THE WORLD OF

EASILY WINS THE STAKE.

Ocean Tide a Surprise in the Handicap Only two Favorites in Front.

Gay Boy won the Woodmere Stakes at Aqueduc resterday in impressive style. This good sprinter is now at his best, and when at his best there are few horses in training that can beat him at six or seven furlongs under an equitable weight adjustment. The field he beat yesterday was not a particularly good one, as the stake had selling con tions, but he came from behind and won easily with 118 pounds up, and it was his manner of Win-ning that pleased. There was a touch of winter in the air, but this had no effect on the attendance, which was well up to the Monday average.

Only two favorites won-The Southerner and Floralia-but Gay Boy was almost equal favorite with Crown Prince in the stake, so that the players who follow form closely scored about an even break. From end to end the racing was interest-ing, although it was marred to some extent by more or less rough and foul riding, of which no apparent notice was taken by the stewards. It was particularly noticeable in the first, second and fourth races. Merry Lark was the sufferer in the first race, while The Southerner in the second and Thistle Heather and Santa Catalina in the race had much to contend with,

Woodmere Stakes was run as the third race. rown Prince and Gay Boy got the bulk of the lay, the former closing a slight favorite at 9 to 5. The start was poor. Charles Elwood was practi-cally left at the post, while Crown Prince, breaking was also away badly. Travers rushed Prince to the front, however, in the first and showed the way around the turn two engths before New-York and Gay Boy, which were head and head before a straggling field. ng pole, where Gay Boy challenged and after a struggle drew away and won easily by two the place from Damon, which closed resolute-the end. New-York tired badly from his y efforts and pulled up last. Shaw was justly

The handicap at six and a half furlongs furnished complete surprise in the victory of Ocean Tide, the extreme outsider, at 15 to 1, and the wofully bad race of Little Em, the favorite, which finished Little Em followed the pace set by Mamie in for half a mile, and then capitulated with a struggle when the real contest began. Worth stopped, as usual, a quarter of a mile home, and Thistle Heather took up the runand appeared to be winning, when Ocean losed from sixth place with a rush and came half a length in front. Thespian, which won the fifth race in the name and colors of J. B. Haggin, the breeder, was bid up from $500 to $1,900, and bought at that figure by F. Wilson. The incident caused quite a little flurry, as F. Wilson is a newcomer and unknown to the "Alfy" Lakeland, the well known trainer, was taken ill in the paddock in the afternoon and hurried to the hospital. Messages were sent to St. Marr's and the Jamaica hospitals for ambulances. One started from each place. St. Mary's won.

Hildebrand was in form, riding two winners— Fleur de Marie and Floralia. Travers, T. Burns, Shaw and Schilling were the other winning jockeys. Hildebrand now leads the jockeys for the meet-ing.

P. J. Dwyer's Jennie McCabe was left at the post in the last race. This has been her misfortune in her last three starts, and a little schooling might work to her advantage.

Daisy Green's effort in the fifth race was too bad to be true. She broke in front, but Cochran allowed her to drop out of the running in the first quarter. Some explanation seems in order.

A SWINDLER AT AQUEDUCT.

Confidence Worker Gets Subscriptions, Saying They Are for Newspaper Men.

A man who represented himself as a newspaper correspondent has been working a confidence game among the horsemen at Aqueduct.

He said he was authorized to get subscriptions for the active newspaper writers on the track, and succeeded in collecting $200 from Albert Simmons and smaller amounts from several others.

Mr. Simmons made some reference to the matter yesterday in the hearing of one of the supposed beneficiaries, and the subscription was promptly declared a swindle. Mr. Simmons had given a check for the amount, and he wired his bank to stop payment, although he expressed the fear that it would be too late.

Go early to the polls to-day, to make sure of your friends in the district who may be late.

Frank Croker, who made such a fine showing in the Vanderbilt Cuprace, will try to make new amateur world's records in his 75-horsepower Simplex, which he drove in the Vanderbilt contest. NOW FOR ITHACA TRICKS.

Morley May Have a Few of His Own to Spring on Cornell.

Only very light practice was engaged in by Columbia's football men yesterday, and this policy will be continued for the next few days. The work of the day was held at American League Park, and consisted of the short scrimmage and the customary elementary work for the ends and kickers. Morley has developed several new tricks with which he hopes to offset any advantage that may be gained by Warner's strategy in next Saturday's game with Cornell. Morley said yesterday he expected that the Cornell game would be the closest played in New-York in some time. Warner would probably have many trick plays to spring on the probably have many trick plays to spring of the game Columbia men, he said, and most of the game would be taken up by end runs and more than the ordinary open play.

Captain Stangland is expected to be in New-York on Thursday, and will probably be on hand to watch the team's last practice before the game with The game scheduled for this afternoon between Columbia and Cornell freshmen has been cancelled by the latter, who could not get permission of the faculty to make the trip to this city. The freshmen yesterday played a short practice game with the High School of Commerce eleven, in which both sides scored one touchdown.

The game with West Point on Saturday was a hard one, and the men needed a couple of days' rest. They have put all thoughts of football from their minds while here. I have not permitted them to practise, although many were desirous of running through signals and team work on the beach. Taken altogether, the team is in fine shape, and I am confident we will capture Yale's scalp next Saturday.

The party will leave for Princeton to-morrow

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 7 (Special).-The Tigers will return from Atlantic City to-morrow, and will begin active practice for Saturday's game with It is expected that all the work will be secret, as the vacation puts the team a day behind in its work. The tickets for the big game were distributed to graduates and undergraduates this morning, and when the rush was over General Athletic Treasurer Murray found he had no seats left. The demand was the greatest in years, and despite the fact that the seating capacity of the Princeton thousand more seats could easily have been disposed of. Every room in the Princeton Inn and Nassau Hotel has been engaged for Friday night, and accommodations in private houses are all engaged two weeks ahead. The crowd promises to be the greatest that ever witnessed a game in Princeton.

YALE REGULARS BACK IN LINE.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] New-Haven, Conn., Nov. 7.—Yale had an unusually long practice to-day, in which all of the regulars played, including Bloomer, Shevlin alone being out. The men who went through the Brown game were in good condition, and were drilled hard by Walter Camp. In the open practice all of the regulars except Morse were left out, the first "subs" lining up against the second team for a brief scrimmage. Cates and Hare played the substitute team ends, Stuart and H. Turner the tackles, Gillis and Flanders, guards; Erwin, centre; Hutchinson, quarterback; Veeder and Morse, halfbacks, and 'Phil' Morse, fullback. The 'varsity scored a touchdown, and were then scored on by the seconteam. All of the real work was done behind closed gates. However, the fact that S. Morse, McCoy. Owsley and Bloomer were again out, after a long rest, gives a hopeful sign for the personnel of the Princeton game on Saturday.

DERBY OUT AGAIN FOR HARVARD.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 7 (Special).-The work all the men who played any length of time in the Dartmouth game having an easy time. After a long signal practice for the first team men a substiute 'varsity and a strong second team had a short in which the "subs" scored a touchdown. Derby, who has been out of the game since the first day of practice with a sprained shoulder, got back into the scrimmage to-day, and played a fine all around game, especially strong on the of-fence. Don Nichols got back into the game at left half again to-day, his shoulder having entirely re-covered. Noyes was played at quarterback, Starr having gone into the country for a two days' rest. Montgomery and Jones were also out again.

PENN. TAKES WELL EARNED REST.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Pennsylvania's football players are enjoying a well earned rest. The men will not put on suits until Wednesday, when they will begin a sharp three days' preparation for the Indian game. Good new men, that is the keynote of the Pennsylvania system from now on. Already it is considered that the crisis of the season is past and the eyes of all are fixed on the prospects for next year. Those substitutes who have been used, and against whose names must be chalked up one year of the four allotted them as college players, are getting all the experience possible. Among them are Rock and Williams, whom Pennsylvania must next fall beat into a couple of tackles: Folwell at fullback and Sheble as half. Of this year's team Pennsylvania will lose by football graduation Piekarkski and Buckiewicz from the line, and Smith and Reynolds from the back field.

Despite the success of the team in the Harvard game, there is a feeling among the undergraduates that Weede, the speedy end, has not been treated fairly. Sinkler, the son of a physician connected with the university, has been playing the position and there is no doubt that he is the weakest spot on the Pennsylvania line. Backed by Green at halfback and supported by Lamson at tackle, his poor play has not been overcostly. On Saturday, however, when, after being out since the Lehigh game on October 8, Weede was sent into the second half of the Lafayette contest, from the cheering section there rose a roar of applause that was fully justified by the playing of the slighted end.

NAVY CAPTAIN IN POOR CONDITION. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 7.—Midshipman Charles C. Gill, who was badly injured while practising footis still in a serious condition, but no worse. The physical condition of Captain Farley of the football team is giving the coaches much concern. Though suffering from no particular injury, he does not appear strong enough to stand a hard game, and has only played through a small part of the Swarthmore and State games. Midshipmen Douglass and Root, both of whom broke their legs early in the season, are about on crutches, but neither can play again this season.

AMHERST TEAM STILL STRONG.

Amherst, Mass., Nov. 7 (Special).-Amherst came out of her gruelling contest with Holy Cross in good condition. Leighton, who played centre, was laid up to-day on account of slight injuries, but he will be all right in a day or two. Osborne, who tere a ligament in his shoulder on Tuesday, will have to quit the game for the rest of the season, giving way to Connell.

COLUMBIA, '07, VICTOR.

Freshmen May Protest Sophomore Point Winners, However.

Columbia's under class track meet, completed yesterday with the running broad jump and hammer throw, resulted in a victory for the sopho-mores over the freshman, 77 2-3 to 65%. The sophomores had a lead of 10 points as a result of the events contested last Thursday. E. V. Kehrlein, '07, college, with practically no practice, went

Two of the sophomore point winners have been declared ineligible by the freshmen. G. R. B. Elliott, who won the two-mile run and was fourth in the mile, entered with the class of '96, Science but was dropped a class. He was a member of the '06 crew squad. E. J. Bassett, who finished second in the quarter, is registered as a freshman and entered only this year, but he is taking so many sophomore courses that he refused to enter the games unless his points counted for the second year men. Even if the requisite changes were made, however, it would still be the sophomore's meet by 732-3 to 691-3 points. The summaries of yesterday's contests:

Running broad jump—Won by Emil V. Kehrlein, jr., '07, college, 20 ft. 3 in.; J. H. A. Williams, '07, Science, second. 19 ft. 5 in.; George Mackensis, '08 college, third, 18 ft. 5 in.; H. BIG DEMAND FOR ARMY-NAVY BOXES.

First Choice of Seats for Football Game Sells at $225.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]
Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—If the demand for boxes for the Army-Navy football game on November 26 is any indication, the attendance will be larger than it has been since the memorable game of 1901. The boxes were auctioned off this morning, and drew a good sized crowd of football enthusiasts. box sold was No. 78, which, after spirited bidding, was knocked down to J. T. Hoffman for $225. This remained the record price. While a few of the boxes went for as low as $50, nearly all brought from $125 to $135, and about fifteen fell into the hands of speculators.

The total amount realized was $5,700, or about $500 more than last year.

NO AGREEMENT IN FALL RIVER.

Conference Between Cotton Manufacturers and Operatives Ends.

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 7 .- Representatives of the Fall River cotton manufacturers and the striking operatives held another conference this afternoon but they were unable to reach an agreement, so that, so far as the negotiations are concerned, the situation is unchanged. The mills will be opened on November 14, as previously decided on, to give the strikers an opportunity to go to work under a 12% per cent cut down.

At to-day's conference, which lasted two hours. the executive committee of the manufacturers' voted not to accept a proposition that five disinbe in poor condition, but the way the 'varsity went | terested persons be appointed to investigate the unable to pay the rate of wages which prevailed before the 12½ per cent reduction on July 25. Trepresentatives of the operatives stated, however that they would favor such an investigation pyided the manufacturers would take down the duction notices and open the gates, pending the suit of the inquiry. The manufacturers absolute refused to consider this proposition, and the confidence of the confidence sider this proposition, and the conference was brought to a close

ANTI-TRUST LAW UPHELD EJECTED FROM GASCOGNE

Washington, Nov. 7 .- The Supreme Court of the U. S. Supreme Court Declares a Newspaper Boycott Illegal.

United States to-day affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin in the newspaper boycott case arising from the alleged business combination of "Ine Sentinel," "The News" and "The Evening Wisconsin," all published at Milwaukee, against "The Journal," of that city, affecting advertising rates. The opinion was delivered by Jus-tice Holmes, and upheld the validity of the Wisconsin anti-trust law, so far as it applies to this case.

The case came before the Supreme Court on writs of error to set aside convictions and tences of A. J. Aikens, Albert Huegin and M. A. Hoyt, publishers of the three newspapers in the combination. The ground of the writ is that the proceedings violated the rights of the plaintiff in error under the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. The informations were brought under the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, which impose imprisonment or fine on "are two or more persons who shall combine . . for the purpose of wilfully or maliciously injuring another in his reputation, trade, business or profession by any means whatever," etc. The plaintiffs in error were severally charged with unlawfully combining together with the intent of wilfully and maliciously injuring "The Journal" Company by agreeing that any person should agree to pay the increased advertising rate charged by "The Journal" Com-pany then he should not be permitted to advertise in any of the other three newspapers, except at a responding increase of rate, but if he should refuse to pay "The Journal" Company the in-creased rate then he should be allowed to advernal Lawn Tennis Association held two meetings tise in any of the other three papers at the rate previously charged. It was alleged that this con-statute, he said:

There is no anomaly in a statute which punishes a combination such as is charged here. It has been held that even the free use of land by a single owner for purely malevolent purposes may be restricted constitutionally, although the only immediate injury is to a neighboring land owner. Whether this decision was right or not, when it comes to the freedom of the individual, malicious mischief is a familiar and proper subject for legislative repression. Still more are combinations for the purpose of inflicting it. It would be impossible to hold that the liberty to combine to indict such mischief, even upon such intangibles as business or reputation, was among the rights which the Fourteenth Amendment was intended to preserve.

MRS. DODGE NOT TO GET JEWELS.

The Supreme Court Hols the Seizure Legal. Washington, Nov. 7 .- The Supreme Court of the United States to-day refused to grant a writ of certiorari in the case of Phyllis E. Dodge agt. the United States, the effect being to affirm the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, which was favorable to the government. The case involved the seizure of $64,000 worth of jewelry by the customs authorities at New-York on the strivial there of Mrs. Dodge from Europe on the steamer St. Paul in 1899. Mrs. Dodge failed to mention the jeweiry in her declaration to the authorities, and asserted that it had been presented to her while abroad. She also pleaded that she did not consider the jeweiry dutiable.

The proceeding in which Mrs. Dodge has falled to get a writ is the final one in her efforts to secure ssession of jewelry which was seized b Custom House officials in 1899. Information having been sent from abroad that she had purchased a large quantity of jewels, there were inspectors on the lookout for her on her arrival here on June 24 in that year. She made a declaration that she had nothing dutiable in her possession when she disembarked from the steamship St. Paul. On the pier she was compelled to open her trunks and hand satchels, and there were revealed clothing and dress goods worth $10,000, and diamond, pearl and sapphire gems worth from $80,000 to $90,000. These included bracelets, sunbursts, necklaces chains, pins, rings and charms, and one of the necklaces was said to be worth $55,000, although these figures were afterward reduced to $39,000. the receiver. The company subsequently was reorganized. The suit was brought before the death of General Thomas, and was continued against his estate. This the steamship company asserted was due to the fact that, as many members of the crew wer Chinese, they could not understand the orders given to them, but the court refused to limit liability on this account. The purpose of the petition for a writ of certiforal was to bring the case to the Supreme Court for review, and the denial has the effect of making final the decision of the Court of Appeals for the IXth Circuit, which was favorable to the passengers.

> Justice Brown delivered the opinion of the cour in the case of Crawford & Valentine, stock brokers, of Chicago, vs. John E. Burke, involving an ac-tion to recover damages for the wilful and fraudulent conversion of 550 shares of Metropolitan Traction. It was complained that the brokers had sold use, obtaining $10,000. The firm entered a plea of a discharge in hankruptcy, but the Illinois State courts refused to consider it and gave judgment versed by to-day's decision. In his opinion Justice Brown said that the only federal question involved is whether the Supreme Court of Illinois gave the proper effect to the discharge in bankruptcy. He held that it did not, and, therefore, reversed the judgment of that court. for the damages claimed. That verdict was re-In an opinion by Chief Justice Fuller, the court

Paris Impresario Suing the French Line for $25,000 Damages.

The attention of Judge Holt, in the United States District Court, yesterday, was occupied by the trial of an action against La Gaseogne, of the French Line, wherein Eugene Roumegoux, a grand opera-impresario of Paris, seeks to recover $25,000 for al-leged damages resulting from his ejectment from the vessel on January 31, 1901.

According to the complainant, he has been for a number of years bringing French companies from Paris to South America, the West Indies, and oc-casionally to New-Orleans. In the season of 1906-01. Roumegoux says, he was under contract with Henry Berrier, of New-Orleans, to conduct a series of entertainments in that city, and after it he was to receive, among other considerations, a ticket to Paris. It had been his intention to sail on La Gascogne on January 3, but, although his passage had been engaged for that trip, he was unable to complete his passage. plete his arrangements so that he could start. He accordingly, he swore, telegraphed the representatives of the steamer in New-York, asking that his passage be changed for the last trip, on January IL. efved an answer, he testified, that the transfer had been made. He swore he reached New-York on the day scheduled for sailing, and on the morn-ing of January 31 went aboard the steamer. He ing of January 21 went aboard the steamer. He took possession of stateroom No. 173 and proceeded to make things comfortable.

About three minutes before the time for sailing. M. Roumegoux states, an officer of the steamer came to his stateroom and, after telling him that his ticket was not good for that trip, ejected him from the vessel. His belongings were thrown over the railing of the ship after him, he says. He was not able to sail for Paris until a month later—too late to secure an engagement for the French Easter theatrical season.

Herrmann So Says of "The Isle of Champagne"-New Charges Against Wife.

Still more affidavits in the suit for separation rought by Florence Crosby Herrmann against George Herrmann were submitted to Justice Amend in the Supreme Court yesterday by counsel for the defendant. Herrmann says that he dissi-pated his entire fortune "in an improvident manner," having lost about $100,000 backing "The Isle of Champagne." He says the plaintiff knows he is without means, "since she aided me in dissipating and disposing of the same." His wife, he has a large income, and is now paying $70 a month for an apartment in which there are furniture, bric-a-brac and rugs valued at about $20,000. He asserts that Mrs. Herrmann's income is over $18,000

Arthur Cohen in an affidavit submitted yesterday ays that Mrs. Herrmann on one occasion offered him $1,000 to assault Herrmann, and that he re-fused. He further states that after a poker game she asked him to kiss her to make Herrmann jealous. Mrs. Herrmann at various times in the summer, according to Cohen, wore jewelry worth

Herrmann names a number of men with whom he says "on information and belief" his wife has lived. His affidavit also reads:

On information and belief, and I verily believe the same to be true, that this plaintiff was evicted from the Cecil and Carlton, London, Eng., and the Regina Hotel, Paris, France, on account of her behavior and manner in which she conducted herself. At the Regina I was informed, and believe the same to be true, that she associated with the notorious Fayne Moore at that resort.

Another affidavit says that Mrs. Herrmann in asking her husband for money repeatedly would at times "act as a crazy person." All these allegations Mrs. Herrmann denies

DEFENDANT DIES ON WITNESS STAND.

Clothing Contractor Much Affected by His Inability to Pay Claims Against Him.

"The defendant having died in court, this case will be decided by a higher court." This was the ruling signed to the papers yesterday in the case of Henry Berger against Joseph Shapiro, a clothing contractor, of No. % Monroe-st., by Justice Sanders, in the Thirteenth Municipal Court, at No 202 East Broadway. The defendant, attacked by apoplexy just as he took the witness stand, col-

Shapiro was being sued by Berger and about a dozen others for sums aggregating $170, alleged to be due them for work done by them. He had failed to pay about a dozen of the persons employed by him, because he said that the warehouse for which tained that he intended to pay them. He said he was affected, and really seemed to be, by his inability to settle the suits. He was also agitated by judgment against him yesterday a body execution would have been taken and he would have been sent to fail.

A short while after the man had died and the body had been removed into another room, relatives of the dead man appeared in court and took charge of the body. As they left the building in search of an undertaker, a funeral was passing. They called the undertaker, H. Rosenbloom, of No. 283 Madison-st., and asked him to take charge of the body. The undertaker haited the funeral procession and made preparations to have the body removed from the courthouse. After this was done the funeral proceeded.
