's Cup. Friday will witness the regatta on Lake Mahkekean, the golf tournament and the horse show. The regatta is to be held the last of this month. The members of the Mahkekean Boating Club will arrange the races for catboats and canoes. Charles Astor Bristed has taken to handling a catboat, and next season will have a new half racer on the lake.

The three happenings of the fall season will be the regatta on Lake Mahkekean, the golf tournament and the horse show. The regatta is to be held the last of this month. IN THE WHITE MOUNTAINS

NEW-YORK PEOPLE AMONG THE GUESTS

GOOD FISHING REPORTED.

Jefferson, White Mountains, N. H., Aug. 4 (Special).—Jefferson has had all sorts of weather in the last week, ranging from the cloudless, dazzlingly bright day to the showery one, and from the clear, strait sky to one of dense blackness, brightened now and then by a vivid flash of lightning.

The Waumbek and Jefferson are entertaining a goodly number of guests, and August will be the best month in the history of both houses. There is a great deal of outdoor life among the guests, and golf, tennis, croquet, driving and riding are the favored sports, while fishing is by no means overlooked, and many a morning a fishing party starts off at sunrise, while the dewdrops and spider webs on the grass foretell a fine day, to return at sundown with a basket full of speckled beauties resting on a nest of cool green leaves.

One of the most pleasant happenings of the week at the Waumbek was a party given by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Harrison, the Misses Lydia and Estelle Harrison, Lincoln and Miss Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Minot Jones, Miss Sturgis, Judge S. O. Prentice, Dr. Donnelly, Dr. Schaeffer, Mr. Gross, Mrs. H. E. Adriaens, Miss Raymond and Douglas R. Hartshorne.

Charles J. Fisk, who with his family is spending the summer on Long Island, is with George and Mrs. Fisk at the Waumbek for a brief visit. Mr. Fisk is the president of the Waumbek Hotel Company.

A spirited tennis match on the Waumbek Hall courts on Friday attracted a large number of spectators. Starr Donaldson and E. Prescott Rowe beat Jack Raymond and Julius Tuckerman, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2. Raymond and Tuckerman were also the victors in a most interesting tennis tournament of the season, and a tournament is expected at an early date.

Miss Helen Gross gave a six horse brake party on Friday, her guests being Miss Blair, Miss A. Raymond, Miss M. Post, Miss Sturgis, Miss Sheppard, Charles E. Gross, Charles W. Gross, E. P. Rowe, Henry C. Smith, "Jack" Raymond, Cyrus Adams, Jr., and Judge S. O. Prentice. They drove over the Highlands to the Ravine House, at Randolph, a beautiful drive of twenty miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Emmett, who went on a fishing trip last Friday, brought home seventy trout. Charles L. Raymond and friend went out on the same day and brought back as the result of the day's sport one hundred trout.

Mrs. Blackwell and G. H. Richards won a nine hole match from Mrs. Stevens and Donaldson 18-15 at the Mount Pleasant House on Friday, winning the last and deciding hole by forfeit, as Rule 19 was violated by Mrs. Stevens.
