

FIVE GENERATIONS OF A NEW-ROCHELLE FAMILY. (Photograph by George Rockwood, New-Rochelle.)

WHERE TO GO TO-DAY.

Regular meeting of the Wednesday afternoon club, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Stone, No. 120 Central Park South, 2:30 p. m.

FRIENDS OF THE WAIFS.

WHAT THE NEW-YORK KINDERGARTEN ASSOCIATION IS DOING FOR THE POOR CHILD.

There was a representative throng of well known people of this city at the tenth annual meeting of the New-York Kindergarten Association at Sherry's yesterday.

WHAT CHRISTODORA IS DOING.

At the weekly morning meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Union, held yesterday at the Manhattan Congregational Church, eighty-third and Broadway, "Our City" was the selected topic.

THE WORK OF THE SETTLEMENT EX-PLAINED BY MRS. MARGARET E. SANGSTER.

At the weekly morning meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Union, held yesterday at the Manhattan Congregational Church, eighty-third and Broadway, "Our City" was the selected topic.

AT THE BABIES' HOSPITAL.

The Board of Women Managers of the Babies' Hospital, Lexington-ave. and Fifty-fifth-st., yesterday gave its annual reception to the friends of the hospital.

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

A story is told of Dr. Robert Collyer, when walking in Central Park on a cloudy day, met a woman to whom he bowed politely, saying "Thank you very much."

MISS TITCOMB'S APPOINTMENT.

Miss Mary L. Titcomb, of Rutland, Vt., former secretary of the State Epileptic Commission, has been appointed librarian of the new library at Hagerstown, Md.

LARGE CHARITABLE ENTERTAINMENT.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the house of Mrs. Henry W. Gray, No. 33 Irving Place, an entertainment for the benefit of St. John's Guild and another charitable organization of this city was arranged.

DEATH OF MISS BLACKWELL.

Miss Sarah Ellen Blackwell, whose death was announced yesterday, was the sister of Dr. Elizabeth and Dr. Emily Blackwell. Miss Blackwell was the author of "A Military Genus," a history of Anna Ella Carroll, who aided General Grant during his campaign.

AN INVALUABLE VOLUME.

Have you read The Tribune's Story of the Nineteenth Century? It will be republished in pamphlet form in a few days.

THE LEAGUE APOLOGIZES AND A LOVE FEAST FOLLOWS.

Loving cups are supposed to symbolize and create harmony, but the Professional Woman's League yesterday had bitter proof to the contrary when Amelia Bingham's trite note and check for $50 reached the secretary, Miss Alice Brown.

GOOD CHEER.

Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Twas not given for you alone— Pass it on.

A SONG OF WINTER.

North wind's bitter chill, Home and ruddy firelight, And the glow of the will, Hemlock in the churchyard, Daytime soon withdrawn, Sing a song of winter!

NOTICE.

All letters and packages intended for the Tribune Sunshine Society, Tribune Building, New-York City.

REPORT OF THE HILL BRANCH.

President of the T. S. S.: Owing to the bad weather and much illness among the members of the Hill branch, there was not as large an attendance as usual at last Thursday's meeting.

LETTER TO GOVERNOR ODELL.

The Consumers' League of New-York has sent a letter to Governor Odell urging that the efficiency of the State factory inspectors be increased.

THOUGHTFUL LITTLE FOLKS.

Gwendolen, Helen and Edith Perry, of Maine, made up a parcel and sent it to the little crippled child, Miss Margaret Kelt, a T. S. S. member, in teaching among the poorest children in South Carolina.

NEW MEMBERS.

The following members have been enrolled: Mrs. George W. Prentice, C. J. Hubble, Mrs. C. H. Kimball, Mrs. R. G. Remsen, Miss Broome, Parker Van Ames, Mrs. D. Cook, Miss Sarah Beach, Mrs. George S. Baker, George W. Prentice, Mrs. L. Day, Edith and Beth Tyler, Miss C. Merritt, Mrs. Margaret Wilkins, Mrs. J. N. Tolman, Mrs. J. A. Thompson, E. A. Belcher and Mrs. F. J. Hubbard.

LARGE COLLECTIONS REPORTED.

Henry E. Howland, who now takes the presidency of the University Club, in the summer of 1894, had been a prominent and influential in promoting the development of the University Club, but also of the Union League, Century, Metropolitan, Down Town, Players, Republican, and several other clubs.

ASKS AN ABSOLUTE DIVORCE.

Robert B. Miller, a port warden of the Port of New-York and a member of the Produce Exchange, is suing his wife, Emma C. Miller, for an absolute divorce.

TEXANS FRIGHTENED BY A FIRE.

A fire frightened a number of people in the five-story apartment house at Fifth-ave. and One-hundred-and-thirty-second-st. at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

FIND FOR DESTITUTE BLIND.

Superintendent George Blair of the Outdoor Poor Department issued notice yesterday morning that applicants for participation in the fund for the destitute blind will be received at his office after February 1.

ALVORD'S SENTENCE TO-DAY.

Cornelius L. Alvord, Jr., who pleaded guilty last week to receiving $25,000 from the First National Bank, was to have been sentenced by Judge Thomas in the United States Circuit Court yesterday morning.

DOUBLE FUNERAL IN ST. PAULS.

The bodies of Thomas W. Ogden and his wife, Ruth Schuyler Ogden, who died within six hours of each other at Morristown, N. J. last Saturday, were buried beneath St. Paul's Chapel, this city, yesterday morning.

HER THIRD ATTEMPT SUCCEEDS.

Mrs. Katie Neundorff, thirty-nine years old, who lives with her husband and three-year-old daughter in the basement of the five-story bathhouse at No. 370 West One-hundred-and-twenty-second-st., of which she was the janitress, hanged herself yesterday day to a gas jet in her bedroom, and was discovered dead, dangling from a clothes line, by her husband, Karl Neundorff.

THE KILLING OF PRIVATE STAFFORD.

John Stafford, twenty-six years old, a private in the United States Marine Corps, Brooklyn, N. Y., was killed at 12 o'clock Monday night, as told in yesterday's Tribune, by being struck on the chin by John Henry, a bartender in the Equitable Hotel, No. 129 Bowery.

KILLED BY ELECTRIC SHOCK.

Ruppert Schoebauer, fifty years old, of No. 47 Ferry-st., Jersey City, was shocked to death yesterday afternoon at his place of employment, the Sterling Arc Lamp Company, No. 218 West Twenty-sixth-st.

NEW EAST RIVER BRIDGE APPOINTMENTS.

The New East River Bridge Commission has appointed in its department O. F. Nichols, principal assistant engineer, $5,000 a year; Western R. Bascom, assistant engineer, $2,000; Robert Hawley, draughtsman, $3,000; Alexander Johnson, assistant engineer, $2,000 a month; George D. Lewis, assistant engineer, $150 a month; Olaf M. Kelly, assistant engineer, $150 a month; and J. Alfred Tilley, assistant engineer, $125 a month.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

MISS TITCOMB'S APPOINTMENT.

Miss Mary L. Titcomb, of Rutland, Vt., former secretary of the State Epileptic Commission, has been appointed librarian of the new library at Hagerstown, Md.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.

Miss Celia Holbrook, of Sherburne, Mass., has since the death of her father, two years ago, supported the family of one brother and three sisters by carrying on his blacksmith shop.

WHY THE WORKINGMAN DRINKS.

Robert E. Ely talked on "The Saloon As It Is" before the League for Political Education yesterday morning at the Berkeley Lyceum.

AN ENTERPRISING WOMAN.