

SPORTS COMMENT.

Items on Current Topics, Amateur and Professional.

With the close of the Horse Fair in Madison Square Garden the season of indoor sports is practically ended, and from now on until snow flies again interest will center in the various branches of outdoor sports...

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL.

The local teams are making a good beginning in the National and American League pennant races. The Giants are safely in the lead and the Yankees are tied with Philadelphia for first place.

COLLEGE BASEBALL.

All the leading college baseball teams have showed improved form during the last week. Princeton still stands out much the strongest.

TRACK AND FIELD ATHLETICS.

The relay carnival at Philadelphia on Saturday proved a fitting opening of the outdoor athletic season, in spite of the unfavorable track conditions.

GOLFING.

The defeat of Walter J. Travis on Friday by W. C. Chick of Harvard, in the open tournament of the Country Club of Lakewood and the latter's subsequent defeat by Murray Gilchrist, of Princeton, the New Jersey State champion, is another striking illustration of the general improvement in the quality of the golf of the younger school of players.

BASEBALL.

Giants Defeat Superbas—The Score 5 to 3.

It is safe to say that fully 7,000 persons lived up to the law and were admitted to Washington Park, Brooklyn, yesterday, free of charge and saw the Giants defeat the Superbas. The other who attended had to buy programmes which admitted them to various parts of the grounds.

BICYCLE RACING.

It is cause for favorable comment that track owners and promoters of bicycle racing purpose to return to human power and tandems and triplexes to return to human power and tandems and triplexes to return to human power and tandems and triplexes.

JAMAICA ENTRIES FOR TO-DAY.

FIRST RACE—Handicap, for 3-year-olds and over. Five and one-half furlongs. Starting at 12:15.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

CLEVELAND, 11; ST. LOUIS, 1. St. Louis, April 30.—Hits by Stone and Koehler, following Bradley's error in the ninth, saved St. Louis from a shut out to-day.

STATE LEAGUE.

At Utica—Utica, 4; Boston, 2. At Albany—Albany, 3; Troy, 0.

STOPS SUNDAY GAME.

Ex-Mayor Dillon Says He Will Fight Sheriff in Court.

Acting under instructions from Sheriff Merritt of Westchester County, a force of deputy sheriffs yesterday stopped baseball playing which has been going on at the grounds of the New Rochelle club for nearly two years.

PRACTICE FOR REGATTA.

Many Oarsmen on the River—150 Shells Out Sculler Rescued.

Notwithstanding the alterations and rebuilding of the boathouses on the Harlem, and other moving conditions, the oarsmen have worked contentedly during the past week.

THE GARDEN CITY TOURNAMENT.

The invitation tournament at the Garden City Links on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week will be the third affair of the kind on that noted links.

BASEBALL.

Tie at Westchester for Captain's Cup—Club's Active Season.

The last day of the contest for the Captain's Cup, offered by W. E. Compton, saw a tie yesterday on the links of the Westchester Golf Club, A. W. G. and H. C. Harding each turning in a card of 22.

WOMEN'S ENGLISH GOLF TRIP.

While there is still some uncertainty as to the exact make-up of the party that will complete in the championship tour to the Links of the Royal Links Union, at Cromer on May 20, it seems fairly certain that at least eight of the representative women golfers of the United States will accompany Mrs. Cleland.

COMMODORE TOD VISITS THE HAMBURG COURTESY TENDER TO THE OWNERS OF THE GERMAN YACHT.

About the first thing that ex-Commodore Robert E. Tod of the Atlantic Yacht Club did yesterday after he had brought his yacht, Thistle, to anchor on his return from a sail stretching spin of some five hundred miles to Hampton Roads, was to jump in his steam launch and pay a visit to the Commodore Tod.

SEASON'S PLANS AT MONTCLAIR.

The tournament committee of the Montclair Golf Club, John M. Ward, Paul Wilcox and Walter Brown, have prepared a schedule for the season that should increase the enthusiasm of every member of that popular organization.

SPRING CUP.

The Spring Cup was greeted at the gateway of the Hamburg by Adolf Tietjens, one of the owners, and invited aboard. He and his son, Lieut. Tietjens, were on duty for the club, and invited by Commodore Tod to avail themselves of the privileges of the Atlantic Yacht Club in the harbor.

THE STABLES.

The stables, long rows of one story frame buildings, will be run on the fourth race on Thursday, and will be run on the fourth race on Thursday.

THE MAIN ENTRANCE.

The main entrance to Belmont Park is from the Hempstead Pike, through a superb grove of oaks. It leads to a wide covered way, which rises easily until it reaches the mezzanine floor of the grand stand, having passed over the roof of the big building that stands back of the building.

THE GRAND STAND.

The grand stand, the grandstand will be given up to bars and lunch rooms. The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet.

THE CLUBHOUSE.

The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet. The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet.

THE STABLES.

The stables, long rows of one story frame buildings, will be run on the fourth race on Thursday, and will be run on the fourth race on Thursday.

THE MAIN ENTRANCE.

The main entrance to Belmont Park is from the Hempstead Pike, through a superb grove of oaks. It leads to a wide covered way, which rises easily until it reaches the mezzanine floor of the grand stand, having passed over the roof of the big building that stands back of the building.

THE GRAND STAND.

The grand stand, the grandstand will be given up to bars and lunch rooms. The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet.

GOLFING.

Tie at Westchester for Captain's Cup—Club's Active Season.

The last day of the contest for the Captain's Cup, offered by W. E. Compton, saw a tie yesterday on the links of the Westchester Golf Club, A. W. G. and H. C. Harding each turning in a card of 22.

WOMEN'S ENGLISH GOLF TRIP.

While there is still some uncertainty as to the exact make-up of the party that will complete in the championship tour to the Links of the Royal Links Union, at Cromer on May 20, it seems fairly certain that at least eight of the representative women golfers of the United States will accompany Mrs. Cleland.

COMMODORE TOD VISITS THE HAMBURG COURTESY TENDER TO THE OWNERS OF THE GERMAN YACHT.

About the first thing that ex-Commodore Robert E. Tod of the Atlantic Yacht Club did yesterday after he had brought his yacht, Thistle, to anchor on his return from a sail stretching spin of some five hundred miles to Hampton Roads, was to jump in his steam launch and pay a visit to the Commodore Tod.

SEASON'S PLANS AT MONTCLAIR.

The tournament committee of the Montclair Golf Club, John M. Ward, Paul Wilcox and Walter Brown, have prepared a schedule for the season that should increase the enthusiasm of every member of that popular organization.

SPRING CUP.

The Spring Cup was greeted at the gateway of the Hamburg by Adolf Tietjens, one of the owners, and invited aboard. He and his son, Lieut. Tietjens, were on duty for the club, and invited by Commodore Tod to avail themselves of the privileges of the Atlantic Yacht Club in the harbor.

THE STABLES.

The stables, long rows of one story frame buildings, will be run on the fourth race on Thursday, and will be run on the fourth race on Thursday.

THE MAIN ENTRANCE.

The main entrance to Belmont Park is from the Hempstead Pike, through a superb grove of oaks. It leads to a wide covered way, which rises easily until it reaches the mezzanine floor of the grand stand, having passed over the roof of the big building that stands back of the building.

THE GRAND STAND.

The grand stand, the grandstand will be given up to bars and lunch rooms. The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet.

THE CLUBHOUSE.

The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet. The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet.

THE STABLES.

The stables, long rows of one story frame buildings, will be run on the fourth race on Thursday, and will be run on the fourth race on Thursday.

THE MAIN ENTRANCE.

The main entrance to Belmont Park is from the Hempstead Pike, through a superb grove of oaks. It leads to a wide covered way, which rises easily until it reaches the mezzanine floor of the grand stand, having passed over the roof of the big building that stands back of the building.

THE GRAND STAND.

The grand stand, the grandstand will be given up to bars and lunch rooms. The clubhouse, modelled in Italian Renaissance, is three stories high, with a frontage of 102 feet and a depth of 90 feet.

BELMONT PARK OPENING.

Great Track Ready for Thursday's Metropolitan Handicap.

With the opening of Belmont Park on Thursday next and the renewal of the Metropolitan, the first of the great handicaps, it is fitting to devote a few lines to the most memorable of the racing year.

NEED OF IMMIGRATION ACTION.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: It seems to me that no thinking man who has read the newspapers for the last two months can be ignorant of the fact that the most serious problem confronting the nation at the present time is immigration.

SUGGESTION FOR "AUTO" PARADE.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: After reading your excellent account of the automobile parade I would suggest that it could be made more successful next year by the addition of a detachment of those whose relatives or friends have been killed or injured by the reckless running of automobiles.

PRAISE FROM TURTLES.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: My Tribune told me one day this week that the plaint of the long suffering, much persecuted mud turtle had at last been heard by those omnipotent and omniscient legislators at Albany, those Christians who forsake the plough when duty calls and the holy water supply sources are dried up.

MORE TO BE PITIED THAN CENSURED.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: What heights of folly, frivolity and fool-braininess is worship of the pet dog coming! To-day's Tribune publishes an article relating to the practice of a birthday party for two Japanese puppies by their mistress. Several other women and their dogs attended the party.

ELEVATED TRAIN HOODLUMS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: For two successive Sundays now there have been striking incidents on the elevated tracks through New York City.

GIRL SORTER FINDS LETTER TO BROTHER THOUGHT DEAD.

Paterson, N. J., April 29 (Special)—Emma Juskeny is employed by the Erie Railroad as a packer. She had written to her sister, but as she was living in Lodi, five miles from Paterson.

JUNK BRINGS REUNION.

Lexington, Ky., April 29 (Special)—Julius Bauer, whose racing string is now at Sheepshead Bay, has signed Henry Macey, of this city, as jockey for three years.

VALUE OF CAMPBELL PROPERTY.

Paterson, N. J., April 29 (Special)—Action will be begun within the coming week in the Passaic County courts to prove that the estate of T. C. Campbell is not insolvent, as asserted by the appraisers, but is worth at least $250,000.

Horses and Carriages.

TO BE SOLD.—For general sale, from 11 to 13 o'clock, at the City of Jackson, Tenn., on May 1, 1905.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

WANTS THE OLD WAR SONG.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I have noticed in the papers considerable agitation in regard to having some of the lines in our national air, "The Star Spangled Banner," revised. What has prompted this in the minds of the proposers I cannot tell.

NEED OF IMMIGRATION ACTION.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: It seems to me that no thinking man who has read the newspapers for the last two months can be ignorant of the fact that the most serious problem confronting the nation at the present time is immigration.

SUGGESTION FOR "AUTO" PARADE.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: After reading your excellent account of the automobile parade I would suggest that it could be made more successful next year by the addition of a detachment of those whose relatives or friends have been killed or injured by the reckless running of automobiles.

PRAISE FROM TURTLES.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: My Tribune told me one day this week that the plaint of the long suffering, much persecuted mud turtle had at last been heard by those omnipotent and omniscient legislators at Albany, those Christians who forsake the plough when duty calls and the holy water supply sources are dried up.

MORE TO BE PITIED THAN CENSURED.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: What heights of folly, frivolity and fool-braininess is worship of the pet dog coming! To-day's Tribune publishes an article relating to the practice of a birthday party for two Japanese puppies by their mistress.

ELEVATED TRAIN HOODLUMS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: For two successive Sundays now there have been striking incidents on the elevated tracks through New York City.

GIRL SORTER FINDS LETTER TO BROTHER THOUGHT DEAD.

Paterson, N. J., April 29 (Special)—Emma Juskeny is employed by the Erie Railroad as a packer. She had written to her sister, but as she was living in Lodi, five miles from Paterson.

JUNK BRINGS REUNION.

Lexington, Ky., April 29 (Special)—Julius Bauer, whose racing string is now at Sheepshead Bay, has signed Henry Macey, of this city, as jockey for three years.

VALUE OF CAMPBELL PROPERTY.

Paterson, N. J., April 29 (Special)—Action will be begun within the coming week in the Passaic County courts to prove that the estate of T. C. Campbell is not insolvent, as asserted by the appraisers, but is worth at least $250,000.

Horses and Carriages.

TO BE SOLD.—For general sale, from 11 to 13 o'clock, at the City of Jackson, Tenn., on May 1, 1905.