NOT HELD BY PRAYER BOOK

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION ALLOWS LATITUDE IN FORMS OF WORSHIP.

San Francisco, Oct. 7 (Special).—The House of Deputies of the Episcopal Convention continued the debate to-day on the section of Article X of the proposed amendments to the constitution...

The discussion was warm, particularly in the morning session, both sides being strongly convinced of the weight of their arguments.

In the morning the Rev. E. R. Spalding, of Alabama, opposing the amendment, maintained that it was hastily prepared and passed, and it opened the door for heresy and schism.

The Rev. Dr. F. A. Derost, of Springfield, Ill., continued in this line, asserting that the amendment would make chaos out of order.

The Rev. Dr. T. J. Bassett, of Rhode Island, said that the great fundamental principles of Christianity must go before the Prayer Book, and not the other way.

The Rev. Edward A. Larabee, of Chicago, made a strong speech in favor of the amendment and criticized sharply the work of the Fond du Lac diocese.

MORE TIME FOR MISS STONE

THE BRIGANDS GIVE HER FRIENDS A MONTH LONGER TO RAISE THE RANSOM.

London, Oct. 8.—"It is reported from Sofia," says a dispatch from Vienna to "The Daily Express," "that United States Consul Dickinson and an envoy of the missionary society arrived there on Saturday, intending to follow up Miss Stone, the abducted missionary, and to deposit a portion of the ransom. The brigands have extended the time for payment one month."

RANSOM FOR MISS STONE.

NEARLY ONE-HALF SUM DEMANDED RECEIVED IN BOSTON.

Boston, Oct. 7.—Kidder, Peabody & Co., the firm that is acting as agent in the movement to ransom Miss Stone, who is in the hands of Turkish brigands, report that they received up to the hour of closing to-night about $300,000 from all sources. Of this amount $25,000 is in cash and the remainder in pledges. This $25,000 has been sent by cable to the American Minister at Constantinople, with the request that he negotiate with the bandits for a stay of their threat until the residue of the $100,000 can be raised and forwarded. Dr. Judson Smith, secretary of the American Board, says he is certain that the monetary demand of Miss Stone's captors can be met if they will only grant a little more time.

CHANCE TO SAVE MISS STONE'S LIFE.

Washington, Oct. 7.—It is not probable that the kidnapers of Miss Stone will enforce their ultimatum to-morrow, although that was the date named as the last day of grace in her case. The danger is by no means averted, however, and the most that can be said now is that there is a likelihood of securing a short extension by the brigands of the time allowed for the payment of the ransom.

HUMANITY DEMANDS IT.

The Rev. Dr. C. C. Cregan, secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions, said this yesterday concerning the $110,000 demanded by Bulgarian brigands for the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the missionary whom they hold a prisoner.

MISSIONARY SECRETARIES SAY RANSOM MUST BE PAID AND PLANS MADE AFTERWARD.

"All logical arguments back down under present existing circumstances, and whether it be a good or a bad precedent, humanity dictates that we raise the money for Miss Stone's release."

"THICKER THAN WATER."

The Editor of the Spectator. Sir: You say "it would be impossible to get the people of this country to go to war with America."

Henry Irving and Ellen Terry, who sailed from London last Saturday for the Minnehaha, are expected to reach New York next Tuesday, October 15, and they will appear at the Knickerbocker Theatre, October 21, presenting Mr. Will's poetic and beautiful drama of "Charles I."

THE CRIME THE OUTCOME OF BAD FEELING BETWEEN TWO EMPLOYEES.

As the steamer Vanderland, of the Red Star Line, left Quarantine yesterday afternoon on her way to her pier, Charles Claes, of Belgium, twenty-five years old, a steward in the steerage, stabbed Gustav Deustadt, twenty-six years old, the chief steward, Deustadt's wound was a serious one, and he was taken to the Hudson Street Hospital when the ship reached her pier. Claes was arrested by the police.
