

others, a majority of the business firms in Broadway, from Waverley Place to Twenty-third-st., signed a petition which was presented to the Sound Money Parade Executive Committee last night, asking that the parade pass up Broadway instead of Fifth-ave.

The petition set forth that all its signers were subscribers to the republican campaign and Sound Money parade funds, and had made arrangements to throw open their stores on the day of the parade in order that their patrons and the families of their employees might be enabled to see the marchers. They had planned to decorate their stores and hotels, and the Metropolitan Street Railway Company had agreed to its will to have its cars without interfering with the parade should it march in Broadway.

A business man, in speaking of the petition, said that the only object of the Parade Committee was that the petition came too late.

BE HYPOCRITES, SAYS M'GUIRE.

James K. McGuire, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, is going to close up state headquarters in the St. James Building to-morrow, and so far as the State Committee is concerned, the campaign will be ended. Mr. McGuire will then go to Syracuse to put in the last two days before election working in his home city.

To-morrow the big trusts and their subsidiary interests will endeavor to impress the people with their own version of the republican campaign. Many clerks and mechanics who intend to vote for Bryan and the free employment issue will be asked to march in the parade. They will be asked to march in the parade in order to show their places of employment. To say that the parade is a sham is to say that the marching men intend to vote for Bryan and the free employment issue. They will be asked to march in the parade in order to show their places of employment.

MT. VERNON HONEST MONEY PARADE.

The Republicans of Westchester County closed the campaign last night with an honest money parade in Mount Vernon, where it will be held for the first time in the history of the county. The parade was held in Mount Vernon, New-Rochelle, Yonkers and Port Chester. The formation of the parade was as follows: Platoon of police; Grand Marshal William Willson, jr., and staff; cavalry division, under ex-Mayor Lewis, one hundred men, including Otis Horse Guard, of Yonkers; Mertz Reed Band, of Port Chester; James S. Merritt Marching Club, of Port Chester; 1st Regiment Bersaglieri, of Mount Vernon Sound Marching Club, of Italian-American clubs of Mount Vernon; Port Chester Cornet Band; Russell, Birdsall and Ward Battery, of Port Chester; A. H. Gale File and Drum Corps; William L. Ward Battery, of Port Chester; Eagle File and Drum Corps; Rye Battery; Boys' Brigade, led by a little girl in a white dress, and a number of other bands.

M'GUIRE DRIVEN TO HIS MUSHROOMS.

The concentrated energy of the Bryan-Crocker headquarters in the St. James Building was devoted yesterday to exploiting an able-bodied crowd back to the effect that the 150,000 Republicans who will take part to-morrow in the great sound money parade are not to be deceived by the "sham" marchers of "William Jay Brennings," as Webster Davis called him, and after marching several miles for McKinley and Roosevelt, vote for the Nebraska and a perpetual vacation without wages or board on Tuesday next.

MOSS SPEAKS IN XXIST.

Victims of the XXist Assembly District attended in large numbers a Republican mass meeting held last night at the Colonial Hall, one-hundred-and-first-st. and Columbus-ave. Oscar Hoffstadt presided. Frank Moss was one of the first speakers. The one issue of the campaign, he said, was William J. Bryan. The Democratic candidate attacked not only the pocketbooks and interests of the people, but the Nation itself. His charges, Mr. Moss said, were destructive to American honor and honesty. Referring to Richard Croker's championship of Bryan, Mr. Moss said: "There is no place in the country cursed with imperialism and trusts as New-York. If you want a job, or if you have a job already, the only way you can get it is to go to the office of the trusts and say to them: 'I will support you if you will support me.'"

NOTES OF THE CANVASS.

A mass meeting under the auspices of the Loyal Republican Club was held last night in Harry Howard Square, at Canal and Baxter sts. The square was crowded, and it was said to be the largest gathering in years of Republicans in the Vth Assembly District. One hundred and fifty members of the club marched to the meeting under the leadership of James F. March. The line was escorted by the Olympia File and Drum Corps. The meeting was orderly and the addresses were listened to attentively. The speakers were Richard Daly and half a dozen others. The meeting lasted till 10:30 o'clock.

will not be interfered with, and they had better exercise caution in "monopolizing" community funds. They will find, too, on Tuesday, that this solid mass of paraders will vote as they marched.

GET YOUR BAIL READY, MR. COWEN.

EX-GOVERNOR STONE IS GOING TO HAVE YOU ARRESTED RIGHT AWAY QUICK—HE'S "TERRIBLY" IN EARNEST—SAYS SO HIMSELF.

Ex-Governor Stone, in charge of the Eastern branch of the Democratic headquarters, has been having some bad nights and days about John K. Cowen, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Recently, as told in The Tribune, Mr. Cowen said that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad had ordered $500,000 worth of new cars, but that should Bryan be elected the commercial and financial condition would follow that would make it necessary to cancel the contract. Mr. Stone has had Mr. Bryan come out with an attack upon Mr. Cowen for alleged intimidation of voters. He has also said some bitter things about Mr. Cowen himself. Yesterday he went a step further and telegraphed Mr. Blaine, chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Maryland, to secure the arrest of and provide for the prosecution of Cowen under the laws of that State on the charge of intimidating voters.

WILLCOX REPLIES TO BELMONT.

ASKS HIM WHETHER HIS OWN INCOME IS NOT DERIVED FROM TRUSTS.

In the course of his speeches in the XXIII Congress District last night William R. Willcox answered the assertion broadcast over the district by O. H. P. Belmont that a vote for Willcox would be a vote for the Sugar Trust, and that Mr. Willcox was in the pay of the Standard Oil Trust. Mr. Willcox emphatically denied that he had ever received a cent from either of those corporations, and said that he knew none of their officers and would not know them if he saw them in the street. Mr. Willcox then said: "Now, I have frankly answered this suggestion from my opponent, and I ask him whether he has a large part of the princely income which he has used to purchase a Congressional nomination from Mr. Croker derived from the Standard Oil Trust, the Sugar Trust and similar corporations."

LIVE ELEPHANT FOR THE PARADE.

The Custom House Brokers' Sound Money Club, of which Charles S. Devoe is president and which to head its parade of about one thousand, expects to have a big elephant, which has been obtained through William Bartlett, of No. 399 Greenwich-st. The elephant is now on its way here from Ohio, and is due to-morrow. There is some uncertainty in the minds of the parade leaders as to whether or not the Board of Health will allow a parade of this kind in procession. In the sound money parade in Chicago, the other day there were two elephants in the line.

MORE VOTING BOOTHS ORDERED.

GENERAL RODENBOUGH SAYS HE WILL BE READY FOR THE BIG REGISTRATION.

General Francis V. Greene, president of the Republican County Committee, paid a short visit to Police Headquarters yesterday, and for ten minutes talked over the plan of the Bureau to handle the vote in election districts of the city where registration this year is abnormally large. General Rodenbough said that General Greene went away satisfied that the Bureau would do everything in its power to handle the vote in big districts, and he thought that no one need be apprehensive that voters would not be able to cast their ballots on Election Day.

Max Hochstim, a Tammany Hall captain in the Vth Assembly District; "Abe" Silverman, George Greenberg, Jacob Lawlor, John Smith, alias "Sonny" Smith, and Patrolmen George Kohlman and Daniel A. Kerr, of the Eldridge-st. police station, were indicted by the Grand Jury yesterday for an offence committed on November 7, 1899, on evidence furnished by deputies of superintendent McCullagh. They are charged with having failed to render assistance to McCullagh's deputies and with interfering with them while in the discharge of their duties at No. 25 Delancey-st., the polling place of the Eleventh Election District of the Vth Assembly District, the facts being recited in an affidavit by M. Dienstag, captain of the McCullagh deputies at that place. Early on the morning of that day Captain Dienstag saw that a large crowd had gathered about the polling place, and he feared trouble. He informed the Superintendent of Elections, and the latter informed Chief of Police Devery. The latter promised to have a sufficient number of policemen on hand to prevent a disturbance. Among the many persons who were present there were Hochstim, the Tammany captain of the election district, and the others who were indicted yesterday.

John A. Hamilton and Charles B. Blaney represented Superintendent McCullagh, and Stephen J. O'Hare the other side. Warden O'Rourke, the only witness examined, said it was optional with many of the employees whether they should live and board in Bellevue. He said those under $50 a year had not been appointed by the civil service Commission. All that had been appointed by the civil service Commission had their names stricken from the registration lists under the recent decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to the effect that no unpaid employee of a public institution "can gain or lose a residence in the city by the purpose of voting."

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

HE ADDRESSES EIGHT MEETINGS IN ONE EVENING—SPEECHES ON WAY ACROSS INDIANA.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—William Jennings Bryan this afternoon began his three days' itinerary of this city, addressing a great concourse at Randolph-st. and Michigan-ave. The speakers' stand was at the side of the Public Library, and the platform was thronged around it that the Presidential candidate was dragged to the platform by a squad of policemen, who acted under the personal supervision of Mayor Harrison, who had ridden with Mr. Bryan from the railway station. Mr. Bryan was escorted by the Dearborn-st. station by the Cook County Democrats. The hour was especially auspicious, as thousands of workmen and office employees had just completed their day's tasks and awaited the coming of the Democratic champion.

Mr. Bryan was in excellent voice, and this he used to good effect in reducing the cheering that greeted him when he stepped on the platform. Michael Shields, vice-president of the County Committee. His speech was applauded almost incessantly, and at its conclusion he was driven to the Auditorium, where he took dinner, after which he proceeded on his tour of the northwest side of the city, where he made eight speeches, all of which were to large crowds.

GRUBER EXCORIATES BRYAN.

"Nothing doing, nothing doing; toll the milk bells to Bryan's ear, each minor note adding to his dreadfulness. That Nebraska," continued Abraham Gruber last night at the Republican rally at One-hundred-and-sixty-sixth-st. and Eighth-ave., "stalks across the country, backward and forward, on both sides of the Mississippi, calling an important people to a party, a driving force of National policy. This Paul Revere, who would lead an enslaved people to a new Jordan. But the Americans have fuller stomachs than had the Israelites, and they refuse to give ear to the false prophet. Bryan Mississippi in that he is the only American who has learned nothing in the years. He showed the perverseness of his ignorance when he forced East-Porto Rican to the policy of free silver. I hesitate to say what would be Bryan's attitude to-night if the $50 he will receive for his speech were reduced to five cents as would be the true case according to his system of finance. LABOR ATTACKS RUPPERT'S RECORD.

The labor unions of the XVth Congress District are making trouble for Congressman Jacob Ruppert, who is seeking re-election. They assert that he is an enemy of organized labor, that he employs many important persons in his district, and that he is doing nothing to end the strike in the De Lorge and Frigering Machine Works, which are controlled by himself and family, and that he sold out his independent ice plant to the Ice Trust, instead of retaining it for the benefit of the poorer classes.
