WELCOME THE PRESIDENT.

Then followed carriages with members of the Loyal Legion, Grand Army of the Republic and Confederate Veterans, acting as special escort to the President. The President arrived at the speakers' stand in front of the Courthouse, at 6th and Jefferson st., at 10 o'clock.

GOVERNOR INTRODUCES PRESIDENT. In introducing the President, Governor Beckham said: Ladies and gentlemen: Not only the people of Louisville, but the people of all Kentucky rejoice in the presence of this great Republic.

As the President stepped upon the platform and the crowd saw a prolonged cheer went up. The President tried to speak, but had to wait until the applause died out. Then he said: Governor Beckham, and you, my fellow Americans (applause).

As the Governor has so well said upon all the important questions, the questions that infinitely transcend the partisan differences, we are fundamentally one (Applause). For, in the question of foreign and internal politics, the points upon which there can be no division of opinion are party lines infinitely exceeded in number.
