PHILANTHROPY AND POLITICS.

THE WEST END WOMAN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB DECIDES TO ABANDON THE PROJECT OF A LODGING HOUSE FOR GIRLS.

What the West End Woman's Republican Club lacked in numbers at yesterday's meeting in the club rooms, at No. 2367 Broadway, it made up in spirit and display in the discussion of two amendments to its constitution. The first read:

This association may interest itself in any philanthropic work not directly opposed to the main object of the association.

This proposed amendment was brought about by the interest of the club in the project for a girls' lodging house.

In the discussion Mrs. Clarence Burns said: "There seems to have been a general impression that I was opposed to the lodging house scheme from the first. But my only feeling against it was because it was unconstitutional. I am always heartily in sympathy with any work that women can do."

Mrs. Rood was an opposing voice to the amendment, and Mrs. H. Secor-Tonjes considered that as the rooms were given the club for its meetings the members should consider whether the men's Republican club would approve of their entering into other than political work.

The new Republican club of women organized by Mrs. Wontz has been a constant thorn in the flesh of many of the West End members, who could not see any reason for a second club. And as the constitution prohibited membership in two Republican clubs it was found necessary to strike out the clause which reads:

Women shall be eligible to active membership in but one of the women's Republican associations in the cases of members of the State Committee.

Mrs. Burns explained that she was eligible because she was on the State Committee, and Mrs. Cornelia S. Robinson gave as a reason for the existing article that when the association was formed it could get only eleven charter members, and those eleven were afraid that they might be called on to organize all new clubs in their line of work.

"I feel that we will lose our independence by changing our constitution," said Mrs. Tonjes. "This new club has put an almost prohibitory tax upon its members, so that they may be by themselves and enjoy all that money can bring them. We don't hire, we have, and we don't pay, we are not allowed to join others. To this Mrs. Robinson said that she had been misled and formed, and appealed to Mrs. John Curtis to verify the fact.

Mrs. Burns again arose in defence of the new organization and said: "This club is composed of Mrs. Wontz's social friends, not women who have withdrawn from the West End club. Mrs. Robinson and myself, there are only two of our women in it. I am sure that the new club will have no source whatever. And as for dues, if our rooms were not given to us free of rent we would have to put our dues up, too."

"What is a Republic?" was the title of the paper prepared by Miss America Phillips and read by Mrs. John Curtis. It was a very interesting paper, and was read for the first time since her election.

TO DISCIPLINE THE CHILD. A symposium on the subject of parental duties and home discipline recently appeared in a leading New-England newspaper, and the published interview with Dr. Sturges gives material for thought.

The tendency of modern ideas," says Dr. Sturges, "has been to abolish any real discipline in family life, because discipline depends on the principle of headship in the father, whereas, at the present time, the mother is often the real head of the family. A father teaches children to obey as a duty, while a mother teaches them to obey as a pleasure."

"If a wife will not support her husband's rule as head of the family, she is not likely to acquire the influence in the children which she needs. So that if the mother's influence predominates over the father's rule the children will grow up doing what they find most agreeable, instead of making obedience to duty the rule of their life."

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN. A TISSUE PAPER PATTERN OF MISSES' PEASANT WAIST, WITH WIDE GIRDLE. NO. 3,703. FOR COUPON AND 10 CENTS.

The simple peasant waist has a charm for young girls that nothing more elaborate can outdo. The pretty design illustrated is admirable for all the many soft stuffs, both silk and wool. When desired it can be varied by a fancy bolero, either with no sleeves or those of half length, made in contrasting color and material. The model is made of figured China crepe, in turquoise blue, with the girdle and soft stock of Liberty satin, but net taffeta, India silk, wool crepe and innumerable other variations might be suggested.

The foundation for the waist is a lining fitted with single darts, shoulder and under arm seams.

NO. 3,703-MISSES' PEASANT WAIST, WITH WIDE GIRDLE.

The waist proper is seamed at under arms only and closes invisibly with the lining at the centre back. The fulness is arranged in five straight tuck shirtings at the neck, which are graduated in fulness to give the effect of a round yoke, and joined to the lining on lines indicated in the pattern. The sleeves are cut as bishop sleeves arranged in tuck shirring at the wrists, below which they fall free to form frills. The girdle is gathered at the front edge to form tuck shirring, that conceal the closing, and is held in shape by bones inserted at each end, the centre back and the sides, the position of bones being indicated in the pattern. The ribbon is curved to fit the neck smoothly, a wrinkled ribbon to match the belt being worn over it in this instance.

To cut this waist for a miss fourteen years old 2 1/2 yards of material 21 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards of silk or velvet 2 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards of yard of silk or velvet 2 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards of collar, will be required.

The pattern, No. 3,703, is cut in sizes for misses twelve, fourteen and sixteen years old.

TRIBUNE SUNSHINE SOCIETY.

GOOD CHEER. 'Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Was not given for you alone? Pass it on. Let it travel down the years. Let it weave America's dreams. Till it weave the deed appears. Pass it on.'

THE EARTH AND MAN. A little sun, a little rain. A soft wind blowing from the west— And women and fields are sweet again, And warmth within the mountain's breast.

So simple is the earth we tread, So quick with love and life her frame: Ten thousand years have dawned and fled, Ten thousand years have passed the same.

A little love, a little trust, A new self impulse, a sudden dream— And life as dry as desert dust Is fresher than a mountain stream.

So simple is the heart of man, So simple is the life of every day: Ten thousand years since it began Have left it younger than a boy.

MONEY ACKNOWLEDGED. Mrs. M. A. Stone has sent $1 to be used as sunshine for an invalid; Miss Gertrude J. M. Derby, $1; "Musical Friend," $1, and Mrs. E. F. H., $5 cents for a fund.

ABUNDANT SUNSHINE. There appeared in the T. & S. column on January 11 an appeal for sunshine to amuse and interest a little crippled girl in Vermont who was to have an operation performed. The appeal was made at the request of Dana S. Carpenter, of Middletown Springs. The result of that call illustrates anew the tender interest and broad sympathy of Sunshine workers. So abundant were the gifts that Mr. Carpenter was obliged to call a halt and request that no more be sent.

Mrs. P. M. Thompson, Helen Brislow, Mrs. W. G. P. Linton, Mrs. S. A. Hastings, Mrs. J. W. Ward, Jr., J. A. D., of Riverhead; Miss R. V. Halse, Capt. Line Spiro, Mrs. W. Ray, Miss S. A. Torrey, Mary and Joanna Mairs, C. L. Allen, Little Grace Ruthford, six years old; I. A. Marzener, "Little Frances Boyd"; Mrs. C. J. Landon, Mrs. Joseph Marzener, Mrs. J. Tyler, A. S. Hart, Miss Elizabeth Shill, Mrs. J. M. Maine, Edward L. Whitsett, Mrs. E. C. Titus, Mrs. Anna Catherine Carpenter, and Ellen M. Drake, a package containing a doll, a pair of shoes, a "Punchkeepsake," all of New-York; Mrs. Louise E. Horton, "The Sun," Mrs. L. V. Agnew, and Little Mabel Huff, five years old, of New-Jersey; Mrs. Ballard, J. M. B., of Rutland; Mrs. Fonda, and Mrs. C. W. C. of Vermont; Mrs. Pond, of Springfield, Vt.; Mrs. H. L. Mumill, Mrs. Cornwall and Miss Hattie B. Riley, of Connecticut; Mrs. J. W. C. of New-York; Mrs. Pennsylvania; many helpful gifts from Mrs. George Trentice, of Rhode Island; (Swedenborg, Helen and Emma, A. Joyner and Mrs. L. P. son, of Massachusetts. Other packages with letters and addresses were sent by Mrs. R. W. Rousheller, Mrs. George Merrill, "M. P. F.," and "The Sun," while twenty-four parcels were received without names.

Special mention was made of a cloth scrapbook which Mrs. Nelson also a money order for $2.00, and a book, "The Sun," which was sent toward buying a boat for the lame foot. Another package, "The Sun," contained seven packages, one for each day of the week. The writer, Mr. Carpenter, "that we do not know the name of the donor, but it was a lovely thought and proved an enjoyable gift."

The gifts included almost everything that could please a child. There were many pretty dolls, boxes of candy, drawings, perfumery, boxes of paints, a writing tablet, picture frames, colored pencils, ribbons, bedroom slippers, six buttoned, paper dolls, neckties, handkerchiefs, shells, fruit, and a number of lovely picture books, cards, valentines and children's papers. Mr. Carpenter's letter of acknowledgment and appreciation is published below:

President of the T. S. S.: The rays of sunshine that struck Vermont were indeed wonderful in their brightness. We did not expect to receive so many gifts, and never fully estimated. "Little Sarah" is the happiest girl in the universe at present. I think, and I hope, that she will be a great blessing to the world. She will go a great way toward her recovery. She received a great many packages, so many in fact, that we did not have time to send them all at once, but we take her a bundle each week. She lives five miles beyond us in the small town of Middlebury, Vermont, and she is a very bright and cheerful girl. She has a great deal of fun with the basket goods that we send her, and she is very fond of them. She will be a great blessing to the world. She will go a great way toward her recovery.
