

ON TRUSTS AND ARMY.

PRESIDENT SETS HIS VIEWS FORTH CLEARLY.

His words received with great enthusiasm—speeches in New-England cities.

By telegraph to the Tribune.

Dalton, Mass., Sept. 2.—Break down the evil and uphold the good in big corporations. The substance, this is what the President told the people of Massachusetts to-day.

Speech on the trust question. Leaving East Northfield at 8:20 o'clock this morning, the President went first to Miller's Falls and then to Athol, where he remained fifteen minutes and made a brief address.

Some of those who have seen cause for wonder in what I have said this fall on the subject of the great corporations, which are popularly, although with technical inaccuracy, known as trusts.

Referring to the conditions which existed in 1893, the President said: There was no trouble about anybody making too much money then. The trusts were down, but the trouble was that we were all of us down.

There was no trouble about anybody making too much money then.

Rich Kleptomaniac at Work.

He eludes his companion, steals a wallet, and is arrested.

A young man said to be a victim of kleptomaniac was fined $10 in the police court at New-Rochelle yesterday on a charge of picking pockets.

Now, what I am saying ought to be treated as simple, elementary truths. The only reason it is necessary to say them at all is that so many people do not believe them.

Father away, son assaulted.

Young man gagged and left unconscious—two men arrested.

Emilio Toscani, twenty-two years old, who has been in this country only two months, was violently assaulted on Monday at his father's place of business.

Defense of the soldiers.

The President arrived at Springfield at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon, the train being forty minutes late. About 25,000 people filled the streets to see him, cheering enthusiastically.

Mr. Mayor, and you, my fellow-Americans: I thank you from my heart for your greeting, and I know you will not grudge me saying that I did not do anything wrong.

Mystery surrounds drowning.

Coroner banning investigating a death at North Chester may be due to some unwholesome or suicide.

Such mystery surrounds the death of Peter J. Kelly, twenty-two years old, who was found drowned in the North River, off Fox Island, off North Chester, Monday.

Our soldiers in the Philippines have been attacked because occasionally one of them did something wrong.

Our soldiers in the Philippines have been attacked because occasionally one of them did something wrong. Whenever it has been possible to find them out the offenders have been punished.

RALLY AGAINST DEVERLY.

MASS MEETING TO BE HELD IN FRONT OF PEQUOD CLUB TO-NIGHT.

"BIG BILLS" SAILING NOW NOT SO EASY—EFFECT OF MR. PADDOCK'S TALK—THE EX-CHIEF UNABLE TO SPEAK.

Everything is primed and ready for the anti-Deverly mass meeting in front of the Pequod Club house, Twenty-fifth-st. and Eighth-ave., to-night. Thousands of handbills were circulated yesterday in the IXth District, inviting all "decent citizens, who are opposed to Crokerism, Deverlyism, blackmail, crime and corruption" to rally and hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

Deverly is not having the easy sailing now that he had a month ago. His opponents all through the district are waking up to the fight, and from now on he will lose ground.

Frank J. Goodwin, the Tammany district leader, came out boldly against his old helpmeet yesterday, declaring him a bad man, and predicting that Deverly will be beaten at the primaries.

"I have made a careful canvass of the district, and know whereof I speak. The statements of Dr. Paddock regarding this man and his corrupt ways have every one been substantiated by fact.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 2.—The following itinerary of President Roosevelt on his trip to the Southwest was given out to-day:

The President will leave Oyster Bay on the morning of September 5 for Washington. His special train will leave there over the Baltimore and Annapolis line for Wheeling, W. Va., which will be reached on the morning of September 6.

DOG INFORMS OF CHILD'S DEATH. HE AWAKENS HIS MASTER AND LEADS HIM TO THE BODY.

Rebecca Etteman, nine years old, fell to her death yesterday morning in an airshaft between the houses at Nos. 13 and 15 East Fourth-st. That she had been killed might not have been discovered for hours had it not been for an intelligent dog, which gently nipped his master's hands to awaken him.

OCTOGENARIAN DROWNED.

A MEXICAN WAR PENSIONER AND A CIVIL WAR VETERAN LOSES HIS LIFE AT MORRISTOWN.

Morristown, N. J., Sept. 2.—John Murphy, eighty-two years old, who lived in the Whippany Road, was found drowned to-day in a small stream that empties into the Whippany River. Part of the large walk had been torn up in Morrisset, and a large main in its course had been cut out.

DEAN HOFFMAN'S SUCCESSOR.

A CHOICE NOT LIKELY TO BE MADE BEFORE NEXT SPRING.

The church is holding its breath, said a prominent member of the First Episcopal faith yesterday when asked for a successor to the late Dean Hoffman as head of the General Theological Seminary, in Chelsea Square, would be chosen.

W. J. Le Moyne, whose retirement from the stage on account of a serious illness was announced last week, is reported to have almost regained his health.

THE DRAMA.

A JOELY "MRS. JACK."

When "Mrs. Jack" the comedy by Grace Livingston Furness, was first announced one reflected mournfully on the connotation of that title—pink teas, the chatter about art, smartness, and what the vulgar "Sassette." When the play had been produced at Wallack's last night one wished to go forth and announce in a loud voice that "Mrs. Jack" is not that sort of a play.

Miss Furness, in describing "Mrs. Jack" as a comedy, has perhaps stretched the term. Though the piece has plot—the old plot about a codfish that isn't discovered till 10:15 p. m.—and though there is a villain—two villains, in fact—and a hero in love with the heroine, and a whole play a basis probably intended to be in effect a farce.

She was well supported, especially by Thomas Evans, who played the part of a prizefighter, who was going, in dandy's clothes, to teach codfish "swell moaks" at an amateur theatrical.

NO CHOICE IN VERMONT.

THE PEOPLE FAIL TO ELECT A GOVERNOR.

CLEMENT GIVES McCULLOUGH A CLOSE RACE—THE LEGISLATURE LIKELY TO CHOOSE THE REGULAR REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 2.—There is no election by the people for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, as the result of the State election in Vermont to-day. At midnight the returns were not complete, but they indicated that Percival W. Clement, the high license local option candidate, was running close to General John G. McCullough (Rep.) of Bennington. The returns from 200 cities and towns out of 246 give the following vote for Governor:

General John G. McCullough (Rep.), 28,497; Felix W. McCullough (Dem.), 8,112; Percival W. Clement (High License), 23,232; Joel C. Sherburne (Pro.), 2,052.

The best idea of the change in votes in both the Democratic and Republican parties is shown by the comparison with the vote of the same cities and towns in 1900, which gave Sticklemyer (Rep.), 39,695; Senter (Dem.), 14,459; all others, 1,250.

Mr. Clement showed great strength in the large cities, his home town, Rutland, giving him a majority of 1,214 out of a total vote of 1,850. The returns show that General McCullough did not begin to hold the Republican vote, Clement getting his strength from this defection, to which was added, it is said, about half of the total Democratic strength in the State.

The Prohibition vote was heavy for that party. As a majority vote is required to elect, the choice of Governor and Lieutenant Governor is thrown into the General Assembly, which meets on the first Wednesday in October.

David J. Foster, of Burlington (Rep.), is re-elected to Congress in the 1st District, and Kittridge Haskins, of Brattleboro, is re-elected in the 12th District, as the contest at the head of the ticket did not affect the rest of the Republican ticket, both Congressmen securing the usual normal majority.

The remainder of the Republican ticket is as follows: Treasurer, Fonn L. Biron, of Hartford; Secretary of State, F. Flood, of Morristown; Auditor, Horace F. Graham, of Craftsbury.

The election of General McCullough by the legislature seems to be assured, since the great majority of Representatives thus far reported are favorable to him.

DEMOCRATIC SWEEP IN ARKANSAS. Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 2.—Partial returns indicate the election of the Democratic State ticket by a majority ranging from 35,000 to 45,000. Governor Jefferson Davis heads the ticket. Governor Davis carried the home ward of Chairman H. L. Remmet of the Republican State Central Committee, at Newport, went Democratic for the first time in twelve years.

The following Democratic Congressmen were
