

LEADERS STIR UP VOTERS.

By mistake his name got on list to be challenged before registering.

Supreme Court Justice Henry Bischoff was a much surprised and angry man when he arrived at the County Courthouse yesterday to open court.

Justice Bischoff is living at the Hotel Savoy. After breakfast he went to the registration booth at No. 21 East Fifty-ninth-st.

When seen in his chambers the justice said: "It is a fact that I was challenged when I went to register this morning, and I am at a loss to understand it."

"I feel very bad over the affair, and I declined to register or swear in my vote until I had an explanation from Superintendent McCullough.

When I was challenged I inquired of the chairman of the board who was responsible. He replied the challenge was ordered by Superintendent McCullough.

The name of Justice Bischoff was on the list of those whose right to register was questioned by Superintendent McCullough.

While admitting that the registration figures of last week were unsatisfactory, President Morris declared that he had reason to feel assured that the full figures, when they came, would be of a gratifying nature to the Republicans.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

BARRED JUSTICE BISCHOFF.

By mistake his name got on list to be challenged before registering.

Supreme Court Justice Henry Bischoff was a much surprised and angry man when he arrived at the County Courthouse yesterday to open court.

Justice Bischoff is living at the Hotel Savoy. After breakfast he went to the registration booth at No. 21 East Fifty-ninth-st.

When seen in his chambers the justice said: "It is a fact that I was challenged when I went to register this morning, and I am at a loss to understand it."

"I feel very bad over the affair, and I declined to register or swear in my vote until I had an explanation from Superintendent McCullough.

When I was challenged I inquired of the chairman of the board who was responsible. He replied the challenge was ordered by Superintendent McCullough.

The name of Justice Bischoff was on the list of those whose right to register was questioned by Superintendent McCullough.

While admitting that the registration figures of last week were unsatisfactory, President Morris declared that he had reason to feel assured that the full figures, when they came, would be of a gratifying nature to the Republicans.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

REGISTER TO-DAY.

It is the last chance, and every publican who has not enrolled his name should do so.

It is the last chance, and every publican who has not enrolled his name should do so. The election district captains will put forth their best efforts to-day to bring the registration up to normal figures.

The hours for registering are from 7 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night. The registration places are conveniently distributed, and all Republicans who have not done so should register to-day.

There is a potential reason this year which should move the busy man to get his name on the registration books. This law is directly a new law which provides that the jury commissioners in making up their panel shall first use the names of citizens who failed to register at the previous election.

It is a fact that I was challenged when I went to register this morning, and I am at a loss to understand it.

"I feel very bad over the affair, and I declined to register or swear in my vote until I had an explanation from Superintendent McCullough.

When I was challenged I inquired of the chairman of the board who was responsible. He replied the challenge was ordered by Superintendent McCullough.

The name of Justice Bischoff was on the list of those whose right to register was questioned by Superintendent McCullough.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

Table with 3 columns: Assembly District, 1st, 2nd, 3rd. Rows for Manhattan and the Bronx, and Brooklyn.

ESCAPES PRISON BY DEATH.

Mrs. Craddock, who was to be sentenced in United States Court, a suicide.

Mrs. Ida C. Craddock, who was to face sentence in the Federal Court yesterday, having been convicted of sending obscene literature through the mails, was found dead in her room by her mother in the morning.

The woman was tried and convicted of publishing obscene literature by the Justice of the Court in the Island. While there, through her lawyer, Hugh O. Pentecost, she appealed to Governor Odell for special clemency.

When she was released from the Island she was rearrested on the charge of using the mails improperly.

Mrs. Craddock, the dead woman's mother, who lives in Philadelphia, was in the city yesterday to accompany her daughter to court.

But, oh, mother, I will not consent to go to the asylum, as you are evidently planning to have me sent there for a long time.

At the time she was convicted of circulating improper literature she sought aid from several prominent clergymen, and Dr. Rainford and others made pleas in her behalf.

Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 17.—"El Tiempo" comments sharply on the decision of The Hague Tribunal in the matter of the Pious Fund.

The annual letter to voters was sent out yesterday by Tammany Hall. It particularly attacks the present reform administration, which it calls "weak and arrogant."

The Democratic party has entered upon a great contest to prevent the election of the Republican State Assembly.

The importance of this campaign cannot be exaggerated. It is the last chance that will give a great step toward electing a Democratic President.

A mass meeting for Mr. Hearst. A mass meeting under the auspices of William Randolph Hearst, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 11th District, will be held at Madison Square Garden on October 27.

Thomas McAdam, a lawyer of this city, and the eldest son of Justice David McAdam, whose place on the Supreme Court bench was filled after his death by the appointment of Alfred Stecker.

Milk dealers here declare that there is no danger of the retail price of milk being raised.

The retail price of milk being raised. The supply is not so great as in other years at this season owing to the policy adopted by the dairymen.

Milk dealers here declare that there is no danger of the retail price of milk being raised.

The retail price of milk being raised. The supply is not so great as in other years at this season owing to the policy adopted by the dairymen.

Milk dealers here declare that there is no danger of the retail price of milk being raised.

FAMOUS "SPITE HOUSE" SOLD.

Two real estate men buy the narrow Richardson home.

One of the building curiosities of this city was sold yesterday to James Vernon Graham and Charles Reckling, two well known real estate men. The property was Nos. 1,216 and 1,218 Lexington-ave., a four story dwelling house on a lot 5 feet by 102 feet.

It is usually called the Richardson "spite house" which Joseph Richardson, the eccentric and wealthy contractor, built about twenty years ago.

Richardson wished to show, it is said, to an adjoining property owner, who had made every effort to get the Court of Appeals to declare the "spite house" a nuisance.

In 1900 Delafria Grace Richardson sought to have her stepmother Mrs. Emma J. Richardson, the second wife of Joseph Richardson, ousted from the house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

Joseph Richardson, the builder of the "spite house," died in the house on June 8, 1895. As the length was 102 feet, the building appears at first sight to be a handsome dwelling house.

ARGUE ON BARNET LETTERS.

Counsel in Molineux case want ruling, despite court of appeals decision.

Despite the fact that ten of the twelve jurors who will try Roland B. Molineux for the second time were obtained by Thursday, one of the remaining two was seated yesterday.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

John J. Redner, proprietor of Redner's Hotel, Fort-st., and Lexington-ave., was the defendant in the case.

WOULD NOT HOLD PRISONERS.

Magistrate insisted on specific charge—men supposed to be colonizers.

The fifty-two men who were arrested by Central Office detectives on Thursday night, said to be "crooks," were lined up in Police Headquarters early yesterday and looked over by Captain Titus and John McCullough, Superintendent of Elections.

The whole arrests were made in order to prevent the prisoners from protesting against the settlement prevailed about the Essex Market police court when detective sergeants took the prisoners there.

Magistrate insisted on specific charge—men supposed to be colonizers. The fifty-two men who were arrested by Central Office detectives on Thursday night, said to be "crooks," were lined up in Police Headquarters early yesterday and looked over by Captain Titus and John McCullough, Superintendent of Elections.

Magistrate insisted on specific charge—men supposed to be colonizers. The fifty-two men who were arrested by Central Office detectives on Thursday night, said to be "crooks," were lined up in Police Headquarters early yesterday and looked over by Captain Titus and John McCullough, Superintendent of Elections.

Magistrate insisted on specific charge—men supposed to be colonizers. The fifty-two men who were arrested by Central Office detectives on Thursday night, said to be "crooks," were lined up in Police Headquarters early yesterday and looked over by Captain Titus and John McCullough, Superintendent of Elections.

COLER TO REMAIN AT HOME.

Not likely to make speeches in the State—refers to his speech of acceptance.

Bird S. Coler, Democratic candidate for Governor, held a conference with several members of the Democratic State Executive Committee last night in his rooms at the Hoffman House.

Bird S. Coler, Democratic candidate for Governor, held a conference with several members of the Democratic State Executive Committee last night in his rooms at the Hoffman House.

Bird S. Coler, Democratic candidate for Governor, held a conference with several members of the Democratic State Executive Committee last night in his rooms at the Hoffman House.

Bird S. Coler, Democratic candidate for Governor, held a conference with several members of the Democratic State Executive Committee last night in his rooms at the Hoffman House.

Bird S. Coler, Democratic candidate for Governor, held a conference with several members of the Democratic State Executive Committee last night in his rooms at the Hoffman House.

COLER AND HIS $30,000 A YEAR.

Talk about his connection with Trust Companies revived.

Bird S. Coler's connection with trust companies is again a mooted question, now that the roof has tumbled in on the coal strike.

Bird S. Coler's connection with trust companies is again a mooted question, now that the roof has tumbled in on the coal strike.

Bird S. Coler's connection with trust companies is again a mooted question, now that the roof has tumbled in on the coal strike.

Bird S. Coler's connection with trust companies is again a mooted question, now that the roof has tumbled in on the coal strike.

Bird S. Coler's connection with trust companies is again a mooted question, now that the roof has tumbled in on the coal strike.

SARCASTIC ABOUT CANFIELD'S.

Jerome wonders if searchers for evidence range bell and asked for gambler.

Train Attorney Jerome, as he was boarding a train yesterday for Lakeville, Conn., said: "You must expect me to tell you whether a rail is to be made on Canfield's or not."

Train Attorney Jerome, as he was boarding a train yesterday for Lakeville, Conn., said: "You must expect me to tell you whether a rail is to be made on Canfield's or not."

Train Attorney Jerome, as he was boarding a train yesterday for Lakeville, Conn., said: "You must expect me to tell you whether a rail is to be made on Canfield's or not."

Train Attorney Jerome, as he was boarding a train yesterday for Lakeville, Conn., said: "You must expect me to tell you whether a rail is to be made on Canfield's or not."

Train Attorney Jerome, as he was boarding a train yesterday for Lakeville, Conn., said: "You must expect me to tell you whether a rail is to be made on Canfield's or not."

CHAUTAQUA LAKE HOTEL BURNED.

The grand hotel destroyed together with adjacent cottages—loss $200,000.

Jameson, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The Grand Hotel at Point Chautauque, one of the largest and finest hotels on the shores of the Chautauque lake, was burned to the ground at 4 o'clock this morning.

Jameson, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The Grand Hotel at Point Chautauque, one of the largest and finest hotels on the shores of the Chautauque lake, was burned to the ground at 4 o'clock this morning.

Jameson, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The Grand Hotel at Point Chautauque, one of the largest and finest hotels on the shores of the Chautauque lake, was burned to the ground at 4 o'clock this morning.

Jameson, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The Grand Hotel at Point Chautauque, one of the largest and finest hotels on the shores of the Chautauque lake, was burned to the ground at 4 o'clock this morning.

Jameson, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The Grand Hotel at Point Chautauque, one of the largest and finest hotels on the shores of the Chautauque lake, was burned to the ground at 4 o'clock this morning.

THE FIGURES IN QUEENS.

The result of registration in Queens is as follows:

THE FIGURES IN QUEENS.

The result of registration in Queens is as follows:

THE FIGURES IN QUEENS.

The result of registration in Queens is as follows:

THE FIGURES IN QUEENS.

The result of registration in Queens is as follows:

THE FIGURES IN QUEENS.

The result of registration in Queens is as follows: