

Amusements.

Table listing various amusements, theaters, and performances with their respective locations and showtimes.

Index to Advertisements.

Table listing various advertisements and their corresponding page numbers.

New-York Daily Tribune.

THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1902.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

FOREIGN.—Governor Taft presented to the Vatican the last note of Secretary Root on the withdrawal of the arms from the Philippines.

CITY.—Stocks were strong and active. A runaway dashed into a car in front of the Waldorf.

THE ANNEXATION "CONSPIRACY." The Cuban sugar planters' movement for annexation, which has been disclosed in the special Washington correspondence of The Tribune.

THE WEATHER.—Indications for to-day: Fair and warmer. The temperature yesterday: Highest, 75 degrees; lowest, 60.

THE ANNEXATION "CONSPIRACY." The Cuban sugar planters' movement for annexation, which has been disclosed in the special Washington correspondence of The Tribune.

THE ANNEXATION "CONSPIRACY." The Cuban sugar planters' movement for annexation, which has been disclosed in the special Washington correspondence of The Tribune.

not for many years form a homogeneous part of this Union. They would remain an alien community. That would not be well, either for them or for us.

RECKLESS TROLLEY MANAGEMENT. The trolley accident in the Bronx on Sunday raises again an exceedingly interesting question. There is no way of assessing damages for terror and mental shock.

THE SHAME OF PATERSON. From time to time complaints have come from Paterson about unfair criticism and characterization of the town and its inhabitants by outsiders.

THE TALK OF THE DAY. The managers of a "Elks" Carnival in a Western city paid $100 to a bride and groom who consented to be married in a lions' cage.

THE RETIREMENT OF GENERAL SMITH. When public attention was first called by the Waller court martial to the remarkable order of General Smith for the major "to kill and burn" and "make a howling wilderness" in Samar.

AMBIGUOUS LEGISLATION. It has often been alleged by way of jest, and not seldom in earnest, that laws, being to a large extent drafted by lawyers.

SEASON AT BAR HARBOR. Bar Harbor, Me., July 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould came to-day to the Malvern. They sailed in their yacht as far as Portland and ran down by rail to make arrangements for a cottage for August.

his country. Happily it was not disgraced by any such ruthless devastation as he threatened.

DANGERS FROM LIGHTNING. Thunderstorms are usually frequent in July and August, and well meant advice to people who are in dread of lightning is now given freely in various publications.

THE SHAME OF PATERSON. From time to time complaints have come from Paterson about unfair criticism and characterization of the town and its inhabitants by outsiders.

THE TALK OF THE DAY. The managers of a "Elks" Carnival in a Western city paid $100 to a bride and groom who consented to be married in a lions' cage.

THE RETIREMENT OF GENERAL SMITH. When public attention was first called by the Waller court martial to the remarkable order of General Smith for the major "to kill and burn" and "make a howling wilderness" in Samar.

AMBIGUOUS LEGISLATION. It has often been alleged by way of jest, and not seldom in earnest, that laws, being to a large extent drafted by lawyers.

SEASON AT BAR HARBOR. Bar Harbor, Me., July 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould came to-day to the Malvern. They sailed in their yacht as far as Portland and ran down by rail to make arrangements for a cottage for August.

CARNEGIE'S GIFT TO CLARK UNIVERSITY. Worcester, Mass., July 16.—Andrew Carnegie has promised to give to Clark University $100,000 toward the building of a new library building.

WIFE OF SENATOR PATTERSON DEAD. Denver, July 16.—Mrs. Thomas M. Patterson, wife of United States Senator Patterson, of Colorado, died this evening from nervous prostration.

his country. Happily it was not disgraced by any such ruthless devastation as he threatened.

DANGERS FROM LIGHTNING. Thunderstorms are usually frequent in July and August, and well meant advice to people who are in dread of lightning is now given freely in various publications.

THE SHAME OF PATERSON. From time to time complaints have come from Paterson about unfair criticism and characterization of the town and its inhabitants by outsiders.

THE TALK OF THE DAY. The managers of a "Elks" Carnival in a Western city paid $100 to a bride and groom who consented to be married in a lions' cage.

THE RETIREMENT OF GENERAL SMITH. When public attention was first called by the Waller court martial to the remarkable order of General Smith for the major "to kill and burn" and "make a howling wilderness" in Samar.

AMBIGUOUS LEGISLATION. It has often been alleged by way of jest, and not seldom in earnest, that laws, being to a large extent drafted by lawyers.

SEASON AT BAR HARBOR. Bar Harbor, Me., July 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould came to-day to the Malvern. They sailed in their yacht as far as Portland and ran down by rail to make arrangements for a cottage for August.

CARNEGIE'S GIFT TO CLARK UNIVERSITY. Worcester, Mass., July 16.—Andrew Carnegie has promised to give to Clark University $100,000 toward the building of a new library building.

WIFE OF SENATOR PATTERSON DEAD. Denver, July 16.—Mrs. Thomas M. Patterson, wife of United States Senator Patterson, of Colorado, died this evening from nervous prostration.

About People and Social Incidents.

NEW-YORK SOCIETY.

While outgoing steamers still leave port with well filled passenger lists, the tide of ocean travel has decidedly turned in the homeward direction.

General Horace Porter is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Berwind at the Elms, their place at Newport. He sails next week to resume his duties as United States Ambassador at Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, jr., go to Newport on Wednesday next to stay with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel at their house on Ochre Point.

Baron Kapp-Herr, of the German Embassy, has returned to town from Newport, where he has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rhenlander returned to town yesterday from the White Mountains. They go on Saturday to Narragansett Pier, to stay with Miss Suren Rhenlander.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Livingston, of Tivoli, N. Y., have arranged to spend the rest of the summer at Pinehurst, Bar Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Farnestock have left Tuxedo and gone to Bar Harbor for the rest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Hoffman, who have been absent from Newport for a number of years, have arrived and are at their cottage in Catherine-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gambrell is occupying her new house, in Bellevue-ave., and the first week of August will give a house warming party, which will be one of the features of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould came to-day to the Malvern. They sailed in their yacht as far as Portland and ran down by rail to make arrangements for a cottage for August.

gust. With them are Dwight C. Hartie, of New-York, and N. A. Campbell. The party will go back to New-York in the month the Goulds will be the guests here of General and Mrs. Samuel Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Emery, of New-York, entertained at dinner to-night. The guests were Count and Countess Laugier Villars, Mrs. C. Francis Winthrop, Mrs. James W. Gerard, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. D. J. D. in 1883. He was principal of Smith Academy, Hatfield, Mass., 1883-'85; was an instructor in Boston University, 1885-'88; and since that time has been successively instructor, associate professor and professor of English in Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

AN HONOR FOR FRANCIS KIMBEL. Paris, July 16.—The American Chamber of Commerce met this afternoon for the purpose of presenting to Francis Kimbel, president of the Chamber, a Cross of the Legion of Honor in diamonds, subscribed for by the members. Henry Vignaud, the United States Charge d'Affaires, presided and made the presentation.

BROOKLYN'S OFFICERS ENTERTAINED. London, July 15.—Lord Lansdowne, the Foreign Secretary, entertained the officers of the United States cruiser Brooklyn at luncheon this afternoon.

TRANSATLANTIC TRAVELLERS. Some of those who will sail on the Barbarossa to-day for Southampton and Bremen are the following: The Messrs M. C. and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. James L. W. B. Chubbard, British Consul at Porto Rico, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Whitwell, Father Francis Meyer, O. W. H. Kinnel, Mrs. N. C. Mitchell, Professor James M. Peck, George W. Orger.

Among those who sailed for Liverpool yesterday on the Teutonic were: Sidney G. Ashmore, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Black, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boulton, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Butcher, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cramp, Colonel and Mrs. H. Ferner, Captain R. L. Penner, Mrs. J. H. Higgin, Mrs. Annie Higginbotham.

PERSONAL NOTES. Governor Page of California has received a storm of disapproval by securing the parole from San Quentin Prison of Mah Noon, a highlander. Mah is a fine cook and the Governor has installed him as chef in his own home.

Professor Ashley E. Thorndike, who was elected to the chair of English literature at Northwestern University to succeed Professor Charles W. Pearson, is a graduate from Wesleyan University, in the class of '83. After his course there he took graduate work at Harvard, where he received the degree of Ph.D. in 1885.

WIFE OF SENATOR PATTERSON DEAD. Denver, July 16.—Mrs. Thomas M. Patterson, wife of United States Senator Patterson, of Colorado, died this evening from nervous prostration.

CLARK REQUEST. Worcester, Mass., July 16.—Andrew Carnegie has promised to give to Clark University $100,000 toward the building of a new library building.