deficiency for the crop will be palpable beyond denial. The northwestern receipts were 28 cars, compared with 127 the year before. The heavi-ness of the receipts at the winter wheat markets subdued the bullishness that prevailed before they became known. Argentine weather was reported very unfavorable. The range of December was from $1 13% to $1 12%, closing at $1 121/4 to $1 12%.

ported very unfavorable. The range of December was from $1 13\% to $1 12\%, closing at $1 12\% to $1 12\%. May closed at $1 11\% to $1 17\%, after selling as high as $1 12\% and as low as $1 11\%.

Corn was active and firm the first ten minutes or so of the session, and after that was quiet, with the hull feeling considerably subdued. The weather was still all that could be desired to make the new grain available for early shipment, and the number of cars inspected since Saturday morning was a good deal larger than expected. The demand from the East was again in evidence for the corn in store, and foreign bids for new corn for shipment in January were better. Local receipts were 13\% cars, of which 8 were contract, and shipments hence were 144,000 bushels. The estimate of to-morrow's local receipts was 14\% cars. The highest for December was 45\% c, the lowest 45\% c, and the close was 48\% c. After selling as high as 46c and as low as 45\% c, May closed at 45\% c.

Oats ruled steady. A firm undertone existed in sympathy with corn. There was some good buying early by cash and elevator interests. Selling was by local traders and scattered. The sample market was steady to \% c lower. Receipts were 18\% cars, of which 3\% cars were contract, and of the same grade 37,000 bushels were 14\% end of the same grade 37,000 bushels were 18\% cars. Local stocks increased 101,000 bushels, making the total 5,2\% c,000 bushels. December closed at 28\% c, after selling as high as 29c. May sold from 31\% c, to 31\% c.

Provisions were quiet, but there was enough demand for pork from commission houses to give the entire market a strong tone. Hog receipts were $1,000 head, and prices at the yards were steady. January pork sold from $12.50 to $12.65. January lard sold from $7.05 up to $7.22\%. January ribs sold from $8.47\% up to $6.52\% and May sold from $8.47\% up to $6.52\% and May sold from $8.67\% up to $6.52\% up to $6.57\%. McCormick & McCormick 41 Wall Street, N. Y.
