

About People and Social Incidents.

Index to Advertisements.

Table with 3 columns: Advertisements, Page, Col. Includes categories like Automobiles, Bankers and Brokers, Books, Business, etc.

New-York Daily Tribune.

SUNDAY, MAY 24, 1903. THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

FOREIGN.—A great demonstration of labor and Nonconformist parliamentarians against the Great Exhibition was held at Hyde Park.

DOMESTIC.—President Roosevelt took a trip on Puget Sound, inspected the Bremerton navy yard and visited the Castle of the Postoffice Department.

CITY.—Stocks were weak with sharp net losses. Richard A. Canfield returned from London and appeared before Judge McMahon.

We desire to remind our readers who are about to leave the city that The Tribune will be sent by mail to any address in this country or abroad.

THE STRENGTH OF TAMMANY.

As the municipal election approaches speculation on the chance of beating Tammany again begins to be frequently heard.

There is no more deleterious tone of "superiority" than that which is communicated to certain minds by a course of Emerson.

Emerson's oration was more disjointed than usual, even with him. It began nowhere and ended everywhere, and yet, as always with that divine man, it left you feeling that something beautiful had passed that way—something more beautiful than anything else.

The hundredth anniversary of Emerson's birth is celebrated to-morrow. To recall that he died only twenty-one years ago is to be struck at once by his nearness to us in point of time, and by the great range of development in American conditions embraced within the limits of his career.

What has Emerson done for his readers? One answer to the first question lies upon the surface, and, as often happens in such cases, it must be received with caution.

Exhaustive experiments and thorough firing tests seem to have shown that the new Springfield rifle designed by the Ordnance Department will be adopted for use by the army, navy and marine corps.

Croatia used to be called the Ireland of Hungary, but in these days of peace and good will between the Celt and Sassenach such nomenclature would be unjust and offensive to Ireland.

Croatia is to be called the Ireland of Hungary, but in these days of peace and good will between the Celt and Sassenach such nomenclature would be unjust and offensive to Ireland.

There is no more deleterious tone of "superiority" than that which is communicated to certain minds by a course of Emerson.

Emerson's oration was more disjointed than usual, even with him. It began nowhere and ended everywhere, and yet, as always with that divine man, it left you feeling that something beautiful had passed that way—something more beautiful than anything else.

The hundredth anniversary of Emerson's birth is celebrated to-morrow. To recall that he died only twenty-one years ago is to be struck at once by his nearness to us in point of time, and by the great range of development in American conditions embraced within the limits of his career.

What has Emerson done for his readers? One answer to the first question lies upon the surface, and, as often happens in such cases, it must be received with caution.

Exhaustive experiments and thorough firing tests seem to have shown that the new Springfield rifle designed by the Ordnance Department will be adopted for use by the army, navy and marine corps.

Croatia used to be called the Ireland of Hungary, but in these days of peace and good will between the Celt and Sassenach such nomenclature would be unjust and offensive to Ireland.

Croatia is to be called the Ireland of Hungary, but in these days of peace and good will between the Celt and Sassenach such nomenclature would be unjust and offensive to Ireland.

At the White House. Washington, May 23 (Special).—Mrs. Roosevelt will remain in Washington until the middle of June.

The real purpose of the Croats, or of the extremists among them, is secession from the kingdom and the creation of a new Slavic kingdom under the protection of Russia.

The committee under whose directions the City Hall Park has been decorated for the celebration which begins to-day was delicately complimentary to a large part of the metropolitan population by placing a row of Venetian poles in the most conspicuous place of the park.

Tests of autotrucks in city streets may yield results of value. The first and most important need of metropolitan transportation, however, is the relief of the strap-hangers.

Young Richard Croker has gone into business as the partner in a firm of stock brokers. His contribution toward the firm's capital was $100,000, a mere trifle for a man whose father was the Boss of New-York before he became a resident of Wantage.

Anti-Russian agitation in America is not "fomented by the English press," as the Russian officials pretend to think, but has its substantial ground in other causes, one of them being the constant oppression and frequent slaughter of Jews without regard to age, sex or condition.

Visitors to Washington will recall the bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln in the centre of Lincoln Park. It was purchased with a fund raised by former slaves to commemorate their liberator.

The questioning of candidates on the hustings—"heckling" as it is called in common in England—in this country, where the friendly audience will not tolerate any interruptions, a "heckler" drew an unexpected answer out of Mr. Renshaw.

I am thankful that the sun and moon are both hung up so high. They're reforming and can't reach to take them from the sky.

A correspondent of "The Rochester Post-Express" tells a story of a certain justice of the Supreme Court of that district who is very fond of sailing.

At the White House. Washington, May 23 (Special).—Mrs. Roosevelt will remain in Washington until the middle of June.

The real purpose of the Croats, or of the extremists among them, is secession from the kingdom and the creation of a new Slavic kingdom under the protection of Russia.

The committee under whose directions the City Hall Park has been decorated for the celebration which begins to-day was delicately complimentary to a large part of the metropolitan population by placing a row of Venetian poles in the most conspicuous place of the park.

Tests of autotrucks in city streets may yield results of value. The first and most important need of metropolitan transportation, however, is the relief of the strap-hangers.

Young Richard Croker has gone into business as the partner in a firm of stock brokers. His contribution toward the firm's capital was $100,000, a mere trifle for a man whose father was the Boss of New-York before he became a resident of Wantage.

Anti-Russian agitation in America is not "fomented by the English press," as the Russian officials pretend to think, but has its substantial ground in other causes, one of them being the constant oppression and frequent slaughter of Jews without regard to age, sex or condition.

Visitors to Washington will recall the bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln in the centre of Lincoln Park. It was purchased with a fund raised by former slaves to commemorate their liberator.

The questioning of candidates on the hustings—"heckling" as it is called in common in England—in this country, where the friendly audience will not tolerate any interruptions, a "heckler" drew an unexpected answer out of Mr. Renshaw.

I am thankful that the sun and moon are both hung up so high. They're reforming and can't reach to take them from the sky.

A correspondent of "The Rochester Post-Express" tells a story of a certain justice of the Supreme Court of that district who is very fond of sailing.

lowed by tea and music. Bernardsville has what is known as a cold English luncheon for those who come out on the morning train to play golf at the club.

Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, who has been ill at her home in East Sixtieth-st., is now on the road to recovery, and on the completion of her convalescence will leave town for the old Dimock homestead at South Coventry, Conn.

Miss Leary has issued invitations for a large dinner party on Thursday evening next at her home in Fifth-ave. for Countess Albert Della Marini.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seton, who are spending the summer abroad, have rented their house in West Thirty-eighth-st. to John C. Eno, who has been living with his family at the Waldorf-Astoria for some years.

Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., who is reported to have had such an unfortunate experience in London in connection with the robbery of her jewelry, is to return to this country in the first week in June.

The Lenox season will begin with Memorial Day, although many of the cottagers will remain in the Berkshires only during the month of June, going to Newport and to the seaside in July, and returning for the autumn.

Yesterday there was a large fleet of pleasure craft on the Sound in the wake of the Reliance, the Constitution and the Columbia.

To-morrow will begin the series of polo matches at Meadow Brook. This will be the signal for much entertaining in the hay little colony around Hempstead.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Vaughan Lea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lea, to Percy K. Hudson, will take place on Wednesday at Wayne, Penn. It will be followed by a reception at the country place of the parents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer, whose daughter Adelaide is to make her debut next winter, leave town for Barbary Point, Islip, Long Island, on June 1, and will remain at their villa there until they go to Palmer Hill, their place near Stamford, Conn., in September.