

About People and Social Incidents.

NEW-YORK SOCIETY.

As already announced in this column, the coaching season begins to-day with the inaugural run of the road coach of Equador A between the Savoy Hotel and the polo grounds at Van Cortlandt Park. The runs will be made three days a week until further notice, the coach starting at 3 and reaching the hotel on its return journey about 7 p. m.

Howard Willets has returned from Nantucket, Mass., to Gedy Farm, his place near White Plains, N. Y.

Dr. and Mrs. Isaac L. Kip have arrived in town from the White Mountains, and will go next week to Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Stuyvesant, who have been spending the summer at Tranquility Farms, the Rutherford place at Allamuchy, N. J., sail for Europe early next month, when Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Rutherford, who are now staying with Mrs. Rutherford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi P. Morton, at their camp in the Adirondacks, will take up their residence at Tranquility Farms.

Major and Mrs. Charles Hall sail for England on Tuesday. Mrs. Hall formerly was Mrs. C. Albert Stevens.

George J. Gould leaves town next week for a trip in the West in connection with the various railroads in which he is interested. He will be accompanied by his two sons, Kingston and Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hollins return to town to-day from Islip, where they have been spending the summer, and will open their house in West Fifty-sixth-st. for the winter.

Frederic de Pryster Home, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Home, of No. 5 Gramercy Park, was married the day before yesterday at Lyons Falls, N. Y., to Miss Carolyn Augusta Merriam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Merriam, at Florissant, the latter's country place. Miss Helen Merriam officiated as maid of honor, while John Home, Jr., was best man.

Announcement is made from Albany of the engagement of Miss Lucy Washington Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster B. Morris, of Albany, to Renwick Clifton Hurry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Abby Hurry, of No. 113 East Thirty-eighth-st. Miss Morris is a descendant of Samuel Washington, brother of George Washington.

Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, who is at her house, in East Fifty-sixth-st., leaves town next week for Hot Springs, Va.

Among those seen in town yesterday at the fashionable restaurant and on the Avenue were Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Daniel S. Riker, Mrs. Eugene S. Reynal, Mrs. Daniel T. Worden and Mrs. George R. Sheldon, who, however, will remain at her country place at Glen Cove for some time longer before returning to town for the winter.

NOTES FROM NEWPORT.

Newport, R. I., September 11 (Special).—Mrs. Astor, the second in the series, will be given to-morrow evening at the Casino. The automobile race which was to have taken place to-day between William Payne Thompson and Peter D. Martin has been postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillhouse, who have been occupying the Knight cottage, in Bellevue-ave., for several seasons, have leased the cottage for the summer of 1904.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont have closed Bellecourt and gone to New-York.

Baron de Rothschild, of Paris, and Percy Wyndham, of the British Embassy, left here to-day on a hunting trip to New-Brunswick.

Edward O. Walcott entertained at dinner to-night at Finsard Cottage No. 4.

On to-morrow, the third anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. T. Shaw Safe, an outing will be given to the poor children of Newport, as guests of Mrs. Safe. The trip will include a ride to Island Park, dinner, games and prizes, and late in the afternoon the children will return to Newport and a souvenir will be given to each one.

A WEDDING.

Boston, Sept. 11 (Special).—Miss Eleanor Adele Stanton Bush, daughter of Major C. Bush, United States Artillery Corps, and granddaughter of Edwin M. Stanton, Lincoln's War Secretary, was married to-day in Trinity Church to Captain Weston Percival Chamberlain, assistant surgeon, U. S. A. The wedding was a quiet affair, only immediate relatives being present. The bride's father is in the Philippines. The bride was given away by her father, Lewis H. Stanton, of New-Orleans, son of Edwin M. Stanton.

SCIENTISTS ELECT MR. BALFOUR.

Southport, England, Sept. 11.—The British Association for the Advancement of Science this afternoon elected Premier Balfour to be president of the meeting, to be held in 1904 at Cambridge, and decided that the meeting of 1906 should be held in South Africa.

DINNER TO BOUNDARY COMMISSION.

London, Sept. 11.—The Pilgrims' Society will entertain the members of the Alaska Boundary Commission at dinner at Claridge's on October 1. Lord Roberts will preside.

COSIMA AND KAISER RECOILED.

Berlin, Sept. 11.—Countess von Bülow has induced Emperor William to bring about peace between the Wagner and the Wagner monument committees. She represented to his majesty that the interest in the commemoration exercises, Wagner insisted on only one chance in the present, the interest in the Wagner monument, which was the subject of the Emperor's decision, was the other members of the Wagner family will end the unveiling of the monument on October 1.

J. B. REYNOLDS AT HIS OFFICE.

James B. Reynolds, secretary to Mayor Low, was slightly indisposed on Wednesday by reason of stomach trouble and a touch of fever, is improving his good health. Although feeling "a little chummy," as he expressed it last night at the City Club, he was able to attend to his duties in the Mayor's office yesterday and the day before.

POOR GIRLS AT MISS GOULD'S HOME.

Miss Helen Miller Gould gave her annual party yesterday for 25 young girls, who belong to her Lyndhurst sewing class. The affair was held at her country home at Tarrytown. The girls are the daughters of poor people of Tarrytown, Irfeston and the vicinity. The girls were given a magnificent dinner, and the afternoon was spent in a hand played throughout the show, and refreshments were served. Miss Gould was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edwin Condit, Miss M. Virginia O'Brien and Miss Alice Northrop.

TRANSATLANTIC TRAVELLERS.

On the Cedric, of the White Star Line, which sailed yesterday, were:

Captain A. Adams, General Moore, George D. Barnes, Thomas Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. Baxter, Mrs. J. M. G. Colby, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hollins, William Pitt, Norman Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. George Galt, Clarence P. Wyckoff.

KILL HIM OFF IN PRINT.

Hanna Says Despite Such Attempts He Attends to Business.

Cleveland, Sept. 11.—Senator Hanna, referring to the sensational reports sent out to the effect that he had suffered a relapse and that his condition was worse than at any time since he was taken ill, said to-day:

"Well, some of the newspapers may be trying to kill me off in print, but, nevertheless, I am still attending to business every day, although it is true I have not entirely recovered my normal condition. The Senator again conferred with a large number of visitors at his office to-day, who called to discuss political and private business matters. While he is still under the care of a physician, the Senator declares that the reports being constantly sent out about his health are misleading and without foundation.

Mr. Hanna declined to-day to discuss the speeches of Mayor Tom L. Johnson and John H. Clarke, the latter a candidate for Senator, delivered at the opening of the Democratic State campaign at Akron on Wednesday evening last. Senator Hanna will, however, probably make a reply in the speech that he will deliver at the opening of the Republican State campaign at Chillicothe on September 15.

ALABAMA STANDS BY TUSKEGEE.

Adverse Report on Bill to Reduce State's Annual Appropriation.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 11.—A bill introduced last week in the Alabama Legislature, taking from the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, which has been operating since 1881, a portion of the appropriation made yearly by the State, has been considered by the Committee on Education, to which it was referred, and decision unanimously reached to report adversely on it. The appropriation now being made will be continued.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

"The Earl of Pawtucket" for London.—A Unique Countenance Arrives to Sing Here.

Frank Curzon, the English theatrical manager, who is at present in New-York, has arranged for the production of "The Earl of Pawtucket" in London at the Criterion Theatre, some time this fall. Leonard Boyne, an actor who has been seen in this country in past seasons, will play the part of the earl.

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

Miss Mabel Nelma, a cousin of the English stage beauty, Miss Marie Studholm, arrived from Italy yesterday to join Henry W. Savage's English grand opera company. Miss Nelma is a soprano and has sung in Italy, Brazil and Argentina, but never in Milan last summer and engaged her. She will make her American debut in "Carmen" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Miss Nelma is described in the notices sent out by her managers as "a nervous, enthusiastic little woman, with enormous gray eyes and a most captivating countenance."

"Bearing" his name, Miss Nelma is accompanied by her mother and sixteen "trunks."

The thrilling announcement is made by Miss Anna Held's manager that the Countess Nimon Hassen-dra, wife of a German army officer, has been engaged to play in Miss Held's company this season in the Richeon play, "Mlle. Napoleon."

</