THE DWYER COLT WINS THE SARATOGA STAKES

OPENING OF THE NEW TRACK DRAWS GREAT CROWD OF SPECTATORS-GOOD FIELD IN THE BIG RACE.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 4 .- A racing era in which it is hoped that Saratoga will come to be the Ascot of America was begun here to-day, when nine thousand spectators flocked to the new and spaciously beautiful track that has been prepared at such lavish expense by W. C. Whitney, the Messrs. Hitchcock, H. K. Knapp, John San ford and their associates. The horse is the thing in Saratoga, at least for a month, and it seems likely that he will reign at the Spa with increasing power for many Augusts to come wn of pleasure and sparkling waters awoke early to-day, and, brushing aside the mists that had trailed over from the skirts of July, looked out upon a faultless morning. The perfect weather was the only element needed to assure a successful opening to the meeting, and that was assured from daybreak. In the corridors of all the big hotels the talk was of the races, entries for the races stared from every wall and every newspaper, programme vendors sold their wares noisily up and down Broadway, and the wide thoroughfare was packed soon after noon with a mass of vehicles of all shapes and sizes designed to carry spectators to the track. The tide turned trackward at 12:30, and from then on Union-ave, was crowded with an heterogeneous multitude, all going one way. The new track-for new it practically is, with its quarter of a mile of grandstand lawn and its spacious and beautiful approach-has been fully described in The Tribune. Suffice it to say here that, although it still presents the crudities and rawness of youth, it gives every promise of equalling in beauty and attractiveness any track in America, while the informal formality that seems to cling to its arrangements is unique in this country.

Mr. Whitney sat with the other stewards in the stand and expressed his satisfaction with the day's doings. Strange to say, the father of the new Saratoga track, as he is coming to be called, did not have a horse entered in any of the races of the day.

FRANCESCO'S VICTORY.

The feature race of the day, the Saratoga Handicap, resulted in a victory for the Dwyer colors, Francesco, with the featherweight of ninety-seven pounds on his back, winning with comparative ease by three lengths from Herbert, who ran one of the best races of his life and defeated Articulate, the best of the Western handicap division, five lengths for the place. The time, 1:59, was the best for the distance ever made on the Saratoga track, which, though not heavy, was rather dead. It is as yet none too good footing. It has hard clay for a ground work, with about three inches of top soil. It takes time to make a good track and a winter's frost to settle it thoroughly.

The field for the big race was one that compares favorably with the fields of most of the big handicaps of the year. It was regretted that | 2 Gold Heels's hurt in the Brighton Cup prevented his appearance, for he would probably have wen, but any field that includes Blues, Herbert, Advance Guard, Nones, Roxane, Carbuncle, Reina, Ethics and Francesco is worth the attention of any racing assemblage. Blues had top weight, 124, and in the absence of Gold Heels his admirers expected him to win, and made him favorite at about 21/2 to 1. The Dwyer stable was a close second in favoritism, closing at 3 to 1, while Roxane and Nones were coupled at sevens. Mr. Featherstone added Reina, but the Brooklyn Handicap winner was not greatly feared by layers. They held Advance Guard at 7 to 1, but let Herbert go up to twelves. The Western contingent went down heavily on Articulate, whose warming up gallop was done

It was noticeable that Shaw had no mount in the handicap. Martin, the stable jockey, rode Blues; Lynes, who piloted Wyeth when he won the American Derby, had the leg up on Articulate; Turner had his first mount in a long time on Advance Guard; Shea and Odom bestrode the Ryan candidates, and O'Connor, of course, rode Reina.

The saddling paddock at Saratoga is the most picturesque in the country. The horses are scattered about among clumps of trees and between beds of flowers, and to-day, before the handicap, each candidate had his particular throng of admirers, among whom fashiopable women were many, while several polo players in riding breeches and top coats stood about critically making predictions.

INJURY TO REINA.

The start being made in front of the grandstand, the spectators had a perfect view of it and nothing that happened at the post escaped their notice. The thing that interested them most was the injury to Reina. The mare's position was between Herbert and Blues, two most uncomfortable neighbors, and in dodging Blues she got in Herbert's way and he lashed out his heels savagely, cutting the mare severely on the hock. Apparently Reina was much upset by the injury, for she never showed much speed and finished last. There was only a slight delay at the post, and when the barrier went up every horse shot away promptly, excepting Herbert and Ethics, who got about a length the worst of it. Even Advance Guard got off with the rest, but he soon dropped back with Herbert, and the two brought up the rear going around the first turn. Articulate's nose showed in front for the first few jumps, and then Martin rushed Blues into the lead, which he made more and more commanding until he had an advantage of two lengths. Lord Pepper showed prominently and then fell back, giving place to Francesco, who set sail for the leader so determinedly that the "poolroom horse" was only a neck in front at the head of the stretch. Blues had run his race there and then. He shut up like a cheap selling plater when Francesco got on even terms with him. The Dwyer colt romped away cleverly and little Michaels brought him under the wire a handy victor by three lengths before Herbert, who closed strongly and got the place five lengths in front of Articulate, who iust managed to last long enough to head off Advance Guard for show money. The winner's share of the purse was $7,000.

The day was notable also for the discovery of a remarkable two-year-old filly in Judith Campbell, the winner of the Flash Stakes. The winning filly belongs to J. W. Schorr, and is a full sister to Reina, being by Esher, out of Reflection. Tales of her doings in the South and West had floated North, and after Mizzen had been scratched she was installed as a 2 to 1 favorite. Monte Carlo, Old Fort and Mary Street were scratched by the Keene trainer, who added Gimcrack, and Short Hose was added by the Goughacres stable.

AN IMPRESSIVE VICTORY.

The result of the race was one of the most im pressive victories ever won by a filly over a field of colts, for Judith Campbell and Sparkle Esher were the only filles that started. Tantalus Cup led for a few strides, and then the daughter of Esher shot to the front, and though Charles Elwood challenged in the stretch, she simply played with him, and won, going away, by three and a half lengths. Sergeant and the Haggin colt had a ding dong finish for second money, but Wonderly landed his mount in that position but Wonderly landed his mount in that position by a head. The time for the five and a half furlongs was 1:08. Last year the distance was only five furlongs, and W. C. Whitney's Goldsmith won after a game race. Good judges think Judith Campbell as good a filly as Endurance by Right was last year. Certainly her race to-day was a high class achievement.

I. E. Widener's Borough won the Ballston Cup Steeplechase after a redhot finish with Self-Protection that brought the decorous crowd to its feet in really uproarious enthusiasm. Self-Protection led most of the way, well ridden by Mr. Page, and nobody knew which had won until the numbers had gone up. Somerset fell three jumps from the finish, and gave Mara such a shaking up that he had to be carried off the field.

Hermis won the first race of the meeting, proving too much for Monograph, despite a bad stumble in the homestretch that, but for Odom's vigilance, might have caused a hard tumble.

Senator McCarren did not have a good day.

He backed Bluff and Mackey Dwyer heavily, day, but was not allowed to do so. It is announced that so far as Saratoga is concerned his case is still in abeyance. J. G. Follansbee's four-year-old Roehampton has broken down in his work, and will not race again this year, if ever.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR ENGLISH-AMERI-CAN SINGLES AND DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIPS.

After some deliberation yesterday the interna tional lawn tennis committee of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association decided to rearthe programme of the English-American The new schedule, as given places the singles matches on Wednesday and Thursday with the doubles match on Friday.

It is rumored that this new arrangement of the matches pleases both the Englishmen and the at the suggestion of the latter. The Britons be lieved that their men will hold to better form by playing continuously in the singles, and not breakdays of singles. As for the Americans, the work of William A. Larned is sorely disappointing, and it is said that he will be in better form by keeping at the play for the two unbroken days. Then Dwight F. Davis is reported as not being in the fittest of trim, and an extra day of practice is badly needed by him.

All of the players of both teams were at the turf courts of the Crescent Athletic Club, at Bay Ridge, early in the day for practice. The Englishmen took the courts in the morning, and H. L. Doherty, the champion of All England, played some very latter closing at 1 to 2, a ridiculous fast tennis against Dr. Joshua Pim, the ex-chamat the Polo Grounds yesterday to hit the ball in earnest there might have been a different result in the game with the piratical crew from Pittsburg. The league leaders gauged the curves of McGinnity from the start and held the lead throughout. The New-York players rallied in the last two innings, but they began to play too late. Clarke's hitting was terrific and McGinnity winced very time the pirate captain came to the bat. Pittsburg took the lead at the start with two runs.

Buffalo, Aug. 4.-Newark won a grand game today from Buffalo, the score reading 4 to 2. #### TIPSTERS SHUT OUT. EXCLUDED FROM THE TRACK WHILE HORSES ARE BEING WORKED.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 4 .- An index to the tone upon which racing at Saratoga is to be conducted in future is furnished by the manner in which the professional tipsters have been dealt with. Their agents have been excluded from the track during the hours when the horses are being worked. This move will rejoice the trainers, who have been complaining of late that every motion of their horses has been so carefully noted by professional railbirds that it has become next to impossible to put through a really good thing at long odds, as in the good old days. Not only this, but the swarm of ear chattering venders of racing "wires" that make the approach of every metropolitan track a veritable Via Dolorosa has been banished from the confines of the Saratoga track. They are to be seen in vastiy reduced numbers on Broadway, in the hotel district, and they assail the racegoer half-way up Union-ave., but they get no nearer the track entrance than half a mile.

The lawn tennis committee of the Crescent Athletic Club, composed of William F. Powers, chairman; J. Clyde Oswald, William H. Holden, C. Kenyon, ir., and F. St. John Richards, has had another stand erected at the end of the field, so as to accommodate the crowd that has applied for invitation tickets. The turf is being kept in the best possible condition, and in the estimation of Captain Collins, the manager of the English team, it is prime, and has not a blemish. This evening the drawings will be made for the matches and the places of the men in the singles and the doubles on the challenging team of Britishers will be announced. No change has been made in the playing time of the matches. The singles will begin each day at 3:30 p. m. and the doubles at 4:15 p. m.

A wild throw by Floed permitted Crawford to tally. In their half of the inning the home players tied the score. Keeler hit safely, and scored on Dahlen's three bagger. Dahlen tried to stretch it into a home run, and was retired at the plate.

Neither side could add to its totals until the seventh inning. Dahlen then led off with a two bagger, and Farrell reached first on an error by Poole. McCreery hit safely, and Dahlen scored. Irwin sacrificed, and on Flood's safe drive Farrell tallied. The score:

DE WITT AND DAVIS FAIL.

BEHIND IN THEIR STUDIES AT PRINCETON Princeton, N. J., Aug. 4 (Special).-The ann

ent that Ralph T. Davis, captain, and John R. witt, tackie on the football team, had failed in their June examinations aroused much interest here to-day, and has brought forth no little comment. The fact that the names of the students who came within the limits of the rule which places a student on the dropped list were withheld when the reports were published last Monday caused many Princeton adherents a feeling of grave apprehension lest a number of the star athletes were among the unfortunates. It is known that several prominent athletes did fail in the examinations, and that some of them have been dropped to lower classes, although practically all of them will be afforded an opportunity to show cause for being caught in the meshes of the committee's net. Some of them will be reinstated, but most of them will doubtless be enrolled with the next lower class. The case of Captain Davis, and also that of De Witt, is not so serious. According to a statement made this morning by the chairman of the undergraduate athletic committee, neither of these men will be dropped. When seen this morning he said that Davis did not have any back conditions before the June examinations, and if he had he would not have been permitted to play on the baseball team last spring. As for De Witt, he was also clear of conditions, and consequently was eligible to keep his position on the track team. It was further officially stated this morning that Davis had not failed in more than one subject in the final examinations held last June, which at most could not exceed four hours, and he would therefore not be dropped, as it requires a failure in eight hours to place a student in a lower class. many Princeton adherents a feeling of grave ap-

THE MEADOW BROOK MEN DEFEAT THE HOME CLUB-PLAYER HURT. [PY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 4.—There was a good attendance at the Saratoga Folo Club's grounds this afternoon, when the annual tournament was opened. In order to accommodate those who attended the afternoon races play was not begun till 5 o'clock and it ended at 7:20 o'clock, when it was so dark that the polo ball could scarcely be seen by the spectators. The match was a handicap for the Ballston cups between the Saratoga team. and the Meadow Brook team. While the Saratoga men are individually clever players, their game today showed plainly that they lacked practice in day showed plainly that they lacked practice in team work. They were continually at the mercy, of the Meadow Erook players, who piled up a score of 14 to 11, and they could have made it still greater had they played with more energy. Harry Payne Whitney was three times unhorsed, but was not injured. H. S. Page had a single experience of a similar character. Robert S. Stevens, of New-York, received a painful blow on the forehead from a mallet in the hands of August Belmont. W. W. Keith was referee and J. J. McNamara acted as timekeeper. The line up:
