

ART IN ADIRONDACKS.

A COLONY PAINTING PICTURES ON LAKE MASSAWEPIE.

WHERE W. W. CHURCHILL, E. L. IPSEN AND W. H. SHELTON ARE SPENDING THE SUMMER.

"You can't paint pictures," said W. W. Churchill, "unless your heart is in it," and he added a fresh touch of color to the water scene he was painting.

It is a little colony, that " bunch " of artists and art lovers who are studying nature on the shores of Massawepie, Major Dorr, who comes from Boston and is proud of it, is chiefly responsible for this concentration of art on Massawepie.

There could be no guesswork about that picture, no chances offered for high colored flights of imagination, for on the evening of any fair day all he needs to do is to open the door of his studio overlooking the lake to see the ideal reflected in the waters at his feet.

"Oh, yes, I like it immensely here," said he. "We have him pretty well fixed," said Major Dorr, throwing open a door off the studio and disclosing quite a little living apartment.

The greater part of the structure is, of course, given up to the studio, which is supplied with ample light through great windows at the end furthest from the lake.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

utilized by aspirants for presentation at the court of King Edward.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish's Colonial ball on Friday night in many respects was one of the most elaborate affairs ever given in Newport.

Like golfing, horse racing appears to be doomed here. The Rhode Island Jockey Club was launched last year, and was recognized by the National Association.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

more dinner, luncheon and sailing parties on board the yachts, and the landing of the New York Yacht Club was a busy place from noon until well into the evening.

There were several social dinners given on Friday evening, among the entertainers being Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbilt, Mrs. A. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. J. Biddle Porter and Mrs. Daniel Hinchinson.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Mr. Frederick Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. von Gaertner, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Sherman, R. Hall McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Condon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Howard Hinkle, Mrs. Charles E. Green, William G. Park, Mrs. Pearson's guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Horace Gallatin, Commander and Mrs. Rodgers, Captain Bush, Miss Fox, Mr. Milbank, Miss Edith Taylor, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Cushman, Miss de Ruyter, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Emery, Mr. Rollins, Mrs. Platt-Hunt, Miss Godwin, Mr. Watson, Mr. Coster, Mr. Rodgers, Mrs. Hampton, Mr. Hildreth, Mrs. James W. Gerard, Charles How, Mr. Peters, Myron Whitney and Robert Adams.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

MUCH DISCUSSION OVER THE RENOMINATION OF GOVERNOR GAGE—MILTON WILDER DEAD.

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—As the day draws near for the Republican State convention, the discussion over the renomination of Governor Gage becomes more bitter.

Milton Wilder, the veteran railroad man, died this week at Berkeley, in his ninetieth year.

Chow Yu Kwan, the new acting Chinese Consul General at San Francisco, has proved himself a good executive as president of the Sam Yip Association.

Dr. George A. Reinsner, who has been engaged for three years in archeological excavations in Egypt for the University of California, has arrived here for a vacation.

Congressman Watson, of Indiana, made a personal inspection of the Mare Island Navy Yard this week, and expressed much satisfaction over the depth of the water in the channel that leads to the drydock.

Miss Ada Mureutt, the young Australian writer and lecturer, is here on her way to the East. She has explored Japan thoroughly, and recently she spent some time in Manchuria.

A reading room for the adult blind was opened this week in connection with the Free Public Library.

Professor John C. Merriam, of the Department of Paleontology of the University of California, has gone to Limestone Cave, on McCloud River, Shasta County, where his assistant has found the remains of a megatherium and other bones.

To benefit a crippled child, the Settlement Home for Crippled Children, No. 27 West Sixty-ninth-st., Marshall Darrach will present "The Comedy of Errors" at the Waldorf-Astoria on Tuesday evening, August 23.

The first of the regattas of the Bar Harbor Yacht Club occurred on Thursday.

The golf tournament at Kebo on Saturday was won by George Robbins, of New York.

To benefit a crippled child, the Settlement Home for Crippled Children, No. 27 West Sixty-ninth-st., Marshall Darrach will present "The Comedy of Errors" at the Waldorf-Astoria on Tuesday evening, August 23.

The first of the regattas of the Bar Harbor Yacht Club occurred on Thursday.

The golf tournament at Kebo on Saturday was won by George Robbins, of New York.

To benefit a crippled child, the Settlement Home for Crippled Children, No. 27 West Sixty-ninth-st., Marshall Darrach will present "The Comedy of Errors" at the Waldorf-Astoria on Tuesday evening, August 23.

ABOUT MEN AND THINGS.

HE FOUND OUT WHY THE HORSE WAS NAMED ENOCH—LEARNED TO SWIM WHEN HE KNEW HOW—A CLUB INCIDENT.

A member of the United States Geological Survey was telling recently of an experience he had had while on a government business.

"What's the animal's name?" he inquired, as the sale became an accomplished fact and he was about to enter into possession of an animal that resembled a bear or his ability to work is, however, another matter.

Mother, can I go out to swim? Oh, yes, my dear, earlier on a wicker limb, But don't go near the water.

Mothers from time immemorial have acted on this couplet, in so far as the daughters of Eve were concerned, but doubly so where the sons of Adam were in question.

In this town are two clubs, in homes side by side, which bear a certain resemblance to each other.

The club next door, on the other hand, finds the cause for its being in the brain, as its neighbor does in the body.

Some time ago, Westerner here on a visit received a card from a member of the athletic club.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

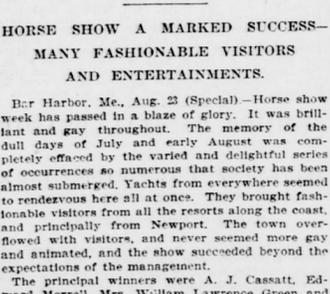

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

COTTAGE OF HENRY G. DORR, CHILDWOLD PARK, IN THE ADIRONDACKS.

COTTAGE OF HENRY G. DORR, CHILDWOLD PARK, IN THE ADIRONDACKS.

GAY WEEK AT BAR HARBOR.

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 22 (Special).—Horse show week is in a blaze of glory. It was brilliant and gay throughout. The memory of the dull days of July and early August was completely effaced by the varied and delightful series of occurrences so numerous that society has been almost submerged.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

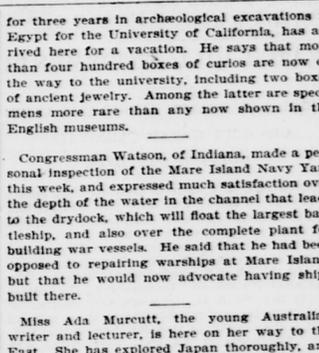

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

Major Dorr is a capital story teller, and never tires of telling of his experiences in the capture of the gold links. Mr. Churchill is an inveterate smoker, and finds almost as much pleasure in his cigarette as in his brush.

W. W. CHURCHILL AT WORK IN HIS ADIRONDACK STUDIO.

W. W. CHURCHILL AT WORK IN HIS ADIRONDACK STUDIO.

A BIT OF LAKE CHAMPLAIN'S SHORE BEFORE THE WESTPORT INN.

A BIT OF LAKE CHAMPLAIN'S SHORE BEFORE THE WESTPORT INN.