

A BUSY CONGRESS.

In the 58th 20,074 Bills and Resolutions Were Introduced.

Washington, March 23.—F. H. Wakefield, docket clerk of the House of Representatives, has prepared a statement, showing the amount of work done by the 58th Congress, as compared with previous Congresses as far back as the 43d. It shows that the number of bills and resolutions introduced aggregated 20,074. The House committees reported on 4,994 measures, including Senate acts and resolutions. The House passed 1,556 of its own bills and resolutions at the second session, and 331 of the 23d Senate acts and resolutions which had been reported from committees. At the close of the session 29 remained in the union calendar, 112 bills, of which 29 remained in the Senate, having passed 247 of the 23d bills and resolutions referred to that calendar. Of the House calendar, to which 469 bills and resolutions were referred, only 64 remained unacted on, of which 55 were House and 11 of Senate origin. On the private calendar, to which 1,331 bills and resolutions were referred, 222 remained unacted on, of which 23 were of Senate origin. Of the House bills sent to the President for his approval, only 122 failed to be acted on, while 25 House bills were indefinitely postponed in the Senate (largely private pension bills and mostly because of the death of the proposed beneficiaries). For the same reason, the Senate recalled 20 of its own bills after the House committees had favorably reported them. Of all the House bills sent to the President for his approval, only one failed to receive his signature and become a law.

The work of the House in the 58th, as compared with the 57th, Congress, shows an increase of 25 in the number of bills introduced, an increase of 10 per cent, or 104 in the number of reports made, and an increase of 194 in the number of public acts. The number of private acts shows a gain of 1,156 from the 57th to the 58th Congress; the number of bills and resolutions introduced increased from 19,923 in the 57th to 20,074 in the 58th; the number of reports made increased from 4,890 to 4,994; the public laws enacted from 1,537 to 1,556; the private laws from 234 to 347; and the number of pages of the "Congressional Record" from 2,329 to 4,582. The number of days of actual sessions of the House in the 58th Congress was 190, as compared with 188 in the 57th, 200 in the 56th, 202 in the 55th, 197 in the 54th and 222 in the 53rd.

MORTON'S NEW ASSISTANT

Truman H. Newberry to Succeed C. H. Darling—No Change in Cabinet.

Washington, March 23.—President Roosevelt has tendered the office of Assistant Secretary of the Navy to Truman H. Newberry, of Detroit, and the offer has been accepted. Mr. Newberry will succeed Charles H. Darling, of Vermont, who some time ago tendered his resignation to be accepted at the President's convenience. Mr. Darling will be appointed collector of the port of Burlington, Vt., and will devote his attention to the duties of that office and the practice of law. The appointment of Mr. Newberry led to the rumor that he was to succeed Secretary Morton at the head of the Navy Department; that Mr. Morton was to succeed Mr. Taft as Secretary of War, and that Mr. Taft was to be transferred to the State Department as the successor of Secretary Hay. There is the highest authority for the statement that no present change in the Cabinet is probable.

Detroit, March 23.—Truman H. Newberry was born in this city in 1864, and was graduated from Yale Scientific School in 1885. For several years after graduation Mr. Newberry was engaged in railroad construction in upper Michigan with his father, the late John S. Newberry, and Senator Alger. He then engaged in steel manufacturing and took charge of his father's estate. In the war with Spain Mr. Newberry, who was one of the organizers of the Michigan National Guard, served on the auxiliary cruiser Yosemite with the rank of lieutenant. He has two sons.

SHILOH MONUMENT INSCRIPTIONS.

Secretary Taft Will Give a Hearing to Governor Cummins.

Washington, March 23.—Secretary Taft has arranged to give a hearing on April 6 to Governor Cummins of Iowa in support of the desire of the officials of that State to have the inscriptions on the Iowa monuments in the Shiloh Battlefield Park amended so that they shall show the time that the various Iowa regiments appeared on the scene of battle. Secretary Taft, after an exhaustive investigation of this proposition, which has been under consideration by the department for many months, recently decided against the proposal of the Iowa authorities to change the inscriptions accepted by the Shiloh Park Commission. Governor Cummins was not satisfied with that decision, and appealed to the President. Mr. Roosevelt referred the question to Secretary Taft, and he has decided to grant a personal hearing to Governor Cummins.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S GROG STOPPED.

The Doctor Made Him Quit It. He Tells a Friend.

[FROM THE TRIBUNE BUREAU.] Washington, March 23.—Admiral Dewey, looking in the pink of condition, walked from his home to the White House this morning, in response to an invitation from the President. "We took up the matter of an appointment," said the Admiral, after his call, "and then chatted about various matters relating to the service. Oh, how are you?" Here the Admiral stepped out of the office building to greet an old friend. "You've lost a good deal of weight since I saw you last, haven't you?" "Yes," replied the man addressed, "I'm feeling fine now." "How do you make you stop your grog?" asked the Admiral, with a note of pity in his voice. "No, never drank a drop of it in my life," said his friend. "Well, the doctor made me stop my grog," said the Admiral.

WAITING FOR SENATOR ALDRICH.

Finance Committee Not to Begin Its Inquiry At Present.

Washington, March 23.—Senator Allison will leave here in a few days for his home in Iowa. He says his resignation will be taken up by the Senate Committee on Finance under the resolution passed just before Congress adjourned authorizing an inquiry relative to customs, internal revenue and other financial matters. Mr. Allison says the resolution was presented to him at the request of Senator Aldrich, chairman of the Finance Committee. It was passed in order that the committee might have authority to inquire into these matters should it be deemed expedient. It is not Senator Allison's intention, as the second session of the Finance Committee, to call the committee together in the absence of Senator Aldrich, and he does not know the intention of Mr. Aldrich. Mr. Allison said that the Finance Committee would be careful in taking any step relative to revenue matters, as the House is still with the duty of organizing the new Western District of Virginia when the term of the present incumbent, S. Brown Allen, expires.

ARMY AND NAVY NEWS.

[FROM THE TRIBUNE BUREAU.] POSTHUMOUS HONORS.—The families of deceased army officers who might be entitled to receive, if living, the medal of honor have frequently applied to the War Department for the issue of that coveted emblem. The question of whether or not the medal could be issued has been finally settled, as most people thought it would be settled, against giving the medal to the heirs or surviving relatives of army officers who distinguished themselves to the extent of gaining a medal of honor but they lived. The War Department has held, briefly, that had Congress intended to issue the medals under such circumstances, it would have specifically provided in that extent in the law which authorized the medals to living officers. This has been a long standing custom, and it was not expected there would be any departure from it.

RESTORED TO THE NAVY.—Kenneth McAlpine has been appointed a lieutenant in the navy, to date from March 3, 1905, in accordance with the provisions of a special act of Congress. He is a native of Virginia. While attached to the battleship Texas he was examined for promotion and reported disqualified by the examining board. On that report he was discharged from the navy with a year's pay. Under an act of Congress he was restored to the place he held at the time of his discharge, which action placed him at the head of the list of lieutenants, and because of the existence of a vacancy in the list of lieutenant commanders he has been promoted to the higher grade. He was examined for promotion yesterday, and it is understood that he qualified.

MARRIN WANTED IN BROOKLYN. Detectives Unable to Find Him After Indictment Twelve Years Ago. Assistant District Attorney Robert H. Elder of Kings County said yesterday that his office had no official information in regard to the whereabouts of Frank C. Marrin, who was indicted in Brooklyn twelve years ago for swindling Mrs. Caroline Barry out of some $5,000, had just fled from Philadelphia after conducting several large swindles there. Two years ago the Brooklyn authorities were told that Marrin was in Philadelphia, but two detectives sent there were unable to identify him. Marrin was formerly a promising young lawyer and Democratic orator in Brooklyn, but after securing the money from Mrs. Barry on "fake" mortgages he fled to Europe. After that the old woman was so distrustful of men that for years she refused to have any repairs on her dilapidated old house in the most fashionable part of Clinton-ave. and refused all efforts of her neighbors to buy the property. About two years ago she consented to sell and the eyesore was removed.

"OFFICIALS SHIELDED STOREY CO."

Colonel Russell B. Harrison Will Ask Roosevelt to Investigate. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Indianapolis, March 23.—Armed with alleged evidence that some of the officials of the Postoffice Department at Washington have been protecting the Storey Cotton Company, the Philadelphia concern that failed recently, Colonel Russell B. Harrison will appeal to President Roosevelt to make a thorough investigation. Colonel Harrison began his investigation before the receiver was appointed, and has secured valuable evidence, it is said, both with regard to the operations of the company and knowledge of its methods by government officials. Letters have been received from a number of persons, and among them is one from B. St. John Hoyt, of Pittsburg, in which he charges that the attention of the department to the Storey company as late as last July, and that no attention was paid to his complaint. Others have written Colonel Harrison to the same effect, and he thinks the evidence he has gathered will justify the President in making a thorough investigation into the department's attitude toward the swindle.

CODY FAILS TO WIN DIVORCE.

Sheridan, Wyo., March 23.—"Buffalo Bill" (Colonel William F. Cody) today lost his suit for divorce from Louisa Cody, Judge R. H. Scott, of the District Court, deciding that charges of attempts on the part of Mrs. Cody to poison her husband and other allegations had not been proved. Judge Scott asserted that the testimony showed that Mrs. Cody had always been a good mother and a fond and indulgent wife.

ROSSER TO BE APPOINTED MARSHAL.

Washington, March 23.—President Roosevelt recently appointed General Rosser, who was the youngest brigadier general in the Confederate army, postmaster of Charlottesville, Va. When the appointment was made it was intimated that a better place might be found for General Rosser in the future. It is understood that he will be nominated as Marshal of the Great Northern Steamship Company, W. W. King, passenger agent of the Great Northern Railroad; Charles C. Lacey, James J. Hill's personal representative, and a few guests.

The Wanamaker Store. An Unusual Sale of Men's Derby and Soft Hats. At Two Dollars Each. Derbies are $3.50 and $5 Qualities. Soft Hats are $3.50 and $5 Qualities; And Some as High as $8. The Beauty of the Court of Louis XVI. And the Twentieth Century Rivals. Little more than a century ago there was printed in a French newspaper a society note of which this is a translation: 'A great sensation was caused at the opera one night by the arrival of a lady dressed as follows: Her gown was a stilled sigh trimmed with "superfluous regrets," with a bow at the waist of "perfect innocence," ribbons of "marked attention," and shoes of "the queen's hair," embroidered in diamonds, with the "venez-yon" (come and see) in emeralds. Her hair was curled in "sustained sentiments," a cap of "assured conquest" trimmed with waving feathers and ribbons of "sunken eyes," a "cat" or palette of swans-down on her shoulders of a color called "neatly-arrived people," (parvenus), a "Medicus" arranged "as befitting," a "despair" in opals, and a muff of "momentary agitation." From this enchanting age of Louis XVI. and from the period of a few years before, the fashions of today, especially in millinery, take their inspiration. Today, again, the idol of Paris, now in the person of the beautiful Cecile Sorel, of the Comedie Francaise, whose picture we print above, supplies the model of what has become supreme in millinery style. Again are seen hats which deserve the imaginative description of the old French writer—"marked attention," "assured conquest," and "despair" are their attributes. And we could quote a score of still more enthusiastic Twentieth Century expressions, heard yesterday, which tell how great the admiration of our millinery has been. The reception days continue.
