DISTRESS IN CUBA.

A GRAPHIC STORY OF BUSINESS DEPRESSION TOLD BY CHARLES M. PEPPER.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, June 28.—In an article written for "The Evening Star" Charles M. Pepper, the well known newspaper correspondent, who has spent the greater part of four or five years past in Cuba, draws a graphic picture of the distressing conditions which the failure of Congress to follow President Roosevelt's recommendations will continue for practically another year in the new republic.

As to the real conditions, they can only be described by distressing iteration. Though the story meets with sneers and mockery, it is one which the people of the United States can appreciate, because they went through it in 1894 and subsequent years.

The general conditions in Cuba today are about what they were in Michigan or Nebraska, or in West Virginia in the panic year 1894, with the tendency to grow as bad as that of any of the following years.

"I am smitten to the earth with sorrow for King Edward, England's great country, but I am glad to be going back to civilization."

Whether in the larger view of international politics the United States is the gainer by the non-action of Congress is not very serious doubt. In the general good feeling which obtained on May 20, when the Cuban flag went up, it seemed possible to obtain everything that was necessary in the concessions.

COMMENTS OF "THE LANCET."

London, June 28.—"The Lancet" in its comments to-day says: No immediate septic absorption has taken place, as shown by the complete absence of disquieting symptoms.

Probably the average of the plantations will be five or six hundred, while ordinarily there would be one thousand or twelve hundred. The agricultural State of the Union and figuring it out, it is not going to enlarge the subject.

PRINCE HENRY LEAVES LONDON.

London, June 28.—Admiral Prince Henry, of Prussia, and his suite left London this morning to join the German flag ship at Portsmouth.

As to the general financial situation, a brief statement will tell as much as a catalogue of woes. Less than a week ago in one of the Havana banks the cashier said to me that there would be four failures of business houses before night.

GAYNOR-GREENE HEARING.

Judge Caron remands the prisoners to jail until July 4.

Quebec, June 28.—The Gaynor-Greene case was again brought up in Superior Court to-day on writs of habeas corpus issued on June 20 and 21.

JURY BRIBING IN CHICAGO.

The seven defendants found guilty.

Chicago, June 28.—The omnibus trial of alleged jury bribers, which has been in progress for three weeks, terminated this evening, all of the defendants, seven in number, being found guilty.

THREE BROTHERS DROWN.

Halifax, N. S., June 28.—The La Have fishing schooner Iceda, which arrived at Bridgewater to-day reported the loss of three brothers on the La Have Banks in Thursday's gale.

It is a subject for deep and anxious consideration because it is not the same calm calmness that seems to rest upon the waters of this country.

FAILURE OF A KINGSTON COMPANY.

Kingston, N. Y., June 28.—The failure of Masterston, Peck & Co., drygoods dealers, who began business here about two years ago, buying the old Merritt store, was announced this morning.

It is a subject for deep and anxious consideration because it is not the same calm calmness that seems to rest upon the waters of this country.

THINK BROOKLYN SUICIDE WAS INSANE.

Hempstead, Long Island, June 28.—The story that James E. Pearson, the lawyer who committed suicide in his office in Brooklyn yesterday, was insane, and not a defaulter, has many advocates here.

It is a subject for deep and anxious consideration because it is not the same calm calmness that seems to rest upon the waters of this country.

NO CONSPIRACY EVIDENCE.

ACTING DISTRICT ATTORNEY RAND CAN NOT PROCEED IN TOBACCO CASE.

Acting District Attorney Rand yesterday sent a letter to W. Bourke Cockran, who last week laid with the District Attorney a complaint against the directors of the Consolidated Tobacco Company based on a colloquy which took place between DeLancy Nicoll, counsel for the Consolidated Tobacco Company, and on papers in the actions brought by two stockholders of the American Tobacco Company against Thomas F. Ryan, James M. Duke and others. Mr. Cockran declared that if the admissions made were true there was evidence of a criminal conspiracy.

I have carefully considered the affidavit submitted by you to the Supreme Court in support of orders obtained for the examination of DeLancy Nicoll, and I am unable to find any evidence to prefer their complaint in the case of George F. Butler, James M. Duke, et al., together with the stenographic transcript of both of the arguments of DeLancy Nicoll, of counsel for the defendant, for the vacating of the orders.

LONDON WAS FULL OF RUMORS. The Hon. James Roche, M. P. of the National Irish party, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Lucania for a week's visit. Mr. Roche said he was not at all surprised to hear of the "little Ad." and the postponement of the coronation. "I had expected it," he said. "It was at the Ascot races the week before we sailed, and the King was absent for the first time that I can remember. The coronation was a house party given at the palace, which was postponed, it was said, because of the death of the King of the Belgians. The coronation was, as I believed then, undoubtedly the King's illness, and London was full of all sorts of rumors.
