The Nautilus Boat Club probably will not have room for a clubhouse on public property at either Bessborough Park or Dyker Heights.

SAVY YARD NOTES.

Lieutenant-Commander Hall was a trifle better yesterday. It was said last evening at the Naval Hospital that he was conscious at times.

The torpedo boat Cushing, which has been undergoing repairs and getting ready for her winter cruise with the North Atlantic Squadron, will probably leave here next Wednesday or Thursday.

As everyone knows, in bronchitis the coughing is softened at first and then diminished by Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

The reason is: it puts new life in the weakened inside of those tubes. It may or may not entirely cure them. No taste of the oil in it.

OPTION ON ROGERS WORKS.

Paterson, Dec. 16 (Special).—Bernard and Philip Katz and several members of the Citizens' Committee appointed to keep the Rogers Locomotive Works in this city open, yesterday gave a written option of thirty days on the works to the Katz brothers on the terms already agreed on, namely, that the Katz brothers organize a company, with $200,000 and take $200,000 of the stock, Mr. Rogers to obtain $200,000 of the remainder to be raised by the committee by popular subscription.

COMMITTEE TO SOLICIT SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The conference was long. The men who asked for the option argued that the transaction was a big one, and that they were not getting anything more substantial than mere verbal promises. Mr. Rogers replied that he was not getting anything more unless he got something in return.

The Wanamaker Store. Store Open Evenings Until 10 o'clock—All this Week. Christmas SHOPPING On In Earnest. The time for study is over—the week of action is here. All Christmas problems must be solved at once; or the worry and disappointment will mar the pleasure of Christmas Day. Here are fullest answers to every possible question— Gifts for the infant of a few weeks— Gifts for the toddlers that begin to know things— Gifts for boys ready for chess-chess— Gifts for girls that want dollies to dress and furniture for doll housekeeping— Gifts for little men and women who begin to take things more seriously— And this means a world of puzzling answers. Then— Gifts for brother or sister— Gifts for father or mother— Gifts for grandfather or grandmother, who don't use things younger people use— Gifts for sick folks and cripples, who have needs and pleasures distinctly their own— Gifts to make the world brighter, jollier, more comfortable— What a wonderful time Christmas is, to make the world remember the forgotten ones, and forget the petty dislikes and the unreasonable hatreds of the past; and bring peace and good-will before the starting of the New Year. All the brains and skill, experience and power of this great organization has been preparing for a twelve-month to be worthy to help most fully to a glorious Christmas. Today the store speaks for itself. A Pre-Holiday Offering of LACE CURTAINS. Do the windows of the Christmas home need new dress?
