MR. MABLE ON AMERICANS.

HE LECTURES BEFORE THE NEW-YORK DIET KITCHEN ASSOCIATION.

The first of a series of Lenten lectures for the benefit of the New-York Diet Kitchen Association was given yesterday at 4 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Spofford, No. 180 West Fifty-ninth-st.

Mr. Mable gave some amusing illustrations drawn from his own experience, one of which was a story of a man whom he had heard berating a porter in Vienna a year ago for having "misinformed" him.

IN BUYING TAILOR GOWNS.

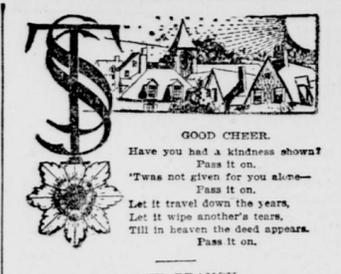

An opportunity to obtain a tailor made suit of superior quality and workmanship for $25 is offered by Kalvin, ladies' tailor and habit maker, No. 23 West Forty-second-st.

Y. W. C. A. SETTLEMENT.

The scope of the International Board of Women's and Young Women's Christian Associations was the topic of the day at the regular monthly meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association, at No. 7 East Fifteenth-st., yesterday afternoon.

GOOD CHEER.

Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Twas not given for you alone— Pass it on.

A NEW BRANCH.

The Yankee Christmas Club, of Philadelphia, has become an affiliated branch of the T. S. S., as its work is entirely in line with that of the Sunshine Society. It was founded in 1890, and has for its motto:

Let us pause in life's pleasures And count its many treasures.

FOR EASTER CHEER.

Already the "Little Mothers" are looking forward with pleasant anticipation to their Easter festival. Last year the association adopted the plan of giving these poor girls an Easter hat, instead of a potted plant, as had been the custom in previous years.

MRS. GULICK MAKES AN APPEAL.

An interesting programme was enjoyed by the National Society of New-England Women at Delmonico's yesterday afternoon, it being their monthly literary day. Mrs. Alice Gordon Gulick gave a brief outline of the work accomplished for the International Institute for Girls in Spain, and made an appeal for aid to build College Hall, in Madrid, the ground for which has been secured.

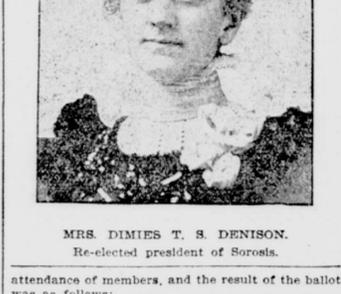

TOPICS OF INTEREST TO TEACHERS.

Among the subjects discussed at the fourth regular meeting of the High School Teachers' Association, in the De Witt Clinton High School Annex, at One-hundred-and-second-st., near Amsterdam-ave., recently, were "Charter Revision and School Legislation," "Library Facilities and Their Use in the High Schools" and "Ways in Which the Public Libraries May Assist the High Schools."

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN.

A TISSUE PAPER PATTERN OF WOMAN'S FANCY WAIST, NO. 3758, FOR COUPON AND 10 CENTS.

The waist with a shawl collar makes a marked feature of the season's styles, while tucking in some form is almost universally used. The very charming waist shown combines the two in a most attractive manner, and is singularly well adapted both to entire costumes and odd waists.

SOROSIS HAS ITS ELECTION.

There being only one ticket in the field for the new officers of Sorosis, the election yesterday at the Waldorf-Astoria passed off without interruption and in perfect harmony. There was a large attendance of members, and the result of the ballot was as follows:

LITERARY AFTERNOON AT P. W. L.

Literary day of the Professional Woman's League was of unusual interest yesterday afternoon. Miss Sara A. Palmer had the programme under her direction, and Miss M. H. Krout talked about "Chinese Women," giving an insight into their manners, customs and home life.

THE SUCCESSFUL PHYSICIAN.

A prominent woman physician of this city, in speaking of medicine as a career for women, said the other day: "I have known a laugh to spoil a career. In no place has the personal equation such value. Success has been won in spite of brusqueness of manner, it is true, but it would have come ten years earlier had the physician's personality been more agreeable."

Coupon Entitled to One Pattern.

Form for requesting a pattern, including fields for name, address, and a coupon for the pattern.

JAPANESE WEDS AMERICAN GIRL.

CONSULATE OFFICIAL MARRIED IN THE CITY HALL AFTER AN UNUSUAL COURTSHIP.

Tochi Takasugi, for more than a year acting vice-consul at the Japanese Consulate in this city, will have a big surprise for his parents when he takes his American wife home for a visit. They expected he would marry a Tokio girl. In Tokio his father's family is well known, and Mr. Takasugi is regarded as one of the rising men in the Japanese consular service, having been chief of the Japanese legations in Vienna and Berlin.

WIFE'S SAVINGS FOR HUSBAND'S RELIEF.

MRS. WILLIAM HALDEN GIVES HER ALL TO SOCIETIES WHICH HAVE SUFFERED THROUGH HIS FAULT.

Several officials in the Postoffice said yesterday that they felt sympathy for William Halden, chief clerk in the Transportation Department of the Postoffice, whose resignation took effect on Saturday. Halden resigned at the request of Postmaster Van Cott. He had been in the postal service over twenty years, and had been a faithful employe, but recently he suffered partial loss of memory, and some of his associates thought his mind was giving way.

MORGAN COAL STORY DENIED.

It was reported yesterday that J. Pierpont Morgan was planning to obtain control of all the Pennsylvania anthracite coal fields. The combination, it was said, would include the Philadelphia and Reading Company, the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, the Erie and the Jersey Central companies, the Cox Brothers Coal Company and the Pennsylvania Coal Company.

REPORT FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

The report of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the year 1900 shows the road to be on a most solid and substantial footing, and one of the strongest in the country. The report is eminently sane and just to the stockholders.

WHAT THE GREAT RAILWAY SYSTEM ACCOMPLISHED IN 1900.

The report of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the year 1900 shows the road to be on a most solid and substantial footing, and one of the strongest in the country. The report is eminently sane and just to the stockholders.

GOOD CHEER.

Mrs. Abbott, superintendent of the Sunnyside Nursery, has given a comfortable and a child's dress to Mrs. Nellie Steele. Mrs. G. W. Hammel, also a member of Harlem Branch No. 1, has supplied the need of an invalid by sending her warm woollen undergarments, a new member in Minnesota has sent cheer to Montana and Alaska.

FOR BADGES.

Mrs. M. K. Brown has sent her check for $3 for a gold badge. Miss S. G. Blanchard, 50 cents; Edward S. Wilson, 10 cents; Mrs. A. J. Brown, five cents; Lucy Holmes Allen, 10 cents; Mrs. F. H. Winterburn, 30 cents, and Mrs. A. L. House, 10.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

Two express boxes from Salem Centre, N. Y., contained sufficient articles of women's clothing to make several invalid members comfortable. A Vermont member has also contributed fine clothing for a young girl; three woollen waists came with-out a name; booklets and cards from Mrs. S. S. Thurston; three pairs of dainty booties from E. B. B.; leaflets from C. E. Willard; foreign stamps from Southport, Conn., and magazines, without a name.

NEED A REFORMATION, NOT A REVIVAL.

SO DR. ALEXANDER TELLS HIS BRETHREN OF THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

The Presbyterian Ministers' Association had a public meeting yesterday in the hall of the Presbyterian Building, at No. 155 Fifth-ave. The Rev. Dr. Hoadley presided, and there were short addresses by members. The Rev. Dr. George T. Purves, on behalf of a special committee, reported that it had not been deemed advisable at the present time to attempt to start a serious union movement, under the auspices of the Ministers' Association. It was suggested that an effort should be made to quicken the life of the churches and to work along existing channels, rather than to start a formal "revival" as yet. This report was approved and the committee was discharged.

NEW WITNESS IN KENNEDY CASE.

WILL TESTIFY, MR. OSBORNE SAYS, IN OPPOSITION TO THE DEFENDANT'S ALIBI.

Assistant District Attorney James W. Osborne, who has charge of the Kennedy case and is making preparations to speedily bring Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy to trial for the third time for the murder of "Dollie" Reynolds, asserts that he has found another important witness in the case. He said that the story this man will tell is that he saw Dr. Kennedy on the morning of August 16, 1898, on the 2:50 a. m. boat from the foot of Whitehall-st. for Cliffon, Staten Island, in contradiction of other witnesses.

BEHEADED BY CABLE CAR GRIP.

WORKMAN EMPLOYED IN LEXINGTON-AVE. SUBWAY FINNED BY CABLE AND FORCED TO AWAIT DEATH.

While working in the cable subway at Seventy-second-st. and Lexington-ave. at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning Thomas Robinson, twenty-eight years old, an ironworker, of No. 19 East One-hundred-and-seventh-st., was beheaded by the grip of a car bound northward.

BROTHER SUES BROTHER.

A KNOCKDOWN AND A PAIR OF SHEARS FIGURE IN SPERO DAMAGE ACTION.

This suit of Jonas B. Spero against his brother and partner, Samuel Spero, for $10,000 damages for alleged slander, began yesterday in the Supreme Court before Justice Dugan. The brothers were in business at No. 98 to 102 Nassau-st. on February 2, 1900, when they had a dispute, and Jonas, in his complaint, asserts that Samuel reflected on his character and made severe and serious accusations as to his honesty and probity.

A BROKER IN BANKRUPTCY.

G. EDWIN JONES ASKS TO BE RELIEVED OF HIS LIABILITIES.

G. Edwin Jones, a broker, doing business at No. 29 Broad-st., and residing at No. 76 Irving Place, through James C. Lenney, of No. 35 Nassau-st., filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday, giving his liabilities on contracts at $12,369.38, only $1,500 of which is secured. All the liabilities were contracted in this city this year, and are mostly on trading accounts. The assets, which are given at $11,838, consist of cash on hand to the amount of $800; bills and notes, $1,100; stock in trade, $200; due on open account from Carley, Rosengarten & Carley, of New-York and Chicago, $103,238, and unliquidated claims of $5,250. The principal creditors are the Wear Commercial Company, of Chicago, $6,000; Miller, Rathbone & Co., of Chicago, $3,200; C. E. Mable, of the Majestic Hotel, $2,337; G. A. Gibbs, of Chicago, $6,288; W. A. McConnell, of Chicago, $5,645; and E. L. Tufts, of the Majestic Hotel, $4,000.

A POINT GAINED FOR MOLINEUX.

Recorder Goff grants application for reinsertion of items stricken out of testimony.

Recorder Goff handed down his decision yesterday afternoon on the application of Messrs. Weeks and Battle, for a reinsertion in the record of the trial of Roland E. Molineux, the lawyers requesting the reinsertion of 123 items in the testimony which had been stricken out. Recorder Goff granted the motion.

ONE AUTOMOBILE DRIVER PUNISHED.

FOSTER MILLIKEN AND ANOTHER, ACCUSED OF FAST DRIVING, DISCHARGED.

Three automobile drivers, arrested on Sunday on the charge of speeding on the Boulevard, were arraigned before Magistrate Cornell in the West Side court yesterday morning.

MR. MORGAN NOT GOING ON HILL'S YACHT.

A member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. said yesterday that there was no truth in the revived story that Mr. Morgan would sail with an attendant when Bicycle Policeman Hanley saw him at Ninety-sixth-st. and Broadway. He started after them, but said he was left out of sight at One-hundred-and-nineteenth-st. He found the three men at One-hundred-and-twentieth-st. and Amsterdam-ave. and arrested Milliken. Milliken said it was a case of mistaken identity, and that he had not driven over eight miles an hour. Magistrate Cornell discharged him.

JUSTICE SCOTT REFUSES TO GRANT MOTION IN SALE OF PENNSYLVANIA COAL COMPANY CASE.

Justice Scott, in Part I of the Supreme Court, yesterday morning, denied the motion of Richard P.ine-Coffin to have J. Pierpont Morgan summoned to give testimony before trial in the action of Mr. P.ine-Coffin to restrain and set aside the sale of the Pennsylvania Coal Company to the Erie Railroad Company.

MR. MORGAN NOT GOING ON HILL'S YACHT.

A member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. said yesterday that there was no truth in the revived story that Mr. Morgan would sail with an attendant when Bicycle Policeman Hanley saw him at Ninety-sixth-st. and Broadway. He started after them, but said he was left out of sight at One-hundred-and-nineteenth-st. He found the three men at One-hundred-and-twentieth-st. and Amsterdam-ave. and arrested Milliken. Milliken said it was a case of mistaken identity, and that he had not driven over eight miles an hour. Magistrate Cornell discharged him.

THE EVARTS CLUB OF LAWYERS.

The Everts Club, formed over a year ago, is the name of a social organization which is composed of about sixty lawyers who at different times were associated with Mr. Everts at the office of Everts, Choate & Beaman, No. 52 Wall-st. There are also fifteen or twenty out of town members of the club. At frequent intervals the active members, some of whom are well along in years, dine together in a quiet way. Nearly all of them have offices near the old quarters of Mr. Everts.

WILSON'S CASE ADJOURNED.

COUNSEL FOR DAVIS SCOUTS IDEA THAT EFFORT WAS MADE TO OBTAIN FALSE TESTIMONY.

The case of Charles E. Wilson, an inspector in the Department of Charities, who is charged with an attempt to obtain false testimony in the Court of General Sessions, was adjourned yesterday until to-morrow at the Jefferson Market police court. Assistant District Attorney Pierce asked for the delay in the examination, and Charles Steedler, Wilson's counsel, consented. Wilson is under $2,000 bail to appear for the examination to-morrow morning. His arrest is a sequel to the trial of Jesse R. Davis, who was acquitted last week. Davis and two other former Bellevue Hospital nurses were indicted on the charge of responsibility for the death of Louis H. Hilliard in the insane pavilion on December 1, 1899.
