

HUNTINGTON'S BODY HERE.

DEATH WAS DUE TO APOPLEXY, THE FAMILY PHYSICIAN SAYS.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW, AND WILL BE PRIVATE-DETAILS TO BE KNOWN TO-DAY.

The body of Collis P. Huntington, accompanied by Mrs. Huntington and the other members of the funeral party, was brought to this city from Camp Pine Knot, at Raquette Lake, in the Adirondacks, yesterday.

The funeral will be held to-morrow at 11 o'clock, and the burial will be at Woodlawn. The other details of the funeral will be announced to-day.

It was said at the house that the funeral will take place to-morrow at 11 o'clock, and the burial will be at Woodlawn.

The funeral party left Camp Pine Knot, on Raquette Lake, shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

The family and friends were made comfortable in the other private car, both of which bear the inscription of the Southern Pacific Railway.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

By her husband. The entire party were driven rapidly to the Huntington home, No. 2 East Fifty-seventh-st. G. E. Miles, Mr. Huntington's private secretary, remained behind to look after the body.

MR. HUNTINGTON'S LAST WORDS.

Mr. Miles made the following statement to a Tribune reporter: Mr. Huntington's death was so sudden that it has been a great shock to all his friends.

BODY REMOVED FROM THE TRAIN.

In the mean time the special had been switched to a more convenient track, and the coffin was taken out through a large window in the side of the car.

A UNIVERSAL FOOD.

Following Nature's Footsteps. "I have a boy, two years old, weighing forty pounds and in perfect health, who has been raised on Grape-Nuts and milk."

THE TOPEKA A TRAINING SHIP.

Boston, Aug. 15.—The remodelled gunboat Topeka, which was bought abroad two years ago, went into commission as a model training ship under the command of Commander Francis H. Delano.

conduct the services to-morrow, or even under that denomination they would be held. He said that the pallbearers and other details would be arranged.

TOMB BUILT REGARDLESS OF COST.

ROBERT CATERSON SAYS MR. HUNTINGTON SPENT ABOUT $250,000 FOR HIS LAST RESTING PLACE.

The Huntington mausoleum in Woodlawn Cemetery, in which the body of Collis P. Huntington will be placed, is, with one exception, according to the builder, Robert Caterson, the most costly private mausoleum in this country.

It was the effort to build an indestructible tomb that made its cost so great. To the uninitiated it is difficult to believe that so much money could have been expended upon it.

NEW-YORK MEMBERS OF THE REPUBLICAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW. WILLIAM L. STRONG. THOMAS C. PLATT.

TWEED MAY BE SUCCESSOR.

TALKED OF FOR PRESIDENT OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC—MR. HUNTINGTON'S WILL TO BE READ LATER.

It is believed in Wall Street that the will of Collis P. Huntington will be read immediately after the arrival of the Princess Hatzfeldt from Liverpool.

SMITH GIVES WARNING.

THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL SAYS OVERCONFIDENCE IS A DANGER.

Charles Emory Smith, the Postmaster-General, Senator O. H. Platt, of Connecticut, Senator John Keane, of New Jersey, and G. W. Wilson, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, were at the Republican National headquarters in this city yesterday.

FLORAL TRIBUTE FROM NEWPORT NEWS.

TO CHANGE THE NAME OF ONE OF THE CITY STREETS TO HUNTINGTON-AVE.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 15 (Special).—The citizens of Newport News, Va., are holding a meeting to decide to send a floral tribute to the memory of Collis P. Huntington for his funeral.

CHARLES H. TWEED.

Second vice-president and general counsel of the Southern Pacific and legal adviser of the late C. P. Huntington.

In the promptness with which a mild bear raid against Southern Pacific was frustrated, the stock market in less than fifteen minutes after the attack.

RED MAN WRITES OF FILIPINOS.

SOLDIER FROM THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL TELLS OF THE INTEREST IN BRYAN'S ELECTION.

Thomas C. Cree, of No. 3 West Twenty-ninth-st., has written a letter to the Tribune thanking it for its efforts in urging an early completion of the Forty-second-st. car line.

ROOSEVELT'S CAMPAIGN ITINERARY.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Vice-Chairman Henry C. Payne received at Republican headquarters to-day a copy of the itinerary of Governor Roosevelt, as far as agreed upon by the Governor and the National Committee.

FARMERS SUING RAILROAD.

Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Several actions for damages have been begun by farmers in this neighborhood against the New-York Central Railroad.

DIPHTHERIA PATIENT ON A TRAIN.

Midtown, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Charles Radigan, suffering from diphtheria, came here to-day from Livingston Manor on a crowded passenger train.

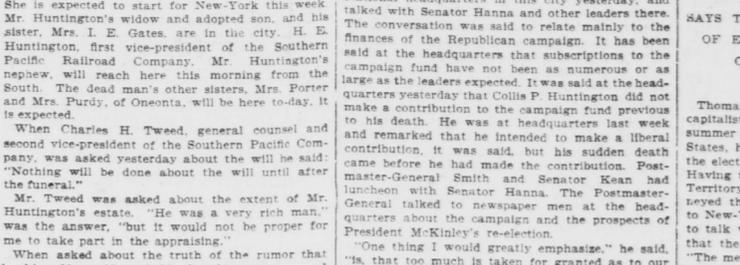

COLLIS P. HUNTINGTON.

HE WAS SECRETARY OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.

Woodbury, Aug. 15 (Special).—Augustus S. Barber, Jr., secretary of the Senate, and also secretary of the Republican State Committee, died at his home here to-day.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

By her husband. The entire party were driven rapidly to the Huntington home, No. 2 East Fifty-seventh-st. G. E. Miles, Mr. Huntington's private secretary, remained behind to look after the body.

MR. HUNTINGTON'S LAST WORDS.

Mr. Miles made the following statement to a Tribune reporter: Mr. Huntington's death was so sudden that it has been a great shock to all his friends.

BODY REMOVED FROM THE TRAIN.

In the mean time the special had been switched to a more convenient track, and the coffin was taken out through a large window in the side of the car.

A UNIVERSAL FOOD.

Following Nature's Footsteps. "I have a boy, two years old, weighing forty pounds and in perfect health, who has been raised on Grape-Nuts and milk."

THE TOPEKA A TRAINING SHIP.

Boston, Aug. 15.—The remodelled gunboat Topeka, which was bought abroad two years ago, went into commission as a model training ship under the command of Commander Francis H. Delano.

CHARLES H. TWEED.

Second vice-president and general counsel of the Southern Pacific and legal adviser of the late C. P. Huntington.

RED MAN WRITES OF FILIPINOS.

SOLDIER FROM THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL TELLS OF THE INTEREST IN BRYAN'S ELECTION.

ROOSEVELT'S CAMPAIGN ITINERARY.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Vice-Chairman Henry C. Payne received at Republican headquarters to-day a copy of the itinerary of Governor Roosevelt, as far as agreed upon by the Governor and the National Committee.

FARMERS SUING RAILROAD.

Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Several actions for damages have been begun by farmers in this neighborhood against the New-York Central Railroad.

DIPHTHERIA PATIENT ON A TRAIN.

Midtown, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Charles Radigan, suffering from diphtheria, came here to-day from Livingston Manor on a crowded passenger train.

Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland, finishing his speechmaking in New-York.

AUGUSTUS S. BARBER DEAD.

HE WAS SECRETARY OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.

Woodbury, Aug. 15 (Special).—Augustus S. Barber, Jr., secretary of the Senate, and also secretary of the Republican State Committee, died at his home here to-day.

Mr. Barber had been for many years actively identified with the politics of his native county and also of the State. He was for a long time treasurer of Gloucester County, where he was born fifty-two years ago, and where he learned the trade of a printer in the office of "The Woodbury Constitution," which was established by his father, and to the ownership of which he succeeded about twenty years ago.

Mr. Barber was recognized as one of the leading newspaper editors in Western New-Jersey. He had always been known as an aggressive and active Republican, and his acquaintance was statewide.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

THE HUNTINGTON MAUSOLEUM IN WOODLAWN.

By her husband. The entire party were driven rapidly to the Huntington home, No. 2 East Fifty-seventh-st. G. E. Miles, Mr. Huntington's private secretary, remained behind to look after the body.

MR. HUNTINGTON'S LAST WORDS.

Mr. Miles made the following statement to a Tribune reporter: Mr. Huntington's death was so sudden that it has been a great shock to all his friends.

BODY REMOVED FROM THE TRAIN.

In the mean time the special had been switched to a more convenient track, and the coffin was taken out through a large window in the side of the car.

A UNIVERSAL FOOD.

Following Nature's Footsteps. "I have a boy, two years old, weighing forty pounds and in perfect health, who has been raised on Grape-Nuts and milk."

THE TOPEKA A TRAINING SHIP.

Boston, Aug. 15.—The remodelled gunboat Topeka, which was bought abroad two years ago, went into commission as a model training ship under the command of Commander Francis H. Delano.

CHARLES H. TWEED.

Second vice-president and general counsel of the Southern Pacific and legal adviser of the late C. P. Huntington.

RED MAN WRITES OF FILIPINOS.

SOLDIER FROM THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL TELLS OF THE INTEREST IN BRYAN'S ELECTION.

ROOSEVELT'S CAMPAIGN ITINERARY.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Vice-Chairman Henry C. Payne received at Republican headquarters to-day a copy of the itinerary of Governor Roosevelt, as far as agreed upon by the Governor and the National Committee.

FARMERS SUING RAILROAD.

Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Several actions for damages have been begun by farmers in this neighborhood against the New-York Central Railroad.

DIPHTHERIA PATIENT ON A TRAIN.

Midtown, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Charles Radigan, suffering from diphtheria, came here to-day from Livingston Manor on a crowded passenger train.

HE OVER-ATE BUT JOHN'S DIGESTIVE TABLETS CURE HIM IMMEDIATELY.

HE OVER-ATE BUT JOHN'S DIGESTIVE TABLETS CURE HIM IMMEDIATELY.