ASKS AID FOR THE NEEDY.

The Charity Organization Society appeals for $25 to pay for one year's care in a nursery of the two children of an Italian widow. She is not strong enough for heavy work and earns but $3.50 a week. Relatives are too poor to aid or care for the children, but give the woman a room at low rent in the laundry building on Wednesday street for a German widow with four children, who is endeavoring to keep her family together. She earns a little by laundry work, but it is not strong and has but one child old enough to aid in the support. Any money sent to the Charity Organization Society, No. 105 East Twenty-second-st., will be duly and publicly acknowledged.
