New-York Daily Tribune. SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1900. THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

FOREIGN.—Unrest is expressed in European capitals at outbreaks of violence in Amoy, Swatow and coast cities of China, and in some of the central and southern provinces.

DOMESTIC.—The Lord Roberts confirmed the sentence of death on Lieutenant Cordia, at Pretoria, for conspiracy and violation of his parole, and he was executed.

CITY.—Stocks were dull and heavy. The will of Collis P. Huntington was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office.

THE WEATHER.—Forecast for to-day: Local rains and thundershowers. The temperature yesterday: Highest, 82 degrees; lowest, 72; average, 76.

THE SCARECROW OF "MILITARISM." Colonel Bryan continues to flout before the crowds at Western war stations the perils of a threatened regime of "militarism."

Several improvements have recently been made in the railway service between Edinburgh and London. A particular express, known as the Flying Scotsman, has hitherto stopped twenty minutes at York for luncheon.

It is impossible to set a limit to the evils naturally flowing from an unpunished outbreak of violence and brutality among the police of a great city. Such an infection is swift and pervasive. Its inevitable tendency is to involve not only the whole body of public guardians, but all the turbulent and vicious elements of the population.

General Humidity has evidently not yet been put upon the retired list. Senator Marton F. Cockrell, of Missouri, is disposed to think the recent Democratic rally at Sedalia too great a popular success.

and luxury in railway travel would pay in the long run. What might look to-day like appalling extravagance would to-morrow prove a source of increased revenue.

INDUSTRIAL OMENS IN FRANCE. The United States Consul at Bordeaux, Mr. Tourge, reports that this year's wheat crop in France shows a deficit, notwithstanding the surplus from last year and the year before.

A POLICE INVESTIGATION. Mr. Guggenheimer has performed a number of important services in the right manner during his temporary occupancy of the Mayor's office and given the people of this city good reason to wish that Mr. Van Wyck would stay away for the rest of his term.

General Humidity has evidently not yet been put upon the retired list. Senator Marton F. Cockrell, of Missouri, is disposed to think the recent Democratic rally at Sedalia too great a popular success.

Charges that immigration officials at this port have practiced extortion and brutality on arriving immigrants have heretofore been made and carried to headquarters at Washington, where they have received the attention.

China has numerous old capitals in various parts of its territory in which the fugitive Emperor Dowager may take refuge after another if hard pressed, but appearances indicate that she will presently become too unimportant to make it worth her while to run away.

Reports originating in Ostend, formerly famous only for its poor oysters, now grown a mare's nest of rumor, signify that there was no attempt on the Shah's life after all.

Croker seems to feel a dull presaging movement that rocks his throne as if the first pulsations of a political earthquake were moving under it.

PERSONAL. Mark Twain, who will soon return to his home in Hartford, Conn., thus answers a friend who had been in it did not enjoy traveling.

Reports have been published from Camp Keuren, at Ninette, to the effect that an officer of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, found an empty bottle in the camp "that had the scent of beer."

The incident shows the superiority of the National Guard of New-York, which is composed of men who, like their Connecticut comrades, know the value of beer and rum, but in whose tents no empty bottles have ever been found.

In a report to Governor Morton, which created much discussion at the time, General McLeese spoke of officers who indulged in excess in ardent drink, to the detriment of the service, but McLeese was dismissed from the service, the accused officers remained, the possibility of placing the National Guard of New-York in the position now occupied by the New-Haven Grays was averted, and any lingering doubt as to the total abstinence of New-York soldiers in camp was set at rest.

They seem to be having about as much fun over the Presidential campaign in Hawaii as though they were to have votes in the election.

Senator George L. Wellington is reported as saying the other day in Baltimore: "Who will be my successor in the Senate? I may succeed myself, but if I don't it will be some good Democrat. It won't be a Republican. The Republican party is gone in this State."

It is not a thing of beauty; it is wrinkled in the back. And her buttons which are not the slightest use. But you think it is your duty to wear it.

Probably Landed—"Well," exclaimed the young man in the link ship's cabin, hanging his hat on a hook as he came in. "I've made one of these blamed fool election bets."

It was reported last night that Miss Adele Ritchie is to become the leading lady of "The Cadet Girl," to succeed Miss Christie MacDonald, who is to leave the company early in September.

THE DESAUVY FORCE OF THE SAVOY THEATRE LESSEES has just been elected and the following officers: President, Charles G. S. A. Ball, secretary, Simon Dessau, treasurer, they named themselves the Savoy Theatre and Music Hall Company.

"A colony of Mormons from Utah," says a correspondent of "The Chicago Record," "have just gone into the Big Horn Basin and are encamping a tract adjoining Colonel Cody's property."

THE MAN AND HIS COAT. How custom makes us tremble! We assume that we are in the land of the free. But we're each and all afraid of fashion's steed.

Some years ago a man ran up a bill of $200 in the Tremont House, Chicago, and then ran away with out settling it. The trunk which remained in his room was unusually heavy, and when opened after his departure was found to contain specimens of ore, brought from the gold and silver mines of Colorado, where, presumably, he had lost all his money.

NOTES OF THE STAGE. It was reported last night that Miss Adele Ritchie is to become the leading lady of "The Cadet Girl," to succeed Miss Christie MacDonald, who is to leave the company early in September.

THE DESAUVY FORCE OF THE SAVOY THEATRE LESSEES has just been elected and the following officers: President, Charles G. S. A. Ball, secretary, Simon Dessau, treasurer, they named themselves the Savoy Theatre and Music Hall Company.

Friday is supposed to be an off day usually, and the Friday of this week is no exception. At Newport it was devoted to luncheons and dinners. Each hostess has a certain evening, which is one of a series, and there are never fewer than fifteen or twenty dinners going on. The gayety, which seems to have had expression in a rather unbecoming way in which animals were to figure principally, resulted in a shock, and people gradually put themselves in trim for Sunday.

Bar Harbor, however, has been in fête in the first place, Thursday was the second day of the Horse Fair, and the afternoon was devoted to that entertainment. Bar Harbor alone did not monopolize this, and there were many parties from York County, Seal Harbor, Northeast Harbor and the numerous Mount Desert resorts.

Southampton had its horse show, which will close to-day. It has also its dance at the Meadow Club and its many dinners preceding it. There are numerous house parties. Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor have been entertaining Miss Cozer, from Westchester. Colonel and Mrs. Harry May, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Tremor, Mr. Park, and Mrs. Alfred Boardman and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Brewster have been having house parties with people. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barclay have among other visitors Miss Paul, who is to marry young Mr. Barclay this autumn.

THE TALK OF THE DAY. Broce Benner, of Coffeyville, Kan., has made a small fortune during the last few months by exhibiting a so-called "feathered dog" in various parts of the Sunflower State.

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIVE CHILDREN GO TO THE COUNTRY. The last of the Tribune Fresh Air Fund's "big days" for this summer has gone by. That was yesterday, when 185 children were sent to the country for a two-week outing.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Collection made at services held in the Poland Spring House, South Poland, Me., which were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. C. Burdette.

MR. DEPEW BACK TO-DAY. Senator Chauncey M. Depew will arrive to-day of the American Line steamship New-York. Mr. Depew is accompanied by his son, Chauncey M. W. and his niece, Miss Anna Depew Fausch.

F. H. BENEDICT BUTS MORE LAND. Oyster Bay, Long Island, Aug. 24.—F. H. Benedict, of New-York, has bought the Burton estate, which adjoins his country home at Cove Neck. The price paid for the property is said to be $10,000. Mr. Benedict is a broker.

WILL OF JAMES F. MALCOLM FILED. The will of James F. Malcolm was filed yesterday for probate in the Surrogate's office. No petition was filed with the will, and the amount of the estate is not given. The testator's house, carriage and furniture are left to his widow for her life. Upon her death to his daughter, Jeanette, 25 years widow is also to have an income of $2,000 a year. The will makes no provision for Mr. Malcolm's granddaughter, Aline, and says that she has undertaken the reasons for her being omitted in the will. A bequest of $10,000 to Rutgers College is also revoked by a codicil in which the testator's only daughter will daughter will inherit as if provided by him to her prior to his death.
