

THE MARKETS.

TOTAL DOMESTIC RECEIPTS TO-DAY.

Table listing domestic receipts for various commodities including flour, sugar, and other goods.

CASH QUOTATIONS.

Table showing cash quotations for various commodities such as flour, sugar, and oil.

EXPORTS TO-DAY.

Table listing export quantities for various commodities.

GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

COFFEE—Coffee futures were featureless and unchanged today.

Table of coffee futures prices for various grades and origins.

CHINA TEA—China tea prices were steady.

Table of China tea prices for different grades and types.

WHEAT—Wheat prices were steady.

Table of wheat prices for various grades and origins.

GRAIN—Grain prices were steady.

Table of grain prices for various types of grain.

MEAT—Meat prices were steady.

Table of meat prices for various types of meat.

Wool—Wool prices were steady.

Table of wool prices for various grades and origins.

Oil—Oil prices were steady.

Table of oil prices for various grades and origins.

Leather—Leather prices were steady.

Table of leather prices for various grades and origins.

Metals—Metals prices were steady.

Table of metal prices for various types of metal.

Other commodities—Other commodity prices were steady.

Table of other commodity prices for various goods.

Summary of market activity.

Table summarizing market activity for various commodities.

break in prices. According to a sensational fall in corn values and reports of showers in Northwest States, the market gave way sharply under vigorous selling for long calls and a sharp decline in the price of the grain.

Wheat prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of wheat remaining stable.

Grain prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of grain remaining stable.

Meat prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of meat remaining stable.

Wool prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of wool remaining stable.

Oil prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of oil remaining stable.

Leather prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of leather remaining stable.

Metals prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of metal remaining stable.

Other commodities prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various goods remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

the season. Fancy broilers are pretty well cleaned up. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of poultry remaining stable.

NAVAL STORES. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of naval stores remaining stable.

STOCK ON HAND. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of stock on hand remaining stable.

COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of country produce remaining stable.

NEW YORK PRICES. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of New York products remaining stable.

RECEIPTS AT ATLANTIC PORTS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of receipts at Atlantic ports remaining stable.

EXPORTS FROM ATLANTIC PORTS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of exports from Atlantic ports remaining stable.

LEATHER. There has been a better demand for hemlock leather, which has led to a slight increase in prices.

METALS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of metals remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

the season. Fancy broilers are pretty well cleaned up. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of poultry remaining stable.

NAVAL STORES. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of naval stores remaining stable.

STOCK ON HAND. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of stock on hand remaining stable.

COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of country produce remaining stable.

NEW YORK PRICES. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of New York products remaining stable.

RECEIPTS AT ATLANTIC PORTS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of receipts at Atlantic ports remaining stable.

EXPORTS FROM ATLANTIC PORTS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of exports from Atlantic ports remaining stable.

LEATHER. There has been a better demand for hemlock leather, which has led to a slight increase in prices.

METALS. The market is quiet, with prices for various types of metals remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

about 225 calves were held over, including a car of Westerners; ordinary to choice veals sold at $3.80 to $4.20.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts were 19 cars, or 4,600 head, including 1 car for a butcher and 18 for the market.

Wool—Wool prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of wool remaining stable.

Oil—Oil prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of oil remaining stable.

Leather—Leather prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of leather remaining stable.

Metals—Metals prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of metal remaining stable.

Other commodities—Other commodity prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various goods remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour steady, No. 2 white, 90¢; No. 1, 91¢; No. 2, 92¢; No. 3, 93¢.

Wheat—Wheat prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of wheat remaining stable.

Grain—Grain prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of grain remaining stable.

Meat—Meat prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of meat remaining stable.

Wool—Wool prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of wool remaining stable.

Oil—Oil prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of oil remaining stable.

Leather—Leather prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various grades of leather remaining stable.

Metals—Metals prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various types of metal remaining stable.

Other commodities—Other commodity prices were steady. The market was quiet, with prices for various goods remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.

Summary of market activity. The overall market was quiet and steady, with prices for most commodities remaining stable.