

closure, until these were filled. Such a display of fashion and bright colors had not been seen in England since the outbreak of the war...

PUNCH IN WINNER'S HONOR.

MR. WHITNEY FILLS THE FLOWING BOWL FOR GRAVESSEND'S THROUG.

There was much enthusiasm in this city yesterday over the victory of the Whitney colors in the Derby, and nowhere was the rejoicing greater than at the Gravesend racetrack.

The winning of the Derby is a real triumph for John B. Higgins, who has so many friends among racing people that I would be pleased if you will make a "Higgins" punch, free to all, as a tribute to his skill.

Copies of this telegram were posted in various parts of the grandstand, and everybody proceeded to get thirty of the caterer who has Gravesend track privileges set all his employees at work extracting corks, and after the first race there was punch for hundreds.

A number of Mr. Whitney's friends called on him at his home, to offer their congratulations in person, while others sent telegrams and telephone messages.

Of course, I am pleased at the colt's victory, and possibly more on account of Higgins, who trained more than any other trainer in the history of winning. Volodyovski was beaten in the Newmarket Stakes on the first day of the racing meeting, and on a muddy track I was not discouraged. Higgins deserves great credit for he did give us the colt.

While it is pleasing intelligence that the colors of an American horse were first in the English Derby of 1901, national pride is not particularly stimulated except by the fact that the winner was handled by an American trainer.

The Derby was won in 1881 by Iroquois, a horse owned and raised in this country, and owned by Pierre Lorillard, whose Tantalus was among the colts beaten on Volodyovski's track.

James R. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix and the St. Leger the same year, but was not entered for the Derby.

John B. Higgins was to train for Pierre Lorillard in this country, and went abroad about six years ago to train for Mr. Lorillard and Lord Beresford.

OTHER RACES AT EPSOM. London, June 5.—The Nadine colt (Maber) won the Juvenile Plate of 200 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, distance five furlongs. Twelve ran.

Disastrous, ridden by Jenkins, won the Ramrose Plate of 200 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward, at five furlongs. A Canadian came in second and Dixie (Maber) finished third.

TRAIN KILLS A BOAT BUILDER. "CAP'N DAVE" DUNN, WHILE TRACK WALKING, STRUCK BY THE "DOLLY VARDEN."

David H. Dunn, sixty-one years old, of No. 48 West Fifty-fifth-st., better known as "Cap'n Dave," one of the best known boat builders on the North River, was killed last night at Ninetieth-st. and the North River by the "Dolly Varden," a passenger train of the New York Central Railroad.

Dunn was starting down the tracks for his boat-house from Ninety-fifth-st., when he saw a freight train coming up. He stepped over to the other track without looking behind to see if there was a car coming. He was hit by the "Dolly Varden" and his body thrown fifty feet ahead and to one side of the track.

"CLUB MEN OF NEW-YORK." The fourth issue of "Club Men of New-York" is for 1901-02, and shows an advance in scope and accuracy over previous issues. Much time has been devoted to the preparation of the volume, which is devoted to attractive format and contains the alphabetically arranged names of thirty-eight thousand New-Yorkers who are members of clubs.

The doctor sometimes passes a harder sentence than the judge. So the sentence of the doctor is more often set aside or overruled than that of the judge. In the case of Mrs. Reynolds, given below, the doctor sentenced her to about eighteen years of physical punishment and misery.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a woman's best friend. A woman suffers from a peculiar ailment, she takes medical treatment, gets no better, and has no hope held out for improvement. Then in her discouragement she turns to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and finds a prompt and lasting cure.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps or by express of mailing only, or if cloth-bound book is desired send 5 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HONORS TO AMERICANS.

Continued from first page.

kind invitation, and I assure you that it was accepted in the same spirit, and if our coming together at this time serves to bind in closer ties the relations between the two nations our hopes and expectations will be fulfilled, and we shall count it a high honor to have been here. We count it a high honor to have been here. We count it a high honor to have been here.

We do not forget how you instilled into our minds those habits of industry, thrift and fair dealing, which have grown with our growth and become part of our inheritance, with which we have worked during the last one hundred and thirty years, and now, in the dawn of the twentieth century, we are able to state with some pride that the business relations between the two countries amount to the astounding sum of over $800,000,000 a year.

There seems to be a feeling that if the instructions from Washington was a disappointment to the Constitutional Convention, which assembled nominally to listen to the report of the committee on style and to accept formally the amendment, as passed a week ago, after the committee had put the finishing touches to it.

There seems to be a feeling that if the instructions from Washington was a disappointment to the Constitutional Convention, which assembled nominally to listen to the report of the committee on style and to accept formally the amendment, as passed a week ago, after the committee had put the finishing touches to it.

At a meeting of the fifteen yesterday evening General Wood told the committee that the United States was satisfied.

MR. CARNEGIE'S VIEWS. Mr. Carnegie, who had the best reception of the evening, then rose. He dwelt upon the importance of the growing friendly relations between the two countries, and continued as follows:

The hour was so late that several toasts were dispensed with, and the proceedings were brought to an end with a few words from Mr. Choate, who declared that Londoners had done a noble act in extending the hand of friendship to a most formidable rival.

COMMENT OF BRITISH PRESS. London, June 6.—Almost all the morning papers comment editorially upon the Chamber of Commerce dinner, expressing great satisfaction at the significant exchange of friendly sentiments.

"The Daily Telegraph" finds balm for its disappointment at the American triumphs in the fact that, as the traders of the new world learned their lessons from the old country, so it was from the "uncle home" of horseracing that Volodyovski derived his art and stamina.

"The Daily Chronicle," which echoes Mr. Pirie's optimistic observations, applauds Mr. Choate's suggestion that the British of every class should visit the United States, since, as "The Daily Chronicle" remarks, "British manufacturers and workmen have much more to learn from the Americans than Sir Alfred Hickman seems to suppose."

"The Morning Post," which dilates upon the advantages that would accrue if Englishmen took the trouble to acquire an intelligent insight toward this end and toward bringing the two nations closer together, would be taken if a great historical group were to write an impartial history of the War of Independence.

GLORY VIEW OF BRITISH TRADE. LONDON, June 6.—"The Daily Mail" prints today the first of a series of articles on "The American Trade Invasion," showing how the United States is successfully competing with every branch of British industry.

"Such assurances," continues "The Daily Mail," "are natural from Americans, who desire to lull Great Britain to sleep while they capture the British and foreign markets, but from Englishmen they can only be inspired by ignorance or 'ostentation.'"

"The Daily Mail" arrives at the conclusion that the British economic system is "based upon theories which facts are daily proving more destructive."

CUBAN CONVENTION WAITING. DISAPPOINTED AT NON-ARRIVAL OF INSTRUCTIONS FROM WASHINGTON.

Havana, June 5.—The non-arrival of instructions from Washington was a disappointment to the Constitutional Convention, which assembled nominally to listen to the report of the committee on style and to accept formally the amendment, as passed a week ago, after the committee had put the finishing touches to it.

TILLMAN RETAINS HIS SEAT

Continued from page one.

not, if McLaughlin does not have a Republican Senate, certain to maintain his right to withdraw. I would contest the matter in Washington. He is the first Senator in 125 years who has withdrawn and taken back his resignation. It is a question of honor. He made a compact with me, and among gentlemen compacts are not broken unless both parties are willing. It is a question of honor. He made a compact with me, and among gentlemen compacts are not broken unless both parties are willing.

WHAT GOVERNOR WROTE TO TILLMAN. HE SAID HE WOULD ACCEPT AN UNCONDITIONAL RESIGNATION.

Columbia, S. C., June 5.—Decidedly the most sensational development in the Senatorial tangle in this State is a letter which Governor McSweeney sent to Senator Tillman to-day. In his communication the Governor informed Senator Tillman that if he still wishes to resign and will send in an unconditional resignation he will exercise the authority and power vested in him by the people, which is taken to mean that the Governor will accept Senator Tillman's resignation if it shall be formulated on that line.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

Had you read carefully my letter addressed to you and to Senator McLaughlin, you would have seen that I did not express any desire to compel a member of the United States Senate to hold that office if he chose to surrender it. My sole purpose in retaining the resignation was to honor the gentlemen to the people of what I judged to be a hasty act, and I must confess that I am somewhat surprised at the tone of your answer to my request.

A GREAT FIRE AT PEKING.

THE FORBIDDEN CITY IN FLAMES—TROOPS BAR OUT LOOTERS.

Berlin, June 5.—A dispatch from Peking, dated June 4, says a great conflagration has occurred in the Forbidden City. The Americans and Japanese are barring all access to the quarter involved, and details, therefore, are not obtainable.

REFORMS MADE IN GOVERNMENT. Shanghai, June 5.—"The North China Daily News" learns that an imperial decree has been issued commanding special examinations of candidates for appointments in the proposed reform of the government, and abolishing the custom of sending an annual tribute to the court, except tea and medicines.

VON KETTLER'S WIDOW AT PALACE. Berlin, June 5.—Emperor William's reception of Baroness von Kettler to-day, who was accompanied by her mother-in-law, was most kind. His Majesty listened with interest to the recital of the widow's sorrowful experiences during the siege of Peking, also to her account of Baron von Kettler's death. The Empress, who was present at the audience, often interrupted with questions, showing the highest regard for the widow's courage, and subsequent nursing of the sick and wounded. Her Majesty, at the Emperor's request, pinned the insignia of the highest class of the Louise Order to the widow's breast. In the evening the two Baronesses dined with the Emperor and Empress.

COUNT WALTERSEEE LEAVES TAKU. Berlin, June 5.—Count von Walderssee left Taku yesterday on board the German cruiser Hertha for Kobe, Japan.

PLAGUE SPREADS AT SHANGHAI. London, June 5.—The Colonial Office has received a dispatch from Sir Henry A. Blake, Governor of Hong-Kong, announcing that 215 cases of the bubonic plague were officially reported in the week which ended June 1, and that the total number of deaths thus far from the disease is 297.

WARFIELD CHAIRMAN OF BOARD. ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED STATES COTTON DUCK CORPORATION.

A meeting for the organization of the United States Cotton Duck Corporation was held in this city yesterday, at which meeting the following were elected directors: S. Davies Warfield, Baltimore; E. A. Brinkerhoff, J. Spencer Turner, Thomas M. Turner, Henry L. Park, Sigmund Lehman, and G. K. Sheridan, New-York; Richard Cromwell, James E. Hooper, Michael Jenkins, Charles K. Oliver, Theodore Hooper, W. K. Cromwell, David H. Carroll and Henry A. Farrer, Baltimore; James M. Barnard, La Grange, Ga.; William H. Wellington and Horace S. Sears, Boston; F. P. Carpenter, Manchester, N. H., and Robert S. Grun, Elizabeth, N. J. The board organized by the election of the following officers: S. Davies Warfield, chairman of the board of directors; Richard Cromwell, president; J. Spencer Turner, James M. Barnard, secretary; Charles K. Oliver, treasurer; Sidney E. Coolidge, assistant treasurer, and executive committee, S. Davies Warfield, E. A. Brinkerhoff, Michael Jenkins, William H. Wellington, Henry A. Farrer, Thomas M. Turner and Sigmund Lehman. The president and treasurer being ex officio members of the committee. The following standing committee for the purchase of cotton was named: Sigmund Lehman, Richard Cromwell and Sidney E. Coolidge.

THE REMOVAL OF IRISH FLAGS. COMMITTEE ON DECORATIONS WORKING TO FIX RESPONSIBILITY FOR IT.

The great resentment among the Irish in New-York over the removal of Irish flags in St. Paul's churchyard and other places resulted in a meeting last night of the committee on decorations of the Irish society, at its headquarters, No. 47 West Forty-second-st.

After a discussion the committee decided to take no definite action until the responsibility for the removal of the flags is firmly fixed upon some one. The members of the committee say that to all inquiries made by them of the Trinity Corporation, the latter has denied that it had anything to do with the affair.

A reply was received from Police Commissioner Murphy to the communication sent to him by the society asking for police protection for the flags. The commissioner requested that it be not given out for publication. It is known definitely, however, that the Trinity Corporation has not communicated with the Trinity Corporation and the Park Commissioners concerning the removal of the flags.

J. Wilfred Pearce, Editor of "The Newark Ledger" a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, has been elected to the office of the city engineer. He is also connected with the government engineering work at Sandy Hook, had a talk with the committee on decorations of the Irish society, and is working to have the body of General Montgomery removed from the site of the old military burial ground at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

MAY DEFAULT IN SUNDAY GOLF CASE. YONKERS DISTRICT ATTORNEY SAYS HE WILL TRY NO SIMILAR VIOLATIONS.

Some of the golf players of Yonkers feel certain that the trial of School Commissioner Benjamin H. Adams in the local court before a judge and jury on Friday will terminate in the way they wish. The first case, which was originally intended as a test of the Sunday law, was tried in Yonkers yesterday before judge and jury. The proprietor of a merry-go-round was arrested for operating the amusement device there on Sunday. The City Attorney made a vigorous address for conviction. Then Judge Kellogg said:

Gentlemen of the jury, the facts in this case have been clearly set forth. It has been proven that the law has been violated here. There is but one verdict which you can bring in, and that is guilty. I will take no other course.

Despite the explicit instructions of the court, the jury, after a half-hour's deliberation, returned and announced that they could not agree on a verdict. They were then discharged. As a result believers in the Sunday law in Yonkers will be convicted on a charge of Sunday golf playing. The City Attorney, too, announced that he will try no more similar violations.

W. H. NEWMAN ON DUTY. THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE NEW-YORK CENTRAL BEGINS WORK.

W. H. Newman, president of the New-York Central Railroad, newly elected, assumed the duties of his office at 10 o'clock this morning from Cleveland and returned to New-York at 11 o'clock in the morning, and went directly to his office in the Grand Central Station. He had no time to say about his plans. "I am here, and have taken hold. That is all," was his response to an inquiry about his plans.

It is understood that Mr. Newman will continue to perform the duties of president of the Lake Shore until the directors of that road meet later this month. After that meeting, he will be elected, or he will be continued in the office, and the local operation of the road left to a general superintendent. His course will be taken has not yet been determined upon.

HANDWRITING EXPERTS STILL AT IT. The Kennedy trial was continued yesterday morning, with Michael Gumpell, the second expert for the defense, testifying. He pointed out dissimilarities between the various samples of Kennedy's handwriting, and the handwriting of the check. Mr. Gumpell imitated Dr. Kennedy's signature upside down and backward. By reversing a board, a remarkably good imitation of Dr. Kennedy's signature was shown.

AERTEX Cellular Underwear For Men. THIS LABEL ON ALL CELLULAR CLOTHING IS THE MARK OF AERTEX LONDON GARMENTS.

has had continually increasing success. Those who have once tried the system find such additional comfort they wear no other. The layer of Non-conducting air next to the skin is the best and most healthful means of warding off Summer heat. Pamphlet and list of dealers selling Aertex can be obtained free by addressing A. N. Loeb & Co., 576 & 578 Broadway, N. Y.

A GREAT FIRE AT PEKING. THE FORBIDDEN CITY IN FLAMES—TROOPS BAR OUT LOOTERS. BERLIN, June 5.—A dispatch from Peking, dated June 4, says a great conflagration has occurred in the Forbidden City.

NEW-SKIN WATERPROOF COURT PLASTER. ANTI-SEPTIC. ASPERGIC. Health-Cure for Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, etc. DOUGLAS MFG CO. DEPT. 107 FULTON ST., N. Y.

ENGLISH LUNCHEON AND TEA BASKETS. Fitted complete, for Picnics, Travellers, and Yachting. LEWIS & CONGER. 130 and 132 West 42d Street, and 125 West 42d Street, New York.

CARPET CLEANSING. C. H. BROWN CO. 221 East 38th St. GODD WORK GUARANTEED. Tel. 1551, 88th St. Instruction. For Young Ladies—City.

CLASSICAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. Resident and day pupils. College preparatory and advanced course. MRS. LESLIE MORGAN'S Boarding and Day School. ST. AGATHA—CHURCH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. 257 West 93d St., New York City.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL, ESPIONA. Day and Boarding School for Girls. THE MISSISSIPPI SCHOOL. 85th and 86th Streets, New York. THE PEBBLES and THOMPSON SCHOOL. BOARDING and DAY SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. 30, 32, 34 East 57th Street.

For Boys and Young Men—City. COLUMBIA INSTITUTE. 210 West 126 St., New York. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION. THE BERLITZ SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES. MAPLEWOOD, CONCORDVILLE, PA.—Successful school, one of the best to insure energy, to wake up the duties of life, prepared for business or college.

For Boys and Young Men—Country. THE WESTMINSTER SCHOOL FOR BOYS. NEW MILFORD, N. J. DR. W. G. NOWELL, private tutor, at pupils' homes at 117 E. 82d St. Two pupils received in family.

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder. AN ELEGANT TOILET LUXURY. Used by people of refinement for over a quarter of a century.