

MANY WEDDING GIFTS.

MARRIAGE OF MARQUIS OF LONDON-DERRY'S DAUGHTER.

MRS. LANGTRY IN A NEW PLAY—CANON GORE'S DECISION MAY BE SETTLED BY THE COURTS.

(Copyright, 1902; By The Tribune Association.) (BY CABLE TO THE TRIBUNE.) London, Jan. 25. (A. M.)—If the Chancellor of the Exchequer were radical, he could find a source of revenue in the taxation of wedding presents.

The marriage at St. Peter's, Eaton Square, was witnessed by the smartest people of London. It was a picturesque spectacle, with four little girls in Empire frocks of old lace over quillsilver silk, with cloth of gold sashes and gold shoes and stockings.

The marriage at St. Peter's, Eaton Square, was witnessed by the smartest people of London. It was a picturesque spectacle, with four little girls in Empire frocks of old lace over quillsilver silk, with cloth of gold sashes and gold shoes and stockings.

The decision of Canon Gore that the consecration service as Bishop must be deferred on account of legal objections to his confirmation is commended by churchmen of all schools, although the congregation in the Abbey was disappointed yesterday.

THE GRIDIRON CLUB'S ANNUAL DINNER.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AMONG THOSE WHO ENJOYED THE FUN.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The black and white flag of the Gridiron Club floated over the Arlington Hotel all day, and to-night the Washington correspondents composing that organization assembled for their seventeenth annual dinner.

President Roosevelt was among those who enjoyed the fun. The dinner was held at the Arlington Hotel and was a grand success.

DECREE FOR MRS. CARLIE WELLS SIBLEY.

SHE SECURES A LIMITED DIVORCE FROM RICHARD C. SIBLEY.

Justice Traux, in the Supreme Court, yesterday handed down a decision in the suit of Mrs. Carlie Wells Sibley against Richard Clay Sibley for a decree of limited divorce.

FINAL ORDER FOR NEW SALE OF TRUCK.

It is reported that there will be an offer of $400,000 for the Empire City course. The final order of Supreme Court Justice Keogh setting aside the sale of the Empire City racetrack to Frank S. Farrell for $218,000, on the ground that it had been undervalued, and that a bid of $300,000 had been received, was filed in the Westchester County Clerk's office, at White Plains, yesterday.

ARTISTS AND LITERATI IN SESSION.

THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF ARTS AND LETTERS ELECTS OFFICERS, DINE AND DISCUSS.

The third annual meeting of the National Institute of Arts and Letters was held on Friday evening in the rooms of the Aldine Association, No. 111 Fifth-ave. There was a large attendance of members, including William Dean Howells, Edmund Clarence Stedman, Henry Van Dyke, George W. Cable, Richard Watson Glider, F. Hopkinson-Smith, Hamlin Garland, Paul Leicester Ford, Thomas R. Lounsbury, James Ford Rhodes, Robert Underwood Johnson, William P. Trent and Hamilton W. Mabie, among men of letters, and Robert Reid, William Dean Howells, secretary, Hamilton W. Adams, F. Wellington Ruckstetter, E. A. MacDowell, Reginald De Koven and Elliot Gregory, among artists.

PURCHASE OF CITY ISLAND DENIED.

IT IS SAID THAT AUGUST BELMONT IS BUYING PROPERTY THERE FOR A CLUBHOUSE.

Many sales of property in City Island have recently been announced, and the reports have given rise to a rumor that a syndicate is trying to buy every foot of the island, with the idea of establishing on it a permanent mercantile and manufacturing exhibition. One hotelkeeper of City Island is said to have reported that he had sold his place to several well known men of this city.

TO MARK GRAVE OF INDIAN CHIEF.

Omaha, Jan. 25.—The Burlington road has decided to erect a monument over the grave of Wapello, one of the three great chiefs of the Sac and Fox nation, who is buried near Agency, Iowa, in Wapello County. The shaft will not be a large one, but will commemorate the memory of the great chief.

THE DRAMA.

MR. MANSFIELD.

Last night, at the Herald Square Theatre, giving a brilliant performance of Beaucaire, Mr. Mansfield brought his engagement to a close, and he will now make a tour of other cities, presenting the same sparkling and sympathetic character, and, doubtless, augmenting his prosperity and renown.

SELECTIONS FROM THE MAIL.

THE ATHENEUM CLUB, LONDON.

SOME OBSERVATIONS BY MONSIGNOR DOANE.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I am glad to find there is one thing on which I can enlighten my friend, Ex-Attache, and that is with regard to the Atheneum Club, of London, of which he said some words in his article on the clubs of London in to-day's paper.

THE LAST HOURS OF EMERSON.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TRIBUNE.

A book called "The Book Opened," and purporting to be a guide in religious matters, has just come into my hands. It was written by the Rev. Dr. Alfred Nevill, and is from an Indianapolis publisher. The work contains some strange statements that seem to me to call for public rebuke.

SENTENCED TO GO TO SEA.

CHICAGO JUDGE LISTENS TO PLEA THAT YOUTHFUL BURLUGAR WILL ENLIST IN NAVY.

Chicago, Jan. 25 (Special)—Elmer McDonald, a youth of sixteen, was sentenced by Judge Smith to serve in the United States Navy. This unusual conclusion of a burglary trial attracted considerable attention in the Criminal Court.

SNOW IN CENTRAL WEST.

INDICATIONS OF BLIZZARD IN WYOMING AND KANSAS.

Denver, Jan. 25.—Snow is falling to-day in Colorado and Wyoming, but the indications are that the storm will assume the proportions of a blizzard in the latter region.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

"Messa" was repeated at the Metropolitan Opera House yesterday afternoon.

NEW HOUSE FOR CHARITY HOME.

The management of the Robins Nest and Charity Home, of Manhattan, which cares for orphaned children, has purchased the F. N. Holbrook place, in that town, for a new house, as its present one is inadequate. The Holbrook place contains four acres and a large house.

WORKINGMEN AND SUNDAY SALOONS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: As an outside reader, watching the arguments on both sides of the question of opening or closing the saloons on Sunday, one fact has greatly impressed me.

ITALIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DINNER.

The Italian Chamber of Commerce in New-York will hold its annual dinner on Saturday, February 1, at 7 p. m., in the Hotel Savoy.

STANDARD MAY DEVELOP OIL FIELDS.

There is a report that the Standard Oil Company is planning to spend many millions of dollars in developing the oil fields of Texas and California.

THE PASSING THROG.

Theodore Wetmore, of Minneapolis, at the Gilsey House yesterday, spoke strongly in favor of direct nominations at the primaries.

A DISCIPLE noticed a story in one of the "opinion" papers, that the example of Minnesota NOMINATIONS, in that the choice of candidates in making nominations directly by the primaries was likely to influence other States or cities. I hope it will cause many to follow our example, for I believe, after seeing the system in actual practice, that it is the best and most equitable method.

STILL THEY COME.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

Special Notices. No occasion for so much suffering—eat to your stomach. Generally all sufferers originate from the stomach or nervous system. If you cannot call, state plainly and fully your symptoms. You will receive a copy of our medicine free of charge. Send 4c in stamps for prompt reply of advice.

THE PASSING THROG. Theodore Wetmore, of Minneapolis, at the Gilsey House yesterday, spoke strongly in favor of direct nominations at the primaries.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A few years ago the thought of a "Continental Sunday" brought horror to the minds of most good Americans, but let us stop a moment to see where we are drifting to-day.

Religious Notices. ACTORS CHURCH ALLIANCE—Sunday afternoon, January 26, at 4 o'clock, at Manhattan Theatre, Rev. JAMES H. HARRIS, will preach. Music by string quartet and chorus.