

TRIAL MAY END TO-DAY.

EX-GOVERNOR BLACK WILL SUM UP FOR MOLINEUX THIS MORNING. This is expected to be the closing day in the second trial of Roland B. Molineux. This evening the case will be in the hands of the jury, it is thought, and Molineux may be a free man again soon after the jurors retire to deliberate on the evidence. This he confidently expects. Ex-Governor Frank S. Black, Bartow S. Weeks and the other lawyers appearing for the defendant are all of the opinion that Molineux will be acquitted. "I am firmly convinced," said Bartow S. Weeks yesterday, "that Molineux will be freed of the accusation made against him."

DR. BANKS DISCUSSES THE CASE.

In his sermon last evening in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rev. Dr. Louis A. Banks said in part: "One young man who is on trial in this city has been for four years sitting in the valley and shadow of a mountain of murder. Another young man connected with the case must have had four very uncomfortable years. These two men have been stripped bare for the public gaze, greatly to the shame and discredit of the men themselves. These men must be aroused to a keener appreciation than ever before of the value of a clean and wholesome record. A man may think his uncleanliness of life is so well hidden that it will never come to light, but no one can quarrel with the fact that the light of God's truth is shining into the lives of these men. It is a secret sin is likely to occur that will hurt a man's soul and his name. It is a secret sin is likely to occur that will hurt a man's soul and his name. It is a secret sin is likely to occur that will hurt a man's soul and his name."

TRIES TO DROWN SUCCORER.

SAILOR COMMITS SUICIDE—SHIPMATE WHO WENT TO RESCUE BARELY SAVED. Edward King, of Queenstown, Ireland, a sailor on the tramp steamer Anglo-Australian, lying at Eighth-st., Jersey City, drowned himself yesterday. He sprang from the bow of the vessel into the river soon after 2 p. m. A cry of "Man overboard" was instantly raised, and Robert Ferguson, another sailor, seizing a life preserver, jumped after King, who seemed to be crazed. He desperately resisted Ferguson's efforts to save him, and not only struck Ferguson in the face, but seized him and tried to drag him under water. Ferguson did not succeed in freeing himself from King's grasp until he was so thoroughly exhausted that his shipmates had great difficulty in saving him.

STANDARD OIL SHOPS BURN.

FIRE DESTROYED THE REPAIR SHOPS OF THE LIGHTERAGE DEPARTMENT OF THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY, AT DIVISION-ST., LONG ISLAND CITY, CAUSING A LOSS OF $30,000. The entire fire fighting force of the Long Island City section of Queens Borough and five engines from Brooklyn, with the fireboats Boody, Havemeyer and Van Wyck, were called on to fight the flames. It was feared that they would spread to the storehouse of a paint manufactory adjoining. The flames shot high into the air and gave forth a dense smoke. A big crowd gathered, and the police reserves from several precincts had to be called to maintain the lines at a safe distance from the fire.

IMPERIAL GUESTS FRIGHTENED.

FIRE IN AN APARTMENT HOUSE PUT OUT BEFORE ENGINES ARRIVE. A small fire on the second floor of the Sloan apartment house, at No. 49 West Thirty-second-st., yesterday caused considerable excitement. The fire broke out in the apartment of John P. Morris, a retired lawyer, in some unknown manner. The appearance of firemen and their engines created considerable alarm among the guests of the Imperial, immediately across the street, which was greatly increased when they saw smoke emerging from the Sloan apartment house. Before the firemen arrived Mr. Morris, with the aid of W. B. Hydecker, had the flame almost out and there was little for the firemen to do. The damage caused by the fire was estimated at about $500.

C. F. U. APPEALS TO POLITICAL LEADERS.

School Commissioner Samuel B. Donnelly, who is delegate of Typographical Union No. 6 to the Central Federated Union, reminded the Central Federated Union yesterday that the Pennsylvania tunnel franchise has not been awarded yet. At his suggestion it was decided to write to Robert C. Morris, president of the Republican County Committee; Charles T. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Robert Fulton, cutting, president of the Citizens Union, asking them to use their influence to have the eight hour workday and arbitration clauses inserted in the contract for the tunnel. These conditions are embodied in the contract for the rapid transit tunnel.

A RUNAWAY IN THE SPEEDWAY.

There was some excitement in the Speedway yesterday when the horse of C. H. Kelly got the better of its driver and dashed down the drive, striking the equipage driven by George H. Huber, proprietor of Huber's Hotel. One hundred-and-sixty-second-st. and Jerome-ave. Mounted Policeman McKesson stopped Kelly's horse at One-hundred-and-eighty-eighth-st.

MR. BELLEW'S WOUNDED HAND.

Kyrle Bellew has injured his hand, and for a time it was feared that it might become a serious wound. It seems that in the scene in "The Gentleman of France" where he fights a duel the counter became too realistic, and he received a cut in the palm of the right hand. The wound became sore, and blood poisoning was feared. A specialist was called, who said there was no danger of complications, though the injury is painful. Mr. Bellew will not be prevented from filing his engagement, though he will be obliged to wear a glove for a time. The company is in Reading, Penn., to-night.

STEAMSHIP WRECKS PIER.

HORATIO HALL SMASHES INTO CANAL. BOAT AND DRIFTS ALMOST TO NAVY YARD. The steamship Horatio Hall, a big freighter of the Maine Steamship Company, Captain Albert Johnson, crashed into the pier at East Eighty-sixth-st. soon after midnight yesterday with a ripping and tearing of lumber and splices that could be heard for blocks, and completely demolished it. So far as could be learned at 2:30 o'clock this morning, no one was injured, although two persons asleep in the cabin of a canalboat moored to the south of the pier were shaken up. The Hall backed or floated out from the dock and upstream with the tide for a short distance, and then steamed down the river to her pier, at Pike-st., East River. There she had much trouble in landing, and after breaking a couple of hawsers and floating over nearly to the navy yard, on the Brooklyn shore, she finally tied up, soon after 2 a. m. She was heavily laden with freight, and a score or so of passengers, and left Chatham Light at 10 a. m. yesterday.

MAKES AMBULANCE OF AUTO.

ARTHUR P. STURGES CARRIES TO HIS HOME CAB DRIVER WHOM HE RUNS DOWN. Arthur P. Sturges, a broker, of No. 36 Park-ave., last night, while riding in his automobile down Park-ave., ran into a hansom cab driven by James J. Mannix, of No. 319 East Forty-first-st. The cab was smashed and the driver was knocked from his box to the street. Sturges and his motorcar were uninjured. The cab horse made a wild break for liberty, with the splintered cab at its heels. Policeman Nash, of the West Thirtieth-st. station, stopped the animal and lifted the partly stunned driver to his feet. When he came to his senses, the driver agreed with Mr. Sturges that the collision had been accidental, and refused to make a charge against the broker.

Hink not returning to the place agreed upon, Mrs. Hink and Frank drove home alone. About 2 o'clock this morning Hink, who had arrived home some time before in an intoxicated condition, began quarrelling with his wife and made an assault on her. She got away and ran outdoors in her night dress, barefooted, and pursued by her husband. He slashed at her with his knife, cutting a slit in her garment. She fell in a ditch and rolled into a clump of fern brakes, where she hid.

DOUKHOBORS ENTRAINED.

WILD STRUGGLE OF FIVE HUNDRED POLICE WITH THE RUSSIAN FANATICS. MINNECOSA, Manitoba, Nov. 9.—After one of the most exciting incidents in the history of the Northwest the Doukhobor fanatics have been forcibly entrained, loaded in cars like cattle, and are now guarded by a large detachment of mounted police, who are kept busy preventing the guarded Russians from throwing themselves from the car windows. A military special of ten coaches left here with the army to unload it at Yorkton to-day, when the mounted police will drive the Doukhobors to their northern villages, ending perhaps the most remarkable experience in Canadian history. The Doukhobors arrived here on Friday night on their way to Winnipeg. They attempted to resume the journey to-day, with the mercury standing at 10 degrees below. Government officials held them with difficulty in the byroad until the military train arrived to-night with five hundred mounted police. The fanatics were addressed by the officials, and told they would have to go home. They cried, "No, we go to seek Jesus!" Zibloff, their leader, harangued his followers, instructing them not to resist.

PASTOR OVERCOME IN PULPIT.

DR. JOHN REID, OF BROOKLYN, ATTACKED BY ACUTE INDIGESTION AND TAKEN HOME UNCONSCIOUS. While reading a hymn at the morning service yesterday, the Rev. Dr. John Reid, pastor of the Memorial Presbyterian Church, Seventh-ave., and St. John's Place, Brooklyn, grew pale suddenly, staggered, and would have fallen had he not been caught by several members of the congregation, who rushed to the platform. He had been suddenly attacked with acute indigestion. It was said last night that he had improved slightly, but was still exceedingly sick.

ONE HOUSE AFIRE IN TWO TOWNS.

PART OF STRUCTURE IN WEST ORANGE AND OTHER HALF IN ORANGE. West Orange, N. J., Nov. 9 (Special).—The home of Patrick Shalloo, in Meade-st., is half in West Orange and half in Orange. Last night Mr. Shalloo's house caught fire on the Orange side, and the firemen from that city were called for to extinguish the blaze. After a while the fire worked over the Orange line into the West Orange side of the house, and some one called the West Orange firemen. With two fire departments the blaze was soon damped out, and each band of firemen went to their quarters satisfied that they had done their duty.

BALL PLAYER SHOT AND ROBBED.

HE PAID NO ATTENTION WHEN POSTOFFICE BURGLARS ORDERED HIM TO HALT. CLEVELAND, Nov. 9.—A special to "The Plaindealer" from Pomeroy, Ohio, says that Harry Alleman, a ball player who pitched in the Southern League this season, and who had signed with Cincinnati for the coming year, was shot and mortally wounded at Mason, W. Va., his home, early this morning. Alleman had been out with friends and was returning in the postoffice. A sentry on the outside ordered Alleman to halt. No attention was paid to the command, and the sentry fired on the bullet entering his back and lodging in the left lung. Physicians said that the wound is fatal. When Alleman fell the robbers took $50 from him.

They receded from their position, however, and the company expects no difficulty in operating cars as proposed.

The crew of the engine jumped and escaped with cuts and bruises, but J. C. Edwards, the express messenger, of Salem, Va., was fatally injured, and his helper, William L. Snyder, of Pearisburg, Va., was killed and his body burned up in a fire which consumed the mail, baggage and express cars, and one passenger coach. The agent, Park, and a flagman named Jones, were badly hurt. Beyond a shaking up none of the passengers were hurt. The freight train had stalled and a flagman was sent ahead, but, owing to a fog the passenger engineer did not see the signal.

WILD STRUGGLE OF FIVE HUNDRED POLICE WITH THE RUSSIAN FANATICS.

MINNECOSA, Manitoba, Nov. 9.—After one of the most exciting incidents in the history of the Northwest the Doukhobor fanatics have been forcibly entrained, loaded in cars like cattle, and are now guarded by a large detachment of mounted police, who are kept busy preventing the guarded Russians from throwing themselves from the car windows. Eklinton, the Quaker, will not now go to the Doukhobors. He will return to Philadelphia.

HOW MONKEY'S COUGH WAS CURED.

A BRIDGEPORT PHYSICIAN THINKS HIS OPERATION ON THE SIMIAN'S BRAIN RELIEVED INCIPENT TUBERCULOSIS. Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 9 (Special).—Through the agency of a monkey, Dr. John C. Lynch, of this city, has succeeded in discovering that the removal of a portion of the brain may be the means of a long step toward conquering tuberculosis. Dr. Lynch is recognized as one of the leading authorities in this section on tuberculosis, and spends a part of each summer abroad in the study of the disease. He had a theory that the brain and the lungs are so intimately connected that by the removal of a section of the brain a cough brought on by an affection of the lungs could be removed. Naturally, it was impossible to prove his theory through the agency of a human being, but when "Professor" Worwood had his troupe of performing monkeys and dogs here at one of the theatres the physician's chance came. The most intelligent monkey in the troupe contracted a cold, which rapidly developed into incipient tuberculosis. The monkey was left behind in the care of the physician, and the rest of the troupe was sent to the circus.

M'CLELLAN FOR MAYOR.

IF MURPHY IS ALLOWED TO DICTATE THE NOMINATION IT WILL GO TO THE CONGRESSMAN. On the old fashioned political basis of give and take, it is expected by the friends of Charles F. Murphy that "Boss" McLaughlin, of Brooklyn, will allow Murphy to name the next Mayorality candidate. Furthermore, if the intimate friends of Murphy know anything about the preferences of their leader, the next Tammany candidate for Mayor will be Congressman George B. McClellan, a long time friend of Murphy. Just now Murphy is trying to hush up all talk of McClellan as a candidate, because he is afraid that his being talked about so long in advance will hurt the congressman's chances. The principal element of uncertainty in the situation is "Tim" Sullivan, who, all things considered, is just as powerful a factor in Tammany Hall as Murphy. "Tim," if he wants to, can make a coalition with McLaughlin and force the nomination of Bird S. Coler. Coler's election would make Sullivan the dictator of Tammany Hall. Incongruous as it may seem, Coler, the moralist, and Sullivan, the friend of the gamblers and dive-keepers, have been friends and political associates for the last four years. Sullivan has not shown his hand yet. Meanwhile the prestige of Murphy as the leader of Tammany Hall is increasing. By next summer, if Sullivan lets him alone, he will have a good grip on the leadership of Tammany Hall. It is a question, however, about "Tim" leaving him alone.

ORGANIZATION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

NIXON WILL PROBABLY BE SPEAKER AGAIN—RAINES FOR LEADER IN THE SENATE. Albany, Nov. 9.—There is already talk about the organization of the State legislature. It is regarded as probable that Senator John Raines, as the oldest Republican Senator in the State, will be selected Republican leader if he desires the position.

BAYONNE'S HIGH TAX RATE.

BAYONNE, Nov. 9 (Special).—A remarkable increase is made in the new tax rate here, just announced at $2.90 on each $100 assessed valuation. Just ten cents under the limit of $3 fixed by law, Bayonne's administration is Democratic, a condition existing for over seven consecutive years. The previous tax rate was $2.68. The amount to be raised for State purposes is the same as last year, but an increase of one point is mandatory for county purposes. The balance is required for other purposes. City authorities explain that they have paid off a maturing bond issue of $45,000 in money, which they set accounts for the large increase in the rate.

CHANCELLOR'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE.

SOUTH ORANGE, Nov. 9 (Special).—It was announced at the official residence of Bishop O'Connor of the Newark diocese here to-day that the body of the Rev. George Doane O'Neill, chancellor of the Newark diocese, who died in Denver last Tuesday, would lie in state in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Newark, from to-night until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when a pontifical requiem mass will be sung by Bishop O'Connor.
