SIXTH AVENUE, 20TH TO 21ST STREET.

The horror of the ordinary mother when she sees her son in long trousers for the first time is not to be wondered at, when you consider the usual cut-down-big-brother effect.

Here are smart trim little long trouser suits for the 13 to 16 year olds; built on boyish lines, almost a cure for awkwardness. $10 to $20.

"Quality good, style nil" describes the usual $3.50 shoe.

To get at the unusual, have taken $9 style and tacked on the best leather and workmanship gettable for $3.50.

Our new style $3.50 shoe is made for style as well as for wear.

Box calf, enamel and patent leather.

Politics Up-to-Date.

The meetings, speeches, and all the various developments and phases of the campaign will be treated extensively in

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE,

October 20th. Many other interesting features will also appear on that date. Some hints appear below:

Women and Men.

It is popularly supposed that there are more women than men in the United States. This is a mistake. The reverse is true. An interesting explanation of this fact.

Japanese Wrestlers.

The entire empire takes great interest in wrestling. The athletes devoted to it are esteemed very highly.

Horticultural Exhibition.

The great Flower Show at Madison Square Garden will be a most charming and interesting exhibition. Some of its beautiful features illustrated.

"Barney" Martin.

Portrait and sketch of this Tammany Understudy of the celebrated "Silver-Tongued Goliath."

Stylish Headgear.

What it will be proper to wear on the head at King Edward's Coronation.

Pan-American Medals.

Designs for the prizes awarded to successful exhibitors at Buffalo.

European Rulers.

Many exhibitions of disloyalty may be found in Berlin, Paris, Vienna and other European capitals.

College Football.

Columbia, Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Carlisle and all the other university teams will play football to-morrow. The best and most complete reports of the games will appear in The Sunday Tribune.

Revolutionary Landmark.

The old mansion formerly occupied by the Knickerbocker Governor Van Den Heuvel, which is soon to be demolished.

Literary Reviews.

Sports of Saturday and the Week. Matters of Special Interest to Women. Entertaining Miscellany from The Tribune's Foreign and American Contemporaries. A Page of Humor. Special Correspondence from London and Paris. The News of the World.

All this, and much more, in
