

OHIO FOR ROOSEVELT. CONTROVERSY ENDED.

While President's Friends Praise His Attitude, Hanna Yields. The controversy over the endorsement of President Roosevelt by the Ohio Republican State Convention was ended yesterday.

AS FORAKER VIEWS IT. President's Statement a Complete Answer to Hanna.

Washington, May 26.—Senator Foraker said today that he regarded the President's statement published this morning as a complete answer to Senator Hanna's assertion that Mr. Roosevelt would prefer that the Ohio convention defer its endorsement of himself as a Presidential candidate for a year.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT PRAISED. The friends of President Roosevelt in Washington are delighted with his prompt and fearless utterance.

The friends of President Roosevelt in Washington are delighted with his prompt and fearless utterance. There is, they say, nothing equivocal about his simple and straightforward declaration practically that "the who is not with me is against me."

MINNESOTA WILL BE IN LINE. Solid Roosevelt Delegation in National Convention Promised.

Minneapolis, May 26.—According to Robert Jamison, of St. Paul, chairman of the Republican State Committee, the Minnesota delegation to the next Republican National Convention will be undivided for President Roosevelt's nomination.

QUAY TO QUIT POLITICS? Absence from State Convention Said to Mean Retirement.

Harrisburg, Penn., May 26.—There is absolute harmony in the Republican party, which will hold its convention here to-morrow. The programme, as prepared by the leaders, will be carried out to the letter.

"THE NEXT UTTERANCE." Hanna Will Not Oppose Indorsement of Roosevelt.

Cleveland, May 26.—Senator Hanna has decided to offer no further opposition to a resolution in the coming Republican State Convention endorsing the candidacy of President Roosevelt for another term.

HUNDREDS HOMELESS. LAONIA, N. H., FIRESWEPT

Scores of Families Without Shelter—Loss Placed at $400,000. Laconia, N. H., May 26.—A city in darkness to-night, nearly one hundred buildings burned, 350 persons made homeless and a loss of between $300,000 and $400,000 is the story of a great fire here this afternoon.

HARMONY RESTORED. Foraker Says Both Roosevelt and Hanna Will Be Indorsed.

Washington, May 26.—When the dispatch announcing that Senator Hanna would not oppose an indorsement of President Roosevelt at the coming Ohio State Convention was shown to Senator Foraker to-night he dictated the following statement:

GROSVENOR ALWAYS FOR ROOSEVELT. But Does Not Believe in Stirring Up a Factional Quarrel.

Cincinnati, May 26.—Congressman Charles H. Grosvenor, who has been considered one of President Roosevelt's most active partisans, was in Cincinnati to-day arguing a case before Judge Thompson in the United States court.

PLEDGES NEBRASKA TO ROOSEVELT. Republican State Committee Indorses the Administration.

Lincoln, Neb., May 26.—The Republican State Central Committee to-day selected Lincoln, August 18, for holding the State convention. A resolution was adopted indorsing the administration of President Roosevelt, and pledging him the support of the party in Nebraska.

JUDGE NOW SLEEPS ON THE LAWN. Dispossessed of His House—He Declines to Leave the Place.

Stamford, Conn., May 26.—David L. Vanderheyden, known as Judge from the fact that he was for a long time Justice of the Peace here, has been dispossessed by J. D. Sawyer and Louis Regent, who have bought his home from the mortgagees.

ELECTION DAY IN PENTECOST. The Maryland Senator Lets It Be Known That He Favors Financial Legislation.

Baltimore, May 26.—It was stated in financial circles here to-day that Senator Gorman would certainly take a hand in the movement to secure financial legislation from Congress, and that the Democratic opposition, which prevented the last session of Congress from passing the legislation.

ROBS G. H. MORGAN. Work of Clever Crook—Articles of Value Taken—Some Recovered.

A clever thief, in the guise of a servant, sometime between Sunday and Monday nights robbed the house of George H. Morgan, at No. 6 East Fortieth-st., of bric-a-brac, silverware and objects of art, valued at several thousand dollars.

ARTICLES OF ANTIQUITY TAKEN. Included in the stolen articles were pieces of bric-a-brac, silverware, rare bits of china and small works of art, such as statuettes, clocks, gold and silver cups of ancient design and manufacture.

Many of the stolen articles had been picked up by Mr. Morgan in the twenty-five years he has been collecting works of art. Many of the objects would not appear valuable to one unfamiliar with antiques, but their value and rarity would appeal at once to the connoisseur.

"BEEF TRUST" LOSES CASE. Judge Grosscup Enters Order Restraining Combination.

Chicago, May 26.—Judge Grosscup, in the Federal Court, to-day entered the final order in the so-called "Beef Trust" case, restraining the packers from combining to regulate the trade. The order covers all the points in the previous decision, and is regarded as a complete victory for the government.

ACCUSED CLUB MEMBER. Coachman Said He Thought Ardsley Man Shot Him.

Dr. Robert Dennison, of Dobbs Ferry, said last night at the inquest in Irvington into the death of John Heffernan, coachman of Max E. Sands:

GREAT NEGRO EXODUS PLANNED. Boston Society Would Take All Blacks from the South.

Boston, May 26.—Plans have been completed by a secret organization with headquarters in Boston for a great negro exodus from the South. The originator of the society, numbering five hundred members, is the Rev. J. Henry Dumbley, of Cambridge.

THE MARYLAND SENATOR LETS IT BE KNOWN THAT HE FAVORS FINANCIAL LEGISLATION.

Baltimore, May 26.—It was stated in financial circles here to-day that Senator Gorman would certainly take a hand in the movement to secure financial legislation from Congress, and that the Democratic opposition, which prevented the last session of Congress from passing the legislation.

THE CITY ABLAZE WITH LIGHTS. NATION AND STATE HELP CELEBRATE NEW-YORK'S 250TH ANNIVERSARY.

Many Prominent Men at Ceremony in City Hall—A Mighty Host of School Children Celebrate. The official celebration of the city's 250th anniversary was attended yesterday at the City Hall by nearly every man of prominence in the city government and by prominent representatives of the federal and State governments.

MYRIAD LIGHTS GLEAM. SERVICES IN CITY HALL. Skyscrapers a Brilliant Spectacle—General Wilson Urges Erection of Suitable Monument to Hudson.

The illumination of buildings in the city last evening, in response to Mayor Low's request, was an effective and pleasing form of celebrating the city's 250th anniversary. The display of myriad lights from sunset to 10 p. m. proved to be a delightful spectacle to many thousands of New-Yorkers who walked or rode along the principal streets to take observations.

TRIES TO ROB COL. DUVAL'S HOUSE. Man Who Was Behind Grating Arrested—Confederate Escapes.

An attempt to rob the house of Colonel Henry R. Duval, at No. 26 West Twenty-first-st., was believed to have been made at 1 o'clock this morning, when a man, who afterward described himself as John Burke, a porter, living at No. 646 Second-ave., was discovered by Patrolman Geary inside the grating in front of the house.

MAD DOG BITES FOUR. All Are Children Living Near East Broadway—Animal Escapes.

Four children were bitten by one or two mad dogs in the East Broadway district of the city yesterday afternoon. It is generally believed there was only one dog. Those bitten are: Samuel Serchuck, five years old, of No. 74 Henry-st., bitten on the leg; Ettie Pollak, seven years old, of No. 181 Madison-st., bitten on the leg; Lorretta Austin, three years old, of No. 82 Jefferson-st., bitten on the right eye and on the right cheek, and Mashim Kaufman, two years old, of No. 106 Monroe-st., bitten on the leg.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM EUROPE. One of the Messages From the Lord Mayor of York.

Mayor Low yesterday received several messages by cable, congratulating this city on its 250th anniversary. One of the messages was signed "Monksweary, chairman," and read:

THE THREE LIMITEDS. Pennsylvania Railroad's New Fast Train Service to Chicago and St. Louis. Consult ticket agents—Adv.

All the great trains of the Middle West connect with the New York Central lines. Superior dining service on all through trains—Adv.

THE CITY ABLAZE WITH LIGHTS. NATION AND STATE HELP CELEBRATE NEW-YORK'S 250TH ANNIVERSARY.

Many Prominent Men at Ceremony in City Hall—A Mighty Host of School Children Celebrate. The official celebration of the city's 250th anniversary was attended yesterday at the City Hall by nearly every man of prominence in the city government and by prominent representatives of the federal and State governments.

MYRIAD LIGHTS GLEAM. SERVICES IN CITY HALL. Skyscrapers a Brilliant Spectacle—General Wilson Urges Erection of Suitable Monument to Hudson.

The illumination of buildings in the city last evening, in response to Mayor Low's request, was an effective and pleasing form of celebrating the city's 250th anniversary. The display of myriad lights from sunset to 10 p. m. proved to be a delightful spectacle to many thousands of New-Yorkers who walked or rode along the principal streets to take observations.

TRIES TO ROB COL. DUVAL'S HOUSE. Man Who Was Behind Grating Arrested—Confederate Escapes.

An attempt to rob the house of Colonel Henry R. Duval, at No. 26 West Twenty-first-st., was believed to have been made at 1 o'clock this morning, when a man, who afterward described himself as John Burke, a porter, living at No. 646 Second-ave., was discovered by Patrolman Geary inside the grating in front of the house.

MAD DOG BITES FOUR. All Are Children Living Near East Broadway—Animal Escapes.

Four children were bitten by one or two mad dogs in the East Broadway district of the city yesterday afternoon. It is generally believed there was only one dog. Those bitten are: Samuel Serchuck, five years old, of No. 74 Henry-st., bitten on the leg; Ettie Pollak, seven years old, of No. 181 Madison-st., bitten on the leg; Lorretta Austin, three years old, of No. 82 Jefferson-st., bitten on the right eye and on the right cheek, and Mashim Kaufman, two years old, of No. 106 Monroe-st., bitten on the leg.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM EUROPE. One of the Messages From the Lord Mayor of York.

Mayor Low yesterday received several messages by cable, congratulating this city on its 250th anniversary. One of the messages was signed "Monksweary, chairman," and read:

THE CITY ABLAZE WITH LIGHTS. NATION AND STATE HELP CELEBRATE NEW-YORK'S 250TH ANNIVERSARY.

Many Prominent Men at Ceremony in City Hall—A Mighty Host of School Children Celebrate. The official celebration of the city's 250th anniversary was attended yesterday at the City Hall by nearly every man of prominence in the city government and by prominent representatives of the federal and State governments.

MYRIAD LIGHTS GLEAM. SERVICES IN CITY HALL. Skyscrapers a Brilliant Spectacle—General Wilson Urges Erection of Suitable Monument to Hudson.

The illumination of buildings in the city last evening, in response to Mayor Low's request, was an effective and pleasing form of celebrating the city's 250th anniversary. The display of myriad lights from sunset to 10 p. m. proved to be a delightful spectacle to many thousands of New-Yorkers who walked or rode along the principal streets to take observations.

TRIES TO ROB COL. DUVAL'S HOUSE. Man Who Was Behind Grating Arrested—Confederate Escapes.

An attempt to rob the house of Colonel Henry R. Duval, at No. 26 West Twenty-first-st., was believed to have been made at 1 o'clock this morning, when a man, who afterward described himself as John Burke, a porter, living at No. 646 Second-ave., was discovered by Patrolman Geary inside the grating in front of the house.

MAD DOG BITES FOUR. All Are Children Living Near East Broadway—Animal Escapes.

Four children were bitten by one or two mad dogs in the East Broadway district of the city yesterday afternoon. It is generally believed there was only one dog. Those bitten are: Samuel Serchuck, five years old, of No. 74 Henry-st., bitten on the leg; Ettie Pollak, seven years old, of No. 181 Madison-st., bitten on the leg; Lorretta Austin, three years old, of No. 82 Jefferson-st., bitten on the right eye and on the right cheek, and Mashim Kaufman, two years old, of No. 106 Monroe-st., bitten on the leg.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM EUROPE. One of the Messages From the Lord Mayor of York.

Mayor Low yesterday received several messages by cable, congratulating this city on its 250th anniversary. One of the messages was signed "Monksweary, chairman," and read:

EVERY MAN WANTS MAP OF MANHATTAN. Greener, Commercial Agent of the United States and "Advertiser," has been selected to publish a map of Manhattan Island. A copy will be mailed on receipt of five cents in stamps by G. S. Daniels, C. F. A., New York—Adv.