CORNELL TALKS OF TROUBLE.

J. M. Cornell, president of the Iron League, against whom "Sam" Parks announced that he was waging war, discussed the situation yesterday.

ARMY OFFICERS EXONERATED.

The fact that a member of Congress was an active manager of a firm which made large sales of gloves and gauntlets to contractors with the Quartermaster's Department should have caused the articles procured to be scrutinized with a degree of diligence measured by the likelihood of an attempted violation of the statute.

TO GIVE BAIL FOR RUNKLE.

It is understood that Franklin Runkle, the senior counsel for Maurice Runkle in connection with the indictment found against him in Washington in the postoffice conspiracy cases, has arranged with the United States District Attorney of this city to give bail for Mr. Runkle as soon as the warrant arrives in this city, and will also demand an examination before a United States commissioner here.

MAYOR CUPPER GIVES $10,000 BAIL.

Washington, Aug. 3.—John T. Cupper, Mayor of Lock Haven, Penn., who was indicted by the grand jury here on Friday, in connection with postal irregularities, appeared in the District Supreme Court to-day and gave bail in $10,000.

THIEVES IN EXECUTIVE MANSION.

Governor Terrell loses Panama Hat, Cigars, Trousers and Cash. Atlanta, Aug. 3.—In an early hour this morning thieves broke into the Executive Mansion and secured a good haul, including among other things a $50 Panama hat, which had been Governor Terrell's prize, several boxes of Havana cigars and the Governor's trousers, which contained a good round sum, as he had just cashed his monthly pay check.

PITTSBURG LOCKOUT ON.

Work Stopped on Nearly Every Building Contract in the City. Pittsburgh, Aug. 3.—As a result of the Builders' League lockout eighteen thousand men were out of employment at noon to-day. The only men not affected by the lockout are the painters, paperhangers and decorators.

MISS GOULD MAY SETTLE STRIKE.

Requested to Act as Arbitrator in the Paper Mill Dispute in Holyoke. Holyoke, Mass., Aug. 3.—The good offices of Miss Helen Gould as arbitrator in the Holyoke strike of the paper mill operatives have been requested. Miss Nell Boland, of the Pulp and Sulphite Workers, has sent a petition to Miss Gould.

MURPHY'S BROTHER-IN-LAW TAKEN.

Charged with Contempt of Court Because He Did Not Answer Subpoena. William F. Howe, a brother-in-law of Lawrence Murphy, the convicted ex-treasurer of the Journeyman Stonecutters' Union, was arrested yesterday by Detective Sergeant McNaughton on a bench warrant charging him with contempt of court. He was committed to the Tombs by Recorder Goff.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR MAY TAKE A HAND.

General Master Workman Hayes Here. General Master Workman John W. Hayes, of the Knights of Labor, has come here from Washington to visit the local and district assemblies. One of these, Building Construction District No. 23, takes in building trades, and at one time practically controlled these trades. It is believed that the district will try to take advantage of the present condition of affairs in the building industry to regain its control of the building trades, at least in a measure.

STRIKE AT HAT FACTORIES ENDED.

South Norwalk, Conn., Aug. 3.—The hat factories in South Norwalk, which were idle last week on account of a strike, resumed operations to-day, the employers having signed the new bill of prices for the coming year. The men returned to work under the same conditions that existed previous to the dispute.

LAND BILL IN LORDS.

Some Opposition Shown—Duke of Devonshire's Speech. London, Aug. 3.—The Duke of Devonshire moved the second reading of the Irish Land bill in the House of Lords to-day. He used arguments in favor of the necessity for passing the measure similar to those previously made by George Wyndham, the Chief Secretary for Ireland, in the House of Commons.

REBELION PREDICTED.

Another Outbreak in Philippines Said To Be Near. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Victoria, B. C., Aug. 3.—W. C. Deering, of Chicago, who was a passenger on the steamer Tacoma from the Orient, said in an interview given here that, although the people in the United States might regard the war in the Philippines as a thing of the past, he learned that the probabilities were that another outbreak would take place there. He said:

From what I learned I can tell you that the insurgents are organizing and busily drilling in sections of the islands. They are being drilled by many American deserters from the American army in the islands, mostly blacks, and also by broken down British and German army men, adventurers who have drifted to the islands from the China coast.

ARMS TO ENTER CHINA.

Belief That Each Power Will Revoke the Prohibition. Berlin, Aug. 3.—The "North German Gazette" to-day prints at the head of its columns a statement regarding the negotiations at Peking for the renewal of the prohibition of the importation of arms into China. The semi-official organ admits that the representatives of the powers failed to reach an agreement to insist on a renewal of the two years' prohibition, which expired on August 25. It assumes that the idea of an agreement has been tacitly dropped, and that each power will revoke its special order establishing the prohibition.

MINISTERS MAY NOT AGREE.

Foreign Representatives Unable to Agree on Right to Protect an Editor. Peking, Aug. 3.—The question has arisen among the foreign ministers whether they have jurisdiction on Shanghai in the case of the editor and staff of the Chinese reform newspaper "Supao," published in that city, against whom warrants of arrest have been issued by the Taotai of Shanghai on the charge of publishing seditious matter. The Russian, French and American ministers are in favor of surrendering the reformers, while it is understood that the British Minister is opposed to taking this step, and is awaiting instructions from London.

WILL NOT TALK POLITICS.

Not To Be Discussed by Him, Mr. Cleveland Says, at Chicago Commercial Club. Chicago, Aug. 3.—James H. Eckels, who extended the invitation to ex-President Cleveland on behalf of the Commercial Club to be the club's guest next October, has received a letter from Mr. Cleveland definitely fixing the date as the 14th. In the course of the letter, alluding to the report that had been spread that he would discuss politics in his after dinner speech, Mr. Cleveland says:

KANSAS RIVERS RISING.

Much Damage Done in Lawrence by Swift Current. Abilene, Kan., Aug. 3.—The Smoky Hill River has risen six feet in the last twenty-four hours, and continues to rise. Manhattan, Kan., Aug. 3.—Both the Blue and Kaw rivers here are still rising. Several hundred feet of track of the Union Pacific road west of Brookville have been washed out, and washouts just east of here have caused Rock Island trains to run over Union Pacific tracks.

ITALIANS SHOW FIGHT IN BUFFALO.

Forty-five Men Arrested for Rioting, and the Leaders Are Held. Buffalo, Aug. 3.—A riot broke out in front of the Niagara Elevator, in Ohio-st., to-day, and as a result forty-five Italians are under arrest and detectives are looking for others. No one was hurt, although scores of shots were exchanged. The fight took place between employees of the Niagara Elevator and Italians who were employed at the plant of the Buffalo Union Furnace Company. It is said that the riot was provoked by an employee of the Niagara Elevator, who called the Italians names as they were passing by.

SCULPTOR MISSING.

Girl Disappears at the Same Time—Family Will Forgive Him If He Returns. Alois G. Buysens, a sculptor, who has done much work for the Tiffany Studios, and who has a studio at No. 32 Fifth-ave., has disappeared from his home at No. 43 West 109th-st. and is believed to have fled to New York. It was said last night at the house that the family did not know where he was now staying.

AGENT OF HONDURAS COMING.

Will Try to Settle Trouble Over Railway Seized by His Government. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] New-Orleans, Aug. 3.—Dr. Agate Ugarte, a member of the Honduran Congress and Justice of the Supreme Court, passed through here Monday on his way to New-York as the special agent of Honduras in the settlement of the controversy arising over the recent seizure of the railroad leased to an American syndicate, of which Senator Dewey is president. Washington Valentine, who has been the special agent of the American syndicate in Honduras, is accompanying Dr. Ugarte, as is also the doctor's brother, Señor Rafael Ugarte.

HAWAIIANS TRYING TO ADD TO TRADE.

Honolulu, Aug. 3.—The citizens of Honolulu are determined to do all within their power to promote immigration to the islands. The Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce will advertise the advantages of Hawaii to the outside world, besides making efforts to add to the comfort of visitors here.

TOWN IN ASIA MINOR BURNED.

Constantinople, Aug. 3.—A fire has devastated the town of Armean, in the vilayet of Adana, Asia Minor. The mosque, the other public buildings, four hundred shops and sixty houses were destroyed. The population is in a state of great distress and a relief fund has been started.

PORTUGUESE GUESTS.

Military and Civil Officers at Luncheon on the Brooklyn. Lisbon, Aug. 3.—Shortly after noon to-day the members of the Portuguese Cabinet and the military and civil authorities here, the former in dress uniform and the latter in frock coats, went in naval barges across the harbor to the Brooklyn. Rear Admiral Cotton and the United States Minister, Mr. Bryan, with the chief officers of the American squadron, received the guests at the gangway. The band of the Brooklyn played Portuguese airs, and the American warships flew the Portuguese flag at their mainmasts.
