TWO GOLDEN WEDDINGS.

All Totenville Celebrates To-night in Honor of Its Oldest Residents.

Golden weddings are not common luxuries anywhere, but when two take place on the same night in the same town and that they are like those of Totenville, Staten Island, the place may fairly be said to be added to the pleasing pastime of golden weddings.

Totenville is in this happy case—or will be to-night, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriages.

WORK AT GORDON HOUSE.

A Boys' and Men's Club with Five Hundred Members To Be Formally Opened.

"Gordon House is a mass of brick and stone piled together for the sole purpose of being an instrument for work," said William A. Clark, the workman, at the Settlement yesterday afternoon.

Gordon House, named by the founder, the late Theodore G. White, of Columbia, for General "Chinese" Gordon, had its beginning in the year 1891 in a stable at No. 17 West Seventeenth-st.

A somewhat unusual feature of Gordon House is that more than half of the five hundred members are workmen.

Down on the Pentzley the Lee house stands, is a large, old-fashioned house covered with vines, in which Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown and their children, a short way from the old homestead and down by the old mill race, have lived for the last twenty years.

SCHOOL PRINCIPALS ORGANIZE.

Seth T. Stewart Plans Co-operation in Studies for His Districts.

"Atmosphere," said Seth T. Stewart, District Superintendent of the Nineteenth and Twenty-second districts, "atmosphere—that's what I want to create in the schools under my charge, and that is why I have organized among the principals in my districts committees on nature study, art, domestic science, music and athletics.

TRIBUNE WISHING SOCIETY.

GOOD CHEER. Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Twas not given for you alone—'Twas given for me and you.

IT IS LOVE. 'Tis love that makes the world so bright and glad, and makes the heart so true. It plants the blooming roses, too, On cheeks to make them fair; And bids the auster in the eye, To shine with wondrous light.

IT IS LOVE. 'Tis love that makes the world so bright and glad, and makes the heart so true. It plants the blooming roses, too, On cheeks to make them fair; And bids the auster in the eye, To shine with wondrous light.

ZIEGLER WANTED.

Briefs Sent to Governor Odell Quoted.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 1.—Mr. Thomas Assistant Attorney General, and Judge Thomas Harvey, of St. Louis, who represented the State of Missouri in the extradition matter of William Ziegler of New-York, wanted here to stand trial on a charge of bribery, to-day sent briefs to Governor Odell at Albany.

The briefs discuss the matter under two heads. First, the obligation of one executive to honor the requisition of another executive, and, also, as to whether Ziegler is a fugitive from justice.

The brief then declares that they desire to resent the attempts of the counsel for the defendant to delay the trial, and to have the Missouri authorities to discontinue the case, and to issue for the defendant when the court can, by habeas corpus proceedings, determine the legal right, and quotes Supreme Court decisions in support of the contention.

ARTIST A SUICIDE.

Police Thought His Choking Part of Celebration.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 1.—T. Russell Griffith, a portrait artist, committed suicide to-day in his cell in the county jail. He first tried to sever the arteries in his wrist and throat with a razor, but he picked a quantity of wool from his blankets with which he plugged up his nostrils, and then he stuffed his handkerchief down his throat and slowly strangled.
