ON MISSIONARY WORK.

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONGREGATIONAL WOMAN'S BOARD IN BOSTON.

Boston, Nov. 7 (Special).-The thirty-third annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions began yesterday in this city. The meetings are being held in the "new" Old South Church, and represent the Congregational churches east of

In the morning a memorial service was neld for Mary S. Morrill and Annie A. Gould, of Portland, Me., who were among those killed at Pao-Ting-Fu, orth China. The memorial address was delivered by Miss Alice M. Kyle, of this city, field secretary, The report of the home department was read by Miss Abbie E. Child, and the treasurer's report by Miss Sarah Louise Day. Miss Fannie E. Burrage, of Cesarea, Turkey, and Mrs. James H. Pettee, of Okayama, Japan, made addresses, and the Board secretary, Miss E. Harriet Stanwood, read her report on the present situation in mission lands. Some of the facts stated by Miss Stanwood were quick succession, raising the perplexing problem how sultable accommodations could be provided for the many orpha's and to keep contagion from the schools. A bungalow, with extensive grounds, has been prepared, the generous gift of a wealthy Parsee in Bombay. Farnum Hall, a new primary school building, has been erected, the gift of personal friends in America and the contributions of some Christian Endeavor societies. Thirty-six children have united with the Church this year, twenty of them the famine children of 1897. There are wonderful opportunities for reaching high caste women just now, as the famine has so broken the terrible barrier of caste. Miss Nugent has a house filled with famine stricken high caste women and children, and will take a large number of orphans when she can find a suitable house. The arrival of the Quito at Bombay was halled with demonstrations of welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Winsor, and with expressions of the deepest gratitude for the generous gift they brought and the Interest shown in America for India's distress. In addition to the corn, which was distributed to the most needy, seed was given to the farmers.

sick, and when they are sick they hope their maladies will disappear without any particular effort on their part. Medical aid is not called in until there is unbearable suffering, and the foreign physician not until life is threatened. Nevertheless, Dr. Woodhull, of Foo-Chow, reports more theless, Dr. Woodhull, of Foo-Chow, reports more than five thousand cases treated in the last year, the large majority of which were dispensary visits. Last year there was a larger number of in-patients than any previous year, and this year there has been a still further increase. The Heavenly Foot Society, which has been formed outside of missionary circles by the women in China, sent a delegate to speak to the native women under Miss Woodhull's influence in Foo-Chow. The young men in China are in a great measure responsible for the small feet, as young men in America are responsible for the small waists.

Miss Daughaday, at Sapporo, has a remarkable hold upon the young Japanese men, and in her five classes has not only students, but Government officials, teachers and soldiers. Easy lessons in Christianity, scientific temperance and kindness to animals are taught the children. Japan now leads the world in legislation on the tobacco question. The Government has passed a stringent law against the use of tobacco by minors, and many of the schools have been spurred up to include the native drink, sake, in the same category with tobacco. The silkworm industry, carried on by the women of Maebashi Province, has developed in them a of Maebashi Province, has developed in them a spirit of independence, a practical grasp on affairs and a desire to improve the community in which they live which is not found in other parts of Japan. Twice a year there is a union meeting of all the Christian women in the province for conference and prayer. There is a general temperance convention held semi-annually, largely attended by the women, who also sustain their local meetings. Miss Julia A. E. Gulick, after a month's stay at Okayama, is much impressed by the amount and variety of work accomplished by Miss Adams and Miss Wainwright during the year and a half that they held the station alone. Miss Gulick, on her first arrival, received the title from one of the coolles near the station of "Jesus old lady," which she regarded as a great improvement on "white halred granny," which was the nickname given her by the boys in Kumamoto.

FACTS ABOUT WOMEN.

Miss Dorothea Klumpke, of California, the well known astronomer, now in Paris, is the recipient of a doctor's degree from the University of Paris.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Allburn, of Chicago, is the superior recorder of the degree of honor of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. She has under her supervision twenty-one grand lodges and thirty-five subordinate lodges.

Mrs. Charles G. Washburn, of Worcester, Mass., will furnish the Slater Memorial dormitory of the Woman's College of Brown University.

Mrs Mariana W. De Coronel, of Los Angeles has presented to the Chamber of Commerce of that city a collection of ethnological relics of the Pacific Coast made by her husband, the late Don Antonio F. Coronel. There are some souvenirs of Helen Hunt Jackson and many old pieces of Ind-lan and Spanish handiwork.

HOW TO GET A BREAKFAST.

The preparation of breakfast dishes was the subject that engrossed the attention of the members of the League for Political Education, at No. 23 West Forty-fourth-st., yesterday afternoon. Miss Nellie Dot Ranché, of Chicago, was the speaker, and illustrated by practical work, which was afterward sampled by her audience, the preparation of crys tal apples with oats, the making of nut and wheat fritters, egg balls, orange omelet and coffee. This was the first of a series of twelve lectures to be en on consecutive afternoons, excepting Sundays, at 3:30 o'clock

For the crystal apples with oats, Miss Ranché washed, halved and cored four large apples. Sne next made a syrup of one cupful of granulated sugar and one and one-half cupfuls of boiling water. hext made a syrup of one cupful of granulated sugar and one and one-half cupfuls of boiling water. As the mixture began to thicken she dropped in the apples and boiled them until they were tender. She then lifted them out carefully, rolled each piece in granulated sugar, returned them to the sauce and excred them with oat meal porrdige.

The latter was made by cooking a cupful of prepared oats in two cupfuls of boiling water and a teaspoonful of salt for twenty minutes. She served the dish with cream, which, she said, could be plain or whipped, and the apples could be left whole, the openings left by removing the core to be filled with dates, raisins, cherries or any other fruit.

WOMAN'S LOAN ASSOCIATION.

Chicago has a useful institution in the Woman's Aid Loan Association, which lends money in small sums to deserving women to relieve temporary embarrassment. From $10 to $15 is lent at a time without interest, and may be repaid in small week-ly instalments. The association was formed less than a year ago, and in that time has lent $600. Not a loan has been lost up to the present time.

WOMAN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB TO BE FORMED-CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW AD-DRESSES PRELIMINARY MEETING.

The Woman's Republican Club is the name of the new organization which held a preliminary meeting on Monday last at the home of Mrs. James Griswald Wentz, No. 312 West Eighty-second-st. This club will not interfere in any respect with the West End Women's Republican Association, but will work along entirely different sociation, but will work along entirely different lines. Its object is to call parlor meetings through the State, and to interest society women. Chauncey M. Depew, although just returned from a long and fatiguing tour of this State, addressed the meeting on Monday afternoon, and by his presence and his words showed his deep interest n the new club.

The Senator spoke for nearly an hour, and said The Senator spoke for nearly an nour, and said he believed that the real influence of woman is felt after the excitement and rush of the day is over and the man returns to the calm of the home, where the wife who understands can talk intelligently on the various political issues.

"I will not commit myself on the suffrage question." said the Senator with a conscious smile, "because I am both eligible and anxious, and I have so many friends among the women on both sides."

The meeting was also addressed briefly by Will-

The meeting was also addressed briefly by William H. Douglas, from the XIVth Congress District, and by Julius H. Seymour, from the XIXth Assembly District.

Another meeting for the formation of the club on the usual lines will soon be held, after which regular sessions with luncheons will take place at Delmonico's, with influential men as speakers, and discussions on leading political topics. Membership slips are already issued, upon which each applicant subscribes her name and address to this pledge: pledge: "I enroll in this club as a Republican, and prom-ise my support to the principles of the Republican party."

WHAT THE W. H. P. A. IS DOING FOR THE PROTECTION OF HEALTH-DELEGATES

TO THE FEDERATION. At the monthly meeting of the Women's Health Protective Association, which convened on Tuesday morning at the Hall of Medicine, No. 17 West Forty-third-st., a vast increase of work was re-ported. The exchequer is to be increased by bringing in associate members, who will pay $1 each for

The main efforts of the society are to be concentrated upon the much mooted garbage question. A petition recently received, urging the aid of the Women's Health Protective Association, was signed ir hundred residents of Far Rockaway, Avon and Edgemere, who complained of the unhealthy condition of the beaches from the continued washing up of garbage. The association has vowed to keep up agitation of the subject until the abolition of the dumping grounds is accomplished.

The association has also denounced the proposed advertising scheme for placing steel re-ceptacles at the street corners for trash and papers and using said receptacles for advertising placards. "Of course, we need the trash receptacles, but we can't afford to have our city made more unsightly than it is now with posters and placards," said Mrs. Ralph Trautmann.

A resolution was passed to send a letter of sympathy to the family of the late ex-Mayor Strong, who was always so helpful to the association. lending his influence in every way possible to

WITH COLLEGE WOMEN.

A NEW FEATURE OF THE CLUB'S WORK-TO ESTABLISH A MEMORIAL LIST.

The College Women's Club had a delightful meetfirst of the season, yesterday at the Waldorf-Astoria. A large number was present, among them not only daughters and mothers, but sons and husbands of members. One member was heard to remark: "I brought my husband because I wanted him to have a good time. I was sure he would enoy it." And he did.

The programme consisted of instrumental music by Miss Frances Pendleton Jones, songs by Miss Ella F. Hayt and humorous recitations by Miss Louise Karr, one of whose selections was writter for her by Mary E. Wilkins.

Among the guests were several members of th Emma Willard Association, including Mrs. Russell Sage and Mrs. Whitman-Phillips, of Ridgewood. Mrs. Phillips is regarded as the oldest woman graduate of a woman's college now living, being eighty-four years of age. Mrs. Rebecca D. Lowe, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, was also a guest. A new feature undertaken by the club is the send ing of a box of clothing to Doane University, Creighton, Neb. An appeal was made to the club for clothing, as many students there, taking ad vantage of the scholarships, come from families of very limited means.

It has recently been proposed that the names of deceased members and of deceased friends of members of the society may be entered upon a memorial list, upon the payment of not less than $25, and that the names of deceased life members shall be placed on the memorial list. The money thus re red shall be used exclusively for the scholarship fund.

The club has this year taken a new beneficiary, who is placed in the Women's Medical College of Philadelphia. The beneficiary at the Chicago University has entered upon her second year's work.

Meetings will be held on Wednesday afternoon, January 9; Saturday evening, February 2; Friday evening, March 6, and the annual meeting in April.

Miss Irwin-Martin, president of the club, and Mrs. F. J. Swift, treasurer, will go to Albany as delegates to the State Federation.

AT THE MARY ARDEN CLUB.

The Mary Arden Club, of which Mrs Anna Randall Diehl is the president, met at the home of Mrs. George Howes, No. 260 West Fifty-seventh-st., yes-terday morning. It was the first meeting of the season, and the members reviewed the work of the last year with much satisfaction.

The Mary Arden Club is studying the works of Shakespeare in anything but a cursory fashion, for it devotes a whole season to one play. Mrs. Alexander C. Milne related her reminiscences of the last summer, and Mrs. C. M. Cutler entertained the members with an account of her recent travels in the Far West. Mrs. Howes presented her report of the Milwaukee blennial, to which she was a delegate, and Mrs. Annette Spence gave a couple of dialect recitations.

At the next meeting the Mary Arden Club will take up its serioùs work, beginning with "Titus Andronicus."

EXAMINATIONS FOR TEACHERS' LICENSES A written examination of applicants for licenses as teachers of French or German in the elementary schools of the boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx will be conducted by the Board of Examiners on Monday, February 25, 1901, at 9:30 a. m., in the hall of the Board of Education, Fifty-ninth-

INTERESTING TALK ON CHINA.

OF THE SIEGE.

DR. W. A. P. MARTIN, OF THE IMPERIAL UNIVERSITY, OF PEKING, TELLS

Dr. W. A. P. Martin, of the Imperial University, Peking, was the speaker of the morning at the monthly prayer meeting of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church at the mission rooms, No. 156 Fifth-ave., yesterday. Dr. Martin has recently arrived from Peking, where during the eight weeks of siege he was the guest of Minister Conger. Dr. Martin described the present condition of Chinese women as far behind that of two thousand years ago. He quoted Confucius's assertion that the womanly qualities are modesty, a skilful hand, attractive appearance and gentle words, and called attention to the fact that Confucius placed importance even at that early day on woman's work. The speaker compared early day on woman's work. The speaker compared the "gentle words" which the sage describes as a feminine quality with Solomon's statement that "the law of kindness is in the lips of woman." The binding of the feet, he said, is a symbol of the downtrodden condition of women in China today. Dr. Martin traced the history of the present upheaval in China, and gave some interesting facts regarding life in the beleaguered legation. People were there, he said, from eleven legations and missionaries of many sects, but all worked together in perfect accord. Roman Catholic and orthodox Greek priests dug trenches side by side with professors from the Presbyterian College and other missionaries. A devout feeling of prayer seemed to pervade all in those days of peril, but there was no time for prayer meetings. Women and men bravely concealed their fears from one another, and, while there was no unseemly frivolity, no cloud of gloom was apparent upon any face. He was sleeping by the side of Mr. Conger when tidings came that the allied forces were near and help at hand. The news was too good to be kept, and the women were awakened. Then people fell upon each other's necks and wept. The noise of the battery, he declared, was better music than that of the finest opera he had ever heard. In closing he stated it as his belief that there can never be permanent peace in China until all the privileges accorded to the followers of Confuctus are given to native Christians.

RAINY DAY CLUB INSTRUCTS ITS DELE-GATES TO VOTE AGAINST THE AD-MISSION OF COLORED CLUBS TO THE FEDERATION.

A lively discussion on the color question occupied most of the business session of the Rainy Day Club yesterday afternoon in the Chapter Room at Carnegie Hall. Mme. Evans Von Klenner, who is to be a delegate from the club to the Federation meeting at Albany next week, asked for instructions as to how she should vote on the olor question. The motion was put to the house and the majority stood for excluding colored dele gates from the Federation meetings, and so Mme gates from the Federation meetings, and so Mme. Von Klenner was instructed to vote accordingly. Severai indignant members congregated in the ante-room after the session. One, in excited tones, said: "I am ashamed of this club, one which is supposed to stand for the welfare of women, irrespective of nationality, creed or color." "Yes," chimed in another, "it is narrow, bigoted and absurd. There are white women who are far more objectionable to me than any refined, intelligent colored woman could ever be. I am sure Mrs. Palmer does not approve of the action; she is too broadminded a woman."

As Mrs. Palmer occupied the chair, she did not give expression to her views, but she does not hesitate to admit that she favors the colored delegate, provided the woman fills all requirements and can prove an intellectual standard.

Mme. Von Klenner was informed that she might express her own opinion in addition to casting her vote, and an agitated member declared, "Welf, she can express her own opinion if she likes, but she needn't put it as the voice of the club, for I for one won't stand for it, and there will be trouble."

The afternoon closed with the usual programme The alternoon closed with the usual programme of music and readings, including piano solos by Miss Estelle Norton; a paper on the "Home Influence on Art," by Mme. Evans Von Klenner; flute solo, Miss Norma Meyer, accompanied by Miss Caroline Holmquist; a talk on "The Care of the Teeth," by Dr. C. R. Fletcher; recitations by Olivia Sanger Hall, and vocal solos by Miss Elizabeth Carrill Hinds, accompanied by Mrs. Charlotte Babcock.

BISHOP POTTER WILL MOVE, NOW THAT THE ELECTION IS OVER.

Now that the Presidential campaign is over, Bishop Potter and his clergy connected with the Pro-Cathedral in Stanton-st., relieved from all suspicion that their action can be ascribed to a political motive, are losing no time in prosecuting their campaign against the police, who allow vice to flourish openly on the East Side "for a consideration." In this they are greatly encouraged by Tuesday's revelation of Richard Croker's real weakness as a controlling factor in this city. When Tammany cannot roll up a plurality of 30,000 for its Presidential candidate in this municipality, it is not thought likely that Tammany's boss can find any support at all for a corrupt police force, except from the comparatively small band of police robbers whom he leads, and from the lawbreakers whom the police protect.

Therefore Bishop Potter and the Rev. Mr. Paddock, of the Pro-Cathedral, yesterday broke the silence which they have maintained for weeks preceding the election, and sent a request to every has offered to help them to hold itself in readiness for active and immediate co-operation. The first step will be to prepare the evidence ers in convenient shape for presentation to the city authorities. The next step will be its presentation

RECRUITS SAIL FOR MANILA.

TRANSPORT BUFORD CARRIES NINE HUN-DRED MEN TO FILL GAPS IN THE RANKS

The United States Army transport Buford began her voyage to the Philippine Islands yesterday afternoon. She carried nine hundred recruits, fiftyne unattached members of the Hospital Corps, a number of officers and relatives of officers now in the Philippines, and 2,500 tons of supplies.

She sailed from Pier No. 22, Brooklyn, at 4 p. m. Relatives and friends of the officers and soldiers saw them off. The recruits thronged the forward and after decks and rigging, and threw buttons from their uniforms to the young women on the pier. As the tugs drew the transport away the soldiers cheered and waved their hats, and the people on shore waved handkerchiefs and small flags. The Buford will reach Manila about Christmas Day, just in season to deliver the Christmas boxes she has on board. The recruits will fill the depleted ranks of the 3d Cavalry, the 6th Artillery and the 3d, 12th, 16th, 20th, 21st and 22d Infantry. They came from Forts Slocum, Columbus and Wood. Collins, a representative of the Army Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, were among the civilian passengers. The Buford will stop at Gibraltar, Malta, Port Said, Aden, Colombo and Singapore. The transport Kilpatrick will sail for Manila on November 13. The recruits will fill the depleted ranks of the

GOULD AND EX-VALET IN COURT.

CONTRADICTORY TESTIMONY REGARDING MOWBRAY'S INJURY ON THE HILDEGARDE.

The trial of the action brought against Howard Gould by Frank D. Mowbray, an Englishman, formerly Mr. Gould's valet, to recover $25,000 dam-ages for alleged breach of contract was begun yeserday before Justice Giegerich and a jury in the supreme Court. Mowbray alleges that on July 4. 1893, he had his left eye injured so that he lost the right breast by discharging fireworks "for mere dis-play" on Mr. Gould's yacht Hildegarde, off the Larchmont Yacht Club, under Mr. Gould's order that Mowbray must discharge the fireworks or give up his place. He further alleges that Mr. Gould agreed to employ him for life at a salary of $30 a month, on condition that he should not make the circumstances of the accident known, and that on August 15, 1897, Mr. Gould discharged him without cause and in violation of the said contract, after the statute of limitation had perfected a bar to his right to maintain a suit against the defendant for the injuries.

estified that on July 4, 1898, he told Mr. Gould that the fireworks on the yacht were unsafe. "You send off the fireworks or leave your position." Mr. Gould had said. Some of the fireworks had gone off all right, but one big rocket had exploded, wounding Mowbray in the breast and left eye. The eye had een removed later at Bellevue. Mowbray then told of the alleged contract for life employment.

Dr. Louis Coucn, the last witness for the plaintiff, testified that Mowbray had lost one eye asthe result of the explosion, and was likely to lose.

the result of the explosion, and was macy, his sight entirely.

Rush Taggart said he would try to justify Mr. Gould's action in dismissing Mowbray by showing that the plaintiff was frequently intoxicated. Counsel for Mowbray objected on the ground that no such defence had been pleaded in the answer. The defendant obtained permission to put in an amended answer on the payment of all costs of the case to date.

Captain William Fish, of the yacht Hildegarde, was the first witness for Mr. Gould.

He said an attempt had been made to set off a rocket, but the fuse had pulled out. Mowbray had got a redrot pe ker, touched the rocket with it, and got a redrot pe ker, touched the rocket with it, and
