

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE. SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1913.

A LOUIS XVI CABINET.

Reproduced on commission for an American by the firm of H. Bost, of the Piazza S. Trinita, Florence, Italy, from the original example in the National Museum in Florence, Italy.

WORK OF SMALL FOLK.

Pleasing Exhibits Under Auspices of Several Civic Societies.

The assembly room of the University Settlement was the scene of a busy and happy company of workers and visitors yesterday afternoon and evening.

A number of associations more or less allied in the object of their efforts—the City History Club, the League for Political Education, the Public Education Association, Woman's Municipal League, the Women's Auxiliary to the Civil Service Reform Association, the Consumers' League and the New-York Kindergarten Association—are holding a joint exhibition of their work. The walls are draped with flags and bolts of red, white and blue bunting, and the decorative work of the kindergartens and city history clubs is effectively arranged in panels between.

The display of work among the junior classes does great credit to those who inspire and guide their efforts. There is an exhibit, too, of old prints and engravings collected by members of the club, and the club game, played somewhat after the fashion of the old game of authors, giving comparatively complete outlines of the city's life from the beginning to the present.

The kindergarten exhibit of representative work from the twenty-three schools is one of the most interesting, showing the efforts principally of toddlers of three and four years. Especial interest attaches to the fact that it is all free work, entirely independent of suggestion or assistance from the teacher.

It includes everything from the simplest cutting, folding and pleating to the modelling of figures and animals. The various subjects which are treated among the last named, some of the pupils having endeavored to embody their reminiscences of the circus in the figures of the elephants and the lions.

THEY'RE MY BROTHER. I met a slender little maid... "He's my brother."

NOTICE. All letters and packages intended for the T. S. S. should be addressed to The Tribune Sunshine Society, Tribune Building, New York City.

NEW BRANCH. A new branch has been formed in New-Haven by Mrs. Frank B. Walker, State president, called "The Corcoran Club."

EASTER CHEER. If the letters received in acknowledgment of the special Easter cheer sent out from the general office could be printed, they would show the waves of sunshine that flooded the homes of many invalids in the four quarters of the globe.

THANKS FOR SUNSHINE. The Crippled Children's branch gratefully acknowledges a box containing books, toys, Easter eggs, etc., from the general office, also ten dozen buns from Mrs. J. O. A. Miss J. Olmstead, of the South Perry branch.

HER GIFT OF $35,000. Mrs. Hackley Forms Kindergarten Endowment Fund in Memory of Little Daughter.

The Warren Goddard House, which is the Settlement Home of the Friendly Aid Society at Second-ave. and Tenth-st., has just received a generous gift toward the kindergarten branch of its work from Mrs. Frances Hackley, of this city.

AN AFFLICTED ONE. An aged member of the society, who is sick and poor, and who lives alone, has now been taken to the Presbyterian Hospital. She needs a shoulder shawl and a pair of bedroom shoes.

LEFT OVERS. Miss Helen Brockett, of No. 131 Prospect-st., East Orange, N. J., who had charge of the table of invalids' work at the "shut-in" fair in January, writes that the fifteen pairs of bedroom shoes left over were eagerly sought by T. S. S. members.

BRANCH BOX. The Indian children of the Cherokee (N. C.) branch have contributed an express box of pretty things made by themselves to be given as sunshine to others.

Will the Sunshine friend who offered to pass on "The Outlook" please forward it to Miss Laura Avery, Morgantown, N. C.?

IN NEED OF CLOTHING. Will some kindergarten members of The Tribune Sunshine Society send their friends to send, second hand clothes for boys from the ages of six to twelve to the Darrach Home for Crippled Children, at No. 215 West Thirty-third-st.

THE "YAKY YAKS" VS. THE "MONK EASTMANS." These two gangs of ruffians are now waging quite a war on the East Side.

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN. Little boys are always attracted dressed in sailor fashion. The pretty little costume illustrated combines the blouse that slips over the head.

A Tissue Paper Pattern of Boy's Costume, No. 4,404, for 10 Cents.

Advertisement for Crystal Domino Sugar, featuring an illustration of a child in a sailor suit and text describing the product's quality and availability.

Feud in the Five Towns. A Story and an Epilogue.

BY C. A. BENNETT. IN TWO PARTS—PART II.

"If you don't mind, I should like to walk along with you," Clive Timmis said to her one Sunday afternoon in the Bethesda chapel.

"So began the formal courtship—more than a month after Clive had settled in Manhattan. He was far too discreet to engender by precipitancy any suspicion in the haunts of scandal that his true reason for establishing himself in his adopted household was a certain rich young woman who was to be found every day next door."

"Do you mean to say," said Clive, "that Mr. Timmis will actually stick by what he has said?" "Like a dog on a leash," said Clive.

"I saw you from my window, coming up the street," she said, "and I thought I would like to open the door. Will you come into father's room?"

"Dear boy," she said later, "you should have come to see me at my home, and when father was there."

"I'm going out," she said, "and I'll be back in half an hour." "Good-bye," he said, "I'll be back in half an hour."

"I'm going out," she said, "and I'll be back in half an hour." "Good-bye," he said, "I'll be back in half an hour."

"I'm going out," she said, "and I'll be back in half an hour." "Good-bye," he said, "I'll be back in half an hour."

"I'm going out," she said, "and I'll be back in half an hour." "Good-bye," he said, "I'll be back in half an hour."

"I'm going out," she said, "and I'll be back in half an hour." "Good-bye," he said, "I'll be back in half an hour."

CALL FOR A CLOSER UNION. General Assembly for All Bodies of Presbyterian System Proposed.

The question of a closer union of the Dutch Reformed, the United and the Reformed Presbyterian denominations was discussed yesterday at the conference in the Marble Collegiate Church, Fifth-ave. and Twenty-ninth-st.

One general assembly is talked of for the religious bodies in the Presbyterian system. At the same time the present names and organizations would continue. Through a central body it is thought each denomination would be able to do most effectively.

TO UNITE METHODIST INTERESTS. Three Boards to Carry on Benevolent Work of Church.

Cincinnati, April 24.—The commission on consolidation of the benevolent societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church has published in the Methodist weeklies the report to be considered at the next General Conference in Los Angeles.

HALL TO BE IN LONG ISLAND CITY. Purchase of Park Site for Richmond Borough Building Also Decided On.

The determination of the locality for the erection of a borough hall in the Borough of Queens was discussed yesterday by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

TO CORNER SUMMER HOTELS. The annual entertainment for the benefit of the Metropolitan Hospital, Eighty-second-st., between Second and Third aves., will be held this evening of Sunday, May 1st, at the Herald Square Theatre.

FOR THE METROPOLITAN HOSPITAL. The annual entertainment for the benefit of the Metropolitan Hospital, Eighty-second-st., between Second and Third aves., will be held this evening of Sunday, May 1st, at the Herald Square Theatre.

APPEALS FOR AID. Instead of giving the usual entertainment the past winter to raise money for the work, the New-York City Woman's Aid to the George Junior Republic at Freeville, N. Y., appears to its friends public.

Advertisement for Spring-cleaning, featuring text about Scarlet Fever, Diphtheria, and Typhoid, and promoting a reliable disinfectant.