THE TRIBUNE'S NEW SUNDAY MAGAZINE

Some time ago a few hundred Tribune readers, taken at random, were asked to give their idea as to what might be done to

INCREASE THE ATTRACTIVENESS OF THIS PAPER, especially during the summer months. About two-thirds of those who answered declared very positively for an increase of Good Fiction in The Sunday Tribune.

One subscriber put it this way: "The Daily Tribune gives me all that I want—the news in a coherent, intelligible and fairly impartial manner. Besides this on Sunday we have Part II, with interesting special features, and The Illustrated Supplement, with its beautiful pictures, timely articles, book reviews and so forth. This strikes me as being a good nickel's worth and I would not have it altered." But if you contemplate putting on something new, I would suggest that you add a regular magazine with first-class stories and the other things usually found in the best ten-cent weeklies or monthlies, and, if possible, some color pictures.

We have practically followed this suggestion. Beginning with May 8 the readers of

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE

will get, in addition to the regular paper, a

SUNDAY MAGAZINE WITH COLORED COVERS.

The contents will be found light, bright and entertaining, with, occasionally, an instructive article on some subject of current interest, such as our subway, now approaching completion. There won't be anything freakish or bizarre about the new magazine.

IT IS PLANNED TO MERIT THE APPRECIATION OF PEOPLE WHOSE IDEAL PLACE OF AMUSEMENT IS NOT A DIME MUSEUM, but who are able to enjoy skimmings from the cream of life's comedy. The purpose is, too, to have it so nicely balanced as to make it popular with every member of the family, young or old, woman or man.

This notice is merely to call your attention to the matter. To get a fair idea of the magazine itself, just buy The Sunday Tribune for a few weeks. After inspection we are willing to take your judgment as to how far we have fallen short of the intention outlined. The price remains the same.
