WHERE TO GO TO-DAY.

Literary day of the National Society of New-England Women at Delmonico's, No. 151 Fifth-ave., 2.30 p. m.

SOME EFFECTS OF CLUB LIFE.

As far as women are concerned, the century just past is acknowledged universally to be the most important in the world's history, and not the least significant feature is the women's club movement.

OPINIONS EXPRESSED BY MRS. LOWE AND OTHER WELL KNOWN PRESIDENTS.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS.

The vogues of Rostand's dramatic vision of the brief and youthful ambition of the "Eaglet," Napoleon III starred son, the Duc de Reichstadt, has naturally prompted many givers of entertainments to secure a fashionable novelty in an Algon luncheon, which can be simply and effectively arranged.

TRYING TO BAR COLORED CLUBS.

The Georgia State Federation of Women's Clubs has passed a resolution that at the next biennial of the General Federation it will offer an amendment to the constitution of that society which shall provide that the General Federation shall be composed of white women's clubs alone.

FLOWER PICKERS OF GRASSE.

The peasant women and girls of Grasse, in the south of France, are kept employed in picking and sorting flowers for perfume, Grasse being the centre of that industry.

NEW-ENGLAND FEDERATION.

A conference intended to promote greater unity of interest and sympathy of feeling among the clubs of New-England will take the place of the quarterly meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation in April.

TWELFTH NIGHT REVELRY.

SOME OF THE FESTIVITIES THAT ARE APPROPRIATE TO ITS CELEBRATION.

The custom of celebrating Twelfth Night is becoming more popular in this country with each year, and the festivities, as a rule, are based upon some ceremonial of ancient times.

It is customary in giving house parties at this season to invite the guests from Christmas until Twelfth Night, when the festivities are brought to a close with an old time masque.

Frequently there will be two cakes, one for men and one for women, and then the latter will contain a coin, and the one to which it falls is accepted as the queen.

The modern Twelfth Night generally has hidden within it a coin, a ring and wedding happiness, or marriage within the year, and the thimble single blessedness.

No Twelfth Night gathering is complete without the traditional wassail bowl, Wassail, in the Anglo-Saxon, indeed, is well known to mean "Here's to your health."

To begin with, black velvet knee breeches always look well when worn with a pretty silk sailor blouse and velvet jacket decorated with big buttons.

VISIT TO THE PIMAS.

INDIAN WOMEN WHO ARE NEAT HOUSEKEEPERS—CHURCHES FILLED WITH WE J. DRESSED AUDIENCES.

A visit to the Pima Reservation, of Arizona, was one of the interesting features of a recent trip taken by Mrs. J. P. Emery, the Woman's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church.

The Pimas have been known for their beautiful, fine baskets, but like the other tribes are ceasing to make them, the children not learning the art from their parents.

An effort is being made now to secure by legislation a reservoir for irrigating purposes in the Pima Reservation.

The design illustrated is eminently practical and simple, at the same time that it is in the latest style. As shown, it is of lamb with fox, but countless combinations can be substituted, and the design will be found admirable for remodeling fur coats and wraps that are showing signs of wear.

WHY HE WILL REMAIN A BACHELOR.

A French writer, M. Pierre Louys, comments on the agitation regarding the declining decrease in the population of France, and says that if some of the needlessly absurd restrictions on marriage were removed it would not be necessary to put a tax upon bachelorhood and spinsterhood, which express measure has been suggested seriously.

HEBREW BAKERS STILL IDLE.

PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF THE STRIKE OFFERED BY THE BOSSES REJECTED.

The strike of the Hebrew bakers of the East Side took a new turn yesterday, when the bosses met in Victoria Hall, No. 86 Clinton-st., and passed a low resolution deploring the unkind things that had been said about themselves and the sanitary condition of their bakeries.

A statement in Yiddish was issued at the close of the meeting, denying that the bakeries were dirty, as had been alleged, or that the bakers made $5 a week, and did it about as easily as rolling off a log.

Secretary Levine also said that each of the boss bakers had gone down in his pocket and fished up $5 to supply the news of war in fighting the

SHIRTMAKERS GO ON STRIKE.

The strike of the shirtmakers, which was begun with the dawning of the new century, had not been settled up to a late hour yesterday. The factories affected by the strike are in Walker and Lispenard st. Delegates Solomon, of the Shirtmakers' Union, yesterday that all the strikers work for contractors, who in turn make the prices with the manufacturers. He added that the strike was due to certain grasping manufacturers entering into an agreement with unscrupulous contractors to cut wages 20 per cent. He declared that the shirtmakers could not make more than $3 a week at the new prices, and that it was a strike for existence. It is the first strike among the shirtmakers for many years.
