

music was a triumphal march, also commemorating to many the elections of four Republican Governors—Levi P. Morton, Frank S. Black, Theodore Roosevelt and Benjamin B. Odell, Jr.

Secretary of State McDonough formally opened the inauguration ceremonies by announcing that Bishop Doane would offer prayer. Bishop Doane offered prayer, and then Mr. Odell, adjusting his glasses, carefully signed the oath of office in a big book which rested upon the desk.

Secretary of State McDonough administered the oath of office, reading the oath carefully. Governor Odell bowed assent as the reading ceased, and kissed the Bible, and the audience again applauded.

WELCOMED BY ROOSEVELT. The band played a selection, and Mr. McDonough introduced Governor Roosevelt, who made a speech welcoming Governor Odell. Governor Roosevelt was listened to with deep interest, and his speech was applauded, no part of it more so than his declaration to Governor Odell that the apparent spirit in which he approached his duties gave people the right to think he would stand high in the list of New-York's Governors.

Governor Odell: It becomes from this moment your high and solemn duty to stand at the executive head of the great State of New-York, a Union a State which in point of size, population, wealth and wide variety of interests and of industries rises above many a world famous kingdom or commonwealth.

THE GOVERNOR'S RESPONSE. Governor Odell upon arising to make his reply was greeted with a storm of applause. He bowed his thanks gravely. His first words revealed the fact that the responsibilities of office were deeply felt by him.

With the assumption of responsibilities come doubt and uncertainty which even the applause and good wishes of our friends cannot entirely dissipate. Especially is this true of him into whose hands is placed the administration of the affairs of our Commonwealth.

Under our form of government, when the will of the majority has been expressed, we should forget our partisanship in our desire to uphold and strengthen the hands of those whom for the time being we have clothed with authority.

The burdens of taxation should be so adjusted as to fall lightly upon those who can ill afford to bear them, and be borne more generously by those who have received from the State protection and rights which have given to their business the greatest conservatism.

To the Governor is entrusted the executive, and to the Legislature the law making power of the Commonwealth. The duties are separate and distinct, and can never be combined without a serious impairment in the efficiency of both.

In this aiding in the consummation of all worthy projects I shall be guided solely by the desire to give to the mandates of our Constitution their full effect, and to the wishes of our people their full purpose.

If in the performance of these duties I shall in a measure be as successful as have so many of my predecessors, I shall be contented to share a new century with all of its possibilities, the positive and affirmative action of the incoming administration can aid in solving those great problems which are before us.

Bishop Doane then pronounced a benediction and the audience dispersed. Governor Odell went to the Executive Chamber, and there, surrounded by his military staff, gave a reception to the public.

TRIBUNE POPULAR BALLOT. For Mayor of New-York.

Please cut out the ballot and forward it to THE TRIBUNE, naming both your first and second choice for the nomination for Mayor of New-York. Vote for anybody whom you may think fit and worthy. It makes no difference what his politics may be. To add interest to the plan, it is desired that each person shall select both a first and second choice. The names and addresses of voters are asked as a guarantee of good faith and to insure value for the result of the voting as a true expression of public opinion, but the names will not be published and will be treated as strictly confidential.

Readers are urged to indicate second choice as well as first. By doing this the voters may, perhaps, contribute toward an important result. It might appear, for instance, that "some second choice" candidate had a majority of all the votes, which would be a minority of all the votes cast.

Announcement of the present state of the balloting will be made to-morrow. Address all ballots and nominations to MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN, Tribune Office, New-York.

SENTIMENTS OF VOTERS.

SCHIEREN WOULD WIN IF NOMINATED. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: My reasons for advocating the selection of Charles A. Schieren as the Republican candidate for the next Mayorality contest are because I believe that his experience as Mayor of Brooklyn, he is eminently qualified to assume and satisfactorily discharge all duties pertaining to the office of the Chief Magistrate of Greater New-York.

QUAY NAMED FOR SENATOR

UNANIMOUSLY NOMINATED BY THE CAUCUS AT HARRISBURG.

HIS FRIENDS CONFIDENT OF HIS ELECTION ON JOINT BALLOT—ONLY ONE VOTE SHORT OF A MAJORITY.

Harrisburg, Penn., Jan. 1.—Colonel M. S. Quay was the unanimous choice of the joint convention of Republican Senators and Assemblymen held to-night in the House chamber to nominate a candidate for United States Senator.

The caucus was attended by 123 legislators, or four less than the number necessary to a choice in the joint convention of the Senate and House, which will be held on January 16.

Three of those present were Messrs. Hill and Tiffany, of Susquehanna County, and McPherson, of Adams, who were absent last night from the caucus and voted with the Democrats in the House to-day for General Koontz for Speaker.

Mr. Beaver, of Juniata, who voted with the "stalwarts" for Mr. Marshall for Speaker, was present, but did not answer to his name. It was stated that he will abide by the caucus.

Thompson, of Centre, and Haldeman, of Montgomery, who are detained at home by illness, were pledged by their colleagues to Mr. Quay. This apparently gives Mr. Quay 126 of the 127 necessary to a choice.

The other absentees voted with the Democrats on the organization of the House, and are classed as anti-Quay Republicans. Speeches were made nominating Mr. Quay, Congressman John Dalzell and Judge John G. Stewart.

On the balloting Mr. Quay received the votes of 26 Senators and 93 members of the House. Before the result was announced the names of Messrs. Dalzell and Stewart were withdrawn, the nomination of Mr. Quay was made unanimous, and he thus received a total of 123 votes.

With one present and not voting, two absent on account of illness, all three of whom, it is asserted, will abide by the caucus decision, a vote of 126 for Quay on joint ballot is indicated. As the names of certain men who had been counted in the anti-Quay column were called and they announced their vote for Mr. Quay, there were demonstrations of approval on the part of the great crowd present.

The caucus did not begin until 9:15, and speeches were so numerous that it was not until 11:20 that a result was reached. The Quay people are jubilant over the result of the caucus, as the number present exceeded their expectations, and they say that before the vote is taken on joint ballot for Senator they will have many more than the number necessary to elect. Mr. Quay himself is quoted as saying that he expected 121 votes in the caucus.

The news of the result was taken to him by his friends, and party leaders from all over the State visited him and extended their congratulations on what they call a certain victory for stalwart Republicanism and party regularity.

While the caucus was in session in the House Chamber a secret meeting of the anti-Quay Republicans was held at their headquarters at the Commonwealth Hotel. At the close of the meeting the pledge of the anti-Quayites binding themselves together to oppose Mr. Quay's reelection was made public. The pledge contains sixty-eight names.

A call was issued to-night for a caucus of the House and Senate Democrats on the evening of January 14, for the nomination of a candidate for United States Senator. Colonel James M. Guflay, of Pittsburg, will probably be the nominee.

QUAY'S CANDIDATE ELECTED SPEAKER. Harrisburg, Penn., Jan. 1.—Both branches of the Pennsylvania Legislature met in biennial session at noon to-day, and the feature of the occasion was the battle between the Quay Republicans and the allied forces of the anti-Quay Democrats and Democrats for control of the House of Representatives, resulting in a victory for the Quay forces.

William T. Marshall, of Allegheny, was the choice of the Quay forces for Speaker, while the Democrats and anti-Quay Republicans were lined up for General William H. Koontz, of Somerset, anti-Quay Republican. The membership of the House is 20, there being a vacancy in the XVth Philadelphia District. Of these 14 are Republicans and 9 Democrats.

Senator Snyder, of Chester County, was the choice of the anti-Quay forces for president of the Senate, and was elected by a vote of 29 to 11 for Senator Nidder, Democrat, of Cumberland. After passing the usual routine resolutions and appointing committees to wait on the Governor and the House with the information that the Senate was organized and ready for business, a recess was taken until 4 p. m.

In the House the proceedings began with the formal swearing in of the members, after which the rollcall showed three absentees. Nominations for Speaker being in order, the names of Mr. Marshall and General Koontz were presented. At the voting vote on it was seen that the result would be in favor of Mr. Marshall.

The caucus was announced by Mr. Marshall and 99 for Koontz. Four Democrats, Messrs. Marshall, of Allegheny, and Messrs. Koontz, of Somerset, and Messrs. Stewart, of York, and Messrs. Guflay, of Pittsburg, were escorted to the chair committees were appointed to wait on Governor Stone and the Senate, after which an adjournment was taken until to-morrow.

PHILADELPHIA MAN DRINKS CYANIDE OF POTASSIUM IN A HOTEL HERE.

John T. Williams, seventy years old, who lived with his wife at No. 2,501 North Broad-st., Philadelphia, had a New-York office at No. 170 Broadway, committed suicide last night in his room in the St. George Hotel, No. 49 East Twelfth-st., by taking cyanide of potassium.

When Mrs. Williams turned around she saw her husband lying on the bed, and noticed he was breathing heavily. A bell boy was told to summon a physician, and Dr. Travel, of No. 15 East Twelfth-st., was soon at the bedside of Williams.

Death occurred a few minutes later. Mrs. Williams said Mr. Williams was born in Alabama. Up to twenty-five years ago he was a jeweler, but since that time had been publishing and editing trade papers. He had one son.

The coroner gave a permit for the removal of the body to Philadelphia. It will be taken there this morning.

FAILURE OF BANKING HOUSE IN LONDON.

MONEY MARKET UNUSUALLY ACTIVE—BANK RATE MAY ADVANCE. London, Jan. 1.—The foreign banking house of Scholze, Rischmann & Co. has been adjudicated a bankrupt.

The Government has authorized the Bank of England to receive bids for £4,000,000 of local loans stock, redeemable in 1912. The stock will bear 3 per cent interest, and the minimum issue price will be 98.

To-day's money market was unusually active, owing to large transfers of cash. Nearly £7,000,000 has been distributed in the shape of foreign Colonial coupons and another £7,000,000 in interest on Colonial investments.

The Government has authorized the Bank of England to receive bids for £4,000,000 of local loans stock, redeemable in 1912. The stock will bear 3 per cent interest, and the minimum issue price will be 98.
