CAUSE OF LOUISIANA DOUBLE LYNCHING.

"PROPHET" SMITH HEAD OF A NEGRO SOCIETY WHICH WAS CONSPIRING AGAINST WHITES.

New-Orleans, June 20.—Quitted pre-arranged to at Shreveport, where two negroes, arrested in connection with the murder of John Gray Foster, the planter, "Prophet" Smith and F. D. McLand—were lynched last night.

Telegrams from Shreveport to-day state that evidence was discovered so clearly establishing the identity of Smith and McLand as enemies of the white race and dangerous elements among the negroes that their extinction came to be regarded as essential to the preservation of order in the parish.

"Prophet" Smith founded the organization previously mentioned at Houston. Later he went to Shreveport, and immediately after his arrival there, Chief of Police Lake declared him to be a dangerous person and ordered him to leave town, but he went no further than the Foster plantation.

After the shooting of Foster a search of Smith's rooms revealed a so-called "ark of the covenant" and a fully equipped box, bearing within it a number of letters, the last time about four years ago. Recently he bought a place at Staten Island and took a great interest in real estate.

AN OUTRAGE, SAYS JEROME

INDIGNANT AT LIGHT SENTENCES IMPOSED BY JUDGE FOSTER—NEARLY CAUGHT JOHN DOE.

"It is a damned outrage," said Justice Jerome last night, when his attention was drawn to the sentence of ten days each imposed by Judge Foster on four gamblers captured in a raid on the gambling house at No. 111 East Fourteenth-st. in April. After leading a midnight raid on this place, Justice Jerome had spent parts of two days watching mechanics open two large safes by force.

EFFORTS WERE MADE BY A TRIBUNE REPORTER TO GET AN INTERVIEW WITH FRANK FARRELL LAST NIGHT, BUT HE COULD NOT BE FOUND.

AS TO THE SENTENCES IMPOSED ON THE GAMBLERS, JUSTICE JEROME SAID:

"When the legislature declares gambling a felony, it is not to be treated as a public offense, but to fall to bring gamblers to punishment, it seems passing strange that men caught red handed at the game should be allowed to go free, and that men who are caught with a mere token of the game should be treated as if they were guilty of a crime."

JUDGE FOSTER SAID HE HAD BEEN INFORMED BY THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY THAT THE MEN WERE MERELY EMPLOYEES, AND THAT THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY DID NOT THINK THEY OUGHT TO BE HEAVILY PUNISHED.

IN A LETTER SENT BY DISTRICT ATTORNEY PHILLIPS TO THE JUDGE OF THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, HE SAID HE PROPOSED THAT THE GAMBLERS SHOULD BE IMPRISONED RATHER THAN FINED, AND THAT IN THE CASE OF MEN WHO WERE MERELY PLAYERS OR EMPLOYEES AN IMPRISONMENT OF THIRTY DAYS WOULD BE SUFFICIENT.

BANKERS FEEL AGGRIEVED.

DON'T WANT TO BE FORCED TO TAKE OUT SAME LICENSE AS BUCKET SHOP MEN.

A number of Wall Street bankers feel aggrieved because of a recent interpretation of the war revenue law which holds that brokers who cannot qualify for a license in Class No. 1, which comprises those who actually buy and sell stocks for which they take orders, must take out a license in Class No. 2, which includes bankers who take orders from their customers and put those orders into the hands of brokers for execution.

A tale of Southern reconstruction. Arrows of the Almighty By Owen Johnson. A most interesting story of the Civil War, and what one strong man in the right place accomplished.

Richard Yea and Nay By Maurice Hewlett. Cleveland, Ohio, June 20.—Contrary to general expectation, Hanna prevailed at the Republican county convention to-day. Senator Hanna occupied a seat on the platform and made a strong speech in favor of peace between the two factions of the party. He said in part: Seldom has there been any campaign of such importance as last year's, bearing on questions of such moment as this year it is the same. It will have great bearing on the President's work, and we should uphold him. This year we elect a legislature to choose a successor to my distinguished colleague, Senator Foraker, and we should be united in the demand that he be sent back. The Legislature that chooses his successor will be a legislature that chooses his successor to be a legislator in Ohio, and on this hangs the fate of at least five members of Ohio's Congress delegation. Its acts are of importance to the administration. The Republicans of this State uphold the hands of the President by giving him our aid by a majority in the next House of Representatives. Personal interests ought to be sacrificed for the good of the party. The Republican party must continue to hold the respect of a majority of the people of the United States. It is needless to tell what the Republican party has done for the country in the last few years. Let us have to do with the country in Ohio, and in the United States that the Republican ranks are filling up and preparing for the battle of 1904. Let this be the notice to the State and the United States. The nominations subsequently made were pretty evenly divided between the two factions of the party.

RYAN WANTS TO BE CANDIDATE. Chicago, June 20.—William J. Bryan, in a talk with Chicago newspaper men to-day, said: "I am for Mark Hanna for the Republican candidate for President next time, and hope the Republicans will nominate him, but I'm not sure I can control their convention." "Who would be a good man for the Democrats to nominate?" "It is too early to talk about any man for the Democratic nomination," said Mr. Bryan. "I have taken up a line of work, and believe I have twenty years ahead of me to carry it on."
