

HONOR THE NATION'S DEAD
MARK SOLDIERS' GRAVES.

Services Held Throughout the City
—Veterans Turn Out.

Many war veterans' associations and various civic and patriotic bodies held services in memory of the nation's dead in various parts of Brooklyn yesterday. The greatest numbers of the Civil War veterans united with the veterans of the Spanish War, and both were assisted by organizations of the younger generation and by school children in graving the deeds of the dead and decorating their graves with flowers.

First on the day's programme was a high military mass on the grounds at the navy yard, under the auspices of the United Spanish War Veterans. The celebrant was the Rev. William H. T. Reaney, chaplain, U. S. N. Detachments from all the camps were present, in addition to a battalion of marines and detachments of sailors from all the war vessels at the yard. After a mass the graves in the naval cemetery on the hill were decorated.

Under auspices of the Thomas C. Devin Post, G. A. R., memorial services were held at the tomb of the Prison Ship Martyrs, in Fort Greene Park, at 2:30 a. m. Other organizations assisting were the Memorial and Executive Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Society of the Brooklynites, the Marine and Naval Veterans' Association, the 14th Regiment War Veterans' Association, the 1st Regiment, Knights of St. John and Malta; the orphans from St. Joseph's and St. John's homes and the children of Public School No. 5. Daniel J. Griffin presided, and the orator was Magistrate E. Gaston Higginbotham. Patriotic songs were rendered by the children and the tomb was strewn with flowers. Prayers were made by Father Peter Donohue, of St. James's Pro-Cathedral, and the Rev. Martin J. Lee, of St. Monica's Church, Jamaica.

At the National Cemetery, in Cypress Hills, services were held under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union at 2 p. m. Captain James S. Long was marshal of the parade, which marched down Jamaica street to the cemetery from East New York. Among the organizations in line were the American Volunteer Cadets, Brooklyn Council, Royal Arcanum; detachments from various Grand Army posts, the United States marine corps, the Spanish War Veterans and the Red Cross.

Father John P. Chidwick, the former chaplain of the battleship Maine, was the orator. Addresses were also made by National Commander Hugh Henry Harrison C. Gore and others.

The status of Abraham Lincoln in Prospect Park was the scene of a series of services in the morning. The Abraham Lincoln War Veterans' Association was the principal organization, and the orator was Wright and William Basset. In the afternoon services were held under the auspices of the 14th Regiment War Veterans' Association, G. A. R., and the memorial and executive committee of the G. A. R. Congressman George E. Wade presided, and the oration was delivered by Congressman Charles T. Dunwell. Music was furnished by the band of Devin Post. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. James A. Tappan, department chaplain, G. A. R., of the New York City.

Delegations from the various Grand Army posts and Spanish War Veterans camps spent the afternoon in Cypress Hills, Greenpoint, and other cemeteries decorating the graves of their departed comrades. In this cemetery from East New York, the various churches in the borough.

Representatives of Philip Kearny Post, G. A. R., decorated the grave of General Philip Kearny in old Trinity churchyard, and also marked the graves of the soldiers of the Revolutionary War, whose bodies rest there. A large wreath was placed on the grave of General Kearny. A wreath and three flags were placed on the grave of General Hamilton. The graves of General Clarkson, General Martinus Willem, Commander James Nicholson and William, were also decorated.

The Rev. E. S. Holloway, pastor of the Thirty-third Street Baptist Church, in the evening preached the annual Memorial sermon at the cemetery of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the following posts were represented: Anderson Williams Post, James C. Rice Post, John A. Post, James A. Post, Sumner Post, Hecker Post, James A. Wadsworth Post, John E. Bendig Post, the Anderson Association, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Association, the Sumner Relief Corps and the General Society Circle, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Another memorial service was held at the Church of St. Ambrose, in the evening. The Rev. Father Chidwick delivered an address on "Patriotism." There were present members of Farragut Post No. 12, R. C. Parham Post, Hancock Post, Naval Post No. 56, A. S. Williams Post and representatives from the Sumner Relief Corps and several other women's organizations.

A special service was held in the evening for Lafayette Post, G. A. R., at the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church. In all, about eighty members of the post were present. About eighty also representatives of the Daughters of Lafayette Post and of Lafayette Camp, Sons of Veterans.

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS.
President Roosevelt to Review
Brooklyn's Parade.

The chief civic affair in New York on Memorial Day, aside from the parade and review in Manhattan, will be the review in Brooklyn, which will be the only one at which President Roosevelt will be present. The parade will start at 10 a. m. and the Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, of the equestrian statue of General Slocum. Governor Higgins and Mayor George B. McClellan are also among those invited to take part in the exercises. The statue is to be unveiled by Miss Gertrude Slocum, the fifteen-year-old granddaughter of the general.

The President is to arrive on an early train tomorrow morning. He will be escorted to the Union League Club in Brooklyn, where he will meet the breakfast officers of the club, Park Commissioner and other officials, after which he will be driven to the reviewing stand near the statue. The Brooklyn branch of the Grand Army of the Republic will pass this time, and in the general orders issued President Roosevelt is designated as "Commanding Officer," accompanied by Governor Higgins and Mayor McClellan.

It is estimated that there will be between 15,000 and 20,000 men in the parade of the Grand Army of the Republic in Manhattan tomorrow. Colonel Joseph B. Lord is the grand marshal, with Albert H. Hines as chief of staff and adjutant general, aided by five adjutant generals. The first ceremony will be at 7:45 a. m., when the grand march will start and will receive and salute the national and State colors.

JEWES CELEBRATE "MEMORIAL DAY."
Maurice Blumenthal Argues Against Discrimination at Summer Resorts.

The annual "Memorial Day" celebration of the Young Folks' League, a Jewish charitable society of the upper West Side, was held yesterday afternoon at Terrace Garden. There were a large number present and Maurice Blumenthal delivered the oration of the afternoon on "Memorial Day." He argued against the discrimination which he said is practiced in the summer resorts—especially the summer resort hotels. The passport guarantee admission into any hotel or any public place in America, he said, should be holding more than the applicant's respectability, ability, and orderly deportment. Religion or nationality should have nothing to do with it.

$5,000 REWARD
will be paid for the recovery of the three pear shaped diamonds weighing 14 1/2, 12 1/2 and 11 1/2 carats respectively, taken from Tiffany & Co. since April 25th, 1905, and $5,000 Additional Reward for the arrest and conviction of the thief. Send all information to Stephen O'Brien, Chief of Detectives, Police Headquarters, New York City.

"AUTOS" A POLITICAL ISSUE
Jersey Farmers' Club Won't Support Candidate Owing a Machine.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)
Somerville, N. J., May 28.—Angered at the recent action of Governor Stokes in signing the Automobile bill passed by the New Jersey Legislature, permitting automobiles to be run at a maximum speed of twenty miles an hour on the public highways, the Farmers' Club, of Harlingen, which has more than one hundred members, yesterday pledged itself by a unanimous vote not to support any candidate for a political office who owns or runs an automobile.

TENOR FIGHTS BROKER.
Miss Russell's Leading Man Badly Punched in Broadway.

Stanley Hawkins, the tenor, who was leading man with Miss Lillian Russell in "Lady Teazle," and Sidney Snow, who said he was a broker, of No. 215 West 34th-st., got into a dispute in the Marlborough rathskeller at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, about the accidental knocking of the backs of each other's chairs. Hawkins was with a party, including some women. Snow had with him a party of men.

Hawkins, in declining Snow's apology, became so noisy that House Detective Madden ordered him to pay his check and get out. He went, but waited on the sidewalk for Snow, whom he struck as soon as he saw him. Snow is a much smaller man, but he is a member of the New York Athletic Club, and an amateur boxer. In the five minutes that the fight lasted he made Hawkins's face look like a raw beefsteak. The women screamed, and a crowd of a hundred or more collected. Policeman William took the principals to the 30th-st. station.

CONY'S GOOD SUNDAY.
Crowd of 200,000 Visits Resort—One Accident Reported.

The bright weather took crowds to the seashore yesterday. Coney Island was the centre of all attractions. More than two hundred thousand visitors were there. Along the Bay Ridge Shore Drive automobiles and Sunday promenaders opened the season, while Bath Beach hotels received their first quota of summer visitors. Brighton Beach, with the Boer war attraction, had a record day. The war feature was the only thing open there. The hotels will open this week.

Luna Park attracted crowds until late at night. From Port Jervis a twenty-car excursion train was run to that place. The up-Staters came by way of the Erie Railroad and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit line direct to the Park.

Rain added to the realism of the Boer war spectacle. Nearly eight thousand persons witnessed the battle scene. Bombs throwing off advertising signs were exploded, for the first time, over the war scene. The explosion caused considerable damage to every bomb, and a scramble for the bits of paper furnished enjoyment for the crowds. "The bombs were exploded by air pressure, the explosion taking place when the bomb reaches the air."

The police were sorely wanted in the afternoon when two men, Fred Galan, the alleged proprietor of a place at Parkway and West 2d-st., was charged with violation of the excise law. A revolver and blackjack were found on him. Detective Owens, who made the arrest, said the prisoner attempted to use the stick when he was told that the Sunday law had been violated.

RIOTING ON CONY ISLAND CAR.
Revolvers Flourished in Early Morning Fight with Special Police.

Revolvers were flourished in a fight on a train which left Coney Island at 2:32 o'clock yesterday morning, in which a number of passengers were more or less scratched and had their clothes torn. At Ulmer Park nearly a hundred young men and women got on board and took possession of the first car. They threatened to hurl the conductor from the train if he insisted on collecting fares.

A policeman attached to the Bath Beach Precinct was roundly criticized by the passengers for making no attempt to arrest the rioters. Brooklyn Rapid Transit detectives now guard all late trains.

SEVEN CUT IN STABBING AFFRAY.
A stabbing affray in Freeman-st., the Bronx, resulted in the taking of one man to Fordham Hospital seriously wounded, the finding of another man in Lebanon Hospital, and the arraignment of five men showing the effects of the fight before Magistrate Mayo in the Morrisania court.

Rocco Labella and Joseph Lombardi were chatting with Client Cornell in front of his shoe store at No. 1,658 Freeman-st., when four men came by and, according to the Italians, remarked, "Let's clean out the Dagoes." A fight was on at once and the Tremont station came up on the run. The men ran, all save Cornell, who was found wounded on the sidewalk.

The Wanamaker Store
Store Closes at 5:30 o'clock
A Whole Holiday—or a Half?
A whole day's time, and a half day's pleasure, may be the penalty of half preparation. WANAMAKER'S can help you in everything, except the groceries—satisfactorily, quickly, and at least cost.

A Tale of Homespun— WOMEN'S SUITS

Another paradox. Lately we have dealt in paradoxes—true stories of apparently impossible but accurately exact trade-winning bargains. The credulity of faith will be needed as you read this. It is a tale in three parts:
First: Honest Homespun. That's the cloth. Several weaves: plaids, checks, twills, bagging. Gray colors—shades for service in travel, on the street, at business.
Second: Good tailoring, long coats, plaited skirts, latest form, good seams, expert finish, the sort known only to the best retail trade. Critical women will perceive and approve.
Third: Cheapness curious, strange, possibly only here. Don't bother to think it out. That's our business. But the fact that these suits (three hundred) are to be sold

Second floor, Broadway.

At Ten Dollars
which is a straight reduction of Eight Dollars. Their duplicates were Eighteen Dollars.

Between WANAMAKER'S and the New York Public the time has passed when argument, reasoning, explanation concerning the most unusual bargain is necessary. Our statements and goods at prices to prove them are all that is needed. So it will result in the present case. These three hundred suits have been made within the last ten days. Hence style-lateness. We couldn't do it if confidence had not created concentration that makes market masters of our managers.

BLUE SERGE SUITS
For Comfortable Men

Don't make the mistake of going away tomorrow with a heavy suit—you will regret it a hundred times, and spoil the pleasure of the outing. There is no other suit as comfortable, appropriate and serviceable for such occasions as the blue serge. Wanamaker serge suits are absolutely pure worsted, and in fact colors, which have been thoroughly tested. The goods are shrunken before the cloth is cut, the tailoring is carefully done, and the suits, although made up in the lightest possible way, hold their shape as ordinary ready-made suits do not. They are made in single and double-breasted styles. Cut over the very latest model, fully guaranteed in every way, which means a new suit if yours should prove unsatisfactory. $15 a suit.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Men's Imported White Madras Shirts
This announcement presents the finest and handsomest White Madras Negligee Shirts that are made. They come from two of our best foreign shirtmakers. The fabrics are specially woven, the bosoms are plaited, and the shirtmaking throughout is of the very highest character known to the craft.

With plaited bosoms and attached cuffs, at $3; with detached cuffs, $2.50.
Broadway and Ninth street.

Men's Cool Union Suits
Proportioned to fit. That expresses comfort. And here are some other ways to say it: Cool, ventilating, light. And the laundry cannot alter these qualities.

To insure you a comfortable Summer:
At $1 each—Of ecru cotton, with long or short sleeves, in ankle length; also short sleeves, knee length.
At $1.75 each—Of white or ecru ribbed listle thread.
At $2 each—Of fine gage, extra light weight, white ribbed listle thread, with short sleeves, in knee or ankle length.
At $2 each—Of white ribbed mercerized listle thread. Ninth street.

A Sale of FINE PARASOLS
Every woman wants a new Parasol tomorrow, as a matter of course; and, if it is not already provided, the remarkable opportunity which this word announces will be broadly welcomed.

The collection includes practically all the favored models brought out this season. There are Lingerie Parasols to be carried when lingerie dresses are worn. There are Checked Parasols for checked silk dresses; Pongee Parasols for pongee dresses; Silk Taffeta Parasols to correspond with all the new shades of these popular silks. The season makes an unusual demand for parasols to correspond with every dress, and for that reason the exceptionally low prices offered today will be appreciated. The groups are as follows:

At $1.50 each—Pongee Parasols with hemstitched borders of colored taffeta silk. Also White Linen Parasols with hemstitched borders.
At $1.90 each—All-silk Taffeta Parasols with hemstitched borders; and Checked Silk Top Parasols, with colored hemstitched borders.
At $2.50 each—All-silk Taffeta Parasols, embroidered and plaited. Embroidered Pongee Parasols and Lingerie Parasols.
Also a collection of Imported Parasols, worth $10 to $15, now at $7 to $10.
Ninth street aisle.

A Word About Our Straw Hats
Before you start away this evening make it a point to have a straw hat—a smart, correct piece of headwear. We have the most varied assortment of good straw hats in New York. And at the most moderate cost.

See these—then judge:
Sennit Straws, the popular hats of the season, $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50 and $3. 2 1/2-inch crowns and 1 1/2-inch brims, to 3 1/2-inch crowns and brims in proportion, for large men.

A brilliant assortment in light evening shades, elaborately trimmed. Some copies of Paris models, $5 to $30.
Rotunda Balcony, Second floor.

NO POLITICS IN ELECTION.
The yachtmen and summer residents of Larchmont are going to bar politics from their annual village election, which is to be held on June 20.

The administration of E. L. Hopkins as village president has been so highly progressive and satisfactory to every one that, although he was elected a year ago as a Republican, the Democrats at their convention last Friday night, endorsed him unanimously. The Republican convention will be held this evening, when the ticket agreed on by both parties will be ratified. The nominees are E. L. Hopkins for president, E. S. A. De Lima for village trustee and Joseph Bird for treasurer. Mr. Bird is president of the Manhattan Savings Institution, in this city.

The only contest will be for the office of Tax Receiver, which is the only salaried elective office in the village. The Democrats have nominated John Hickey, the motorman on the trolley car running from the railroad station to the yacht club. Hickey's opponent will be R. E. Dewitt, agent at the Larchmont railroad station. The result will be purely a question of personal popularity.

The Under-Price Store

One Thousand Negligee Shirts—50c Each
Of MADRAS

Of this splendid collection seven hundred and fifty of the Shirts were made specially for us. Light grounds prevail. The quality of the printed madras in this group is such as may be found in the usual $1 shirts. The remainder—two hundred and fifty—are in dark and light-colored madras, and bear the trade-mark of a well-known shirt-making concern. $1 and $1.50 are the prices at which these shirts are sometimes sold elsewhere. All are plain negligee, well made, and with neat, pretty designs. Detachable cuffs. Sizes 14 to 17. $1 and $1.50 shirts, at 50c each. Basement.

Men's Collars, 50c a Half-Dozen
Cuffs, 75c a Half-Dozen

One of the most prominent Troy manufacturers sold us this fine collection. Now there's a strike in Troy—and he's sorry—that he doesn't still own them. Yours is the gain. All the new styles for Summer wear are included—wing, standing, lock-front and turn-over collars. Sizes 14 to 18. Six for 50c. Men's Cuffs of the same quality, in straight button style, with round or square corners; also single bar link, with round or square corners. Sizes 10 to 11 1/2. In lots of a half-dozen only, at 75c. Basement.

Fifteen Thousand Yards
Of 12 1/2c Cotton Voiles at 6 1/2c
Mixed Colors

This is an excellent material for walking and outing suits, and we consider it a piece of rare fortune to be able to sell this fabric at such an absurdly low price. It is somewhat similar to the popular French Melange Voiles. It will plait nicely, owing to its crispness, wear well and is very stylish in appearance. Indeed, its stylishness and fine wearing qualities recommend it strongly for out-of-town wear. In dark blue, royal blue, brown, tan, light olive and gray—all mixed with white threads. 6-1-2c a yard, worth 12 1/2c. Basement.

50c Linen-and-Cotton
Dress Goods at 15c a Yard

Black, pink and green. 27 inches wide. For outing suits. Beautiful. Serviceable. This is a half linen and mercerized cotton fabric woven with a raised cord. The lustrous effect is caused by the linen filling and the highly mercerized cotton warp. At less than one-third its worth. The lot is small—shrewd women will heed. 15c a yard, worth 50c. Basement.

Mercerized Cotton Madras
At 15c a Yard, worth 50c

For women who have in mind the making of shirt-waist or outing suit this offering affords a splendid chance. This fabric is a fancy figured madras in a strong weave—a quality made to sell for 50c a yard. The colors are gray, pink and tan with Jacquard figures of white. 27 inches wide. The lot is small—and will sell quickly. 15c a yard, worth 50c. Basement.

Japanese Mattings at Half Price
$6 a Roll, worth $12

Handsome, soft-treading Japanese Mattings are the ideal floor-covering for Summer homes. They are cool and lend a refined air to any room in the house. Twenty attractive patterns, in reds, greens and blues. Forty yards to the roll. The regular price of these goods is $12 a roll—and now, right at the beginning of the season, we offer them for $6 a roll, instead of $12. Sold only by the roll of forty yards. Basement.

SHOOTS GIRL HE LOVED.
Spurned Suitor Kills Himself After Attempt at Murder.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)
Flatfield, N. J., May 28.—Failing to win the girl he loved, Frank Huber, forty-one years old, tried to kill Miss Louise Kremer, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kremer, at their home in Fanwood this morning, and soon afterward committed suicide in the woods on the side of Watchung Mountains, a quarter of a mile away. Miss Kremer is now at Mulholland Hospital, this city, with slight chances of recovery. Several months ago Huber obtained a position in the Walter Scott printing machine works, and Charles Kremer, the girl's father, who is employed at the same place, offered to board him. Huber became infatuated with Kremer's daughter. The young woman declared she did not care for him and rebuked him several times. Huber then grew sullen, but did not abandon hope of winning the girl's love. Yesterday Huber went to Newark and bought a revolver. While the girl was preparing for a trip to Coney Island this morning Huber confronted her and at the muzzle of the revolver asked her to marry him. Turning her back on him, Miss Kremer declared she would not. Huber fired twice. The first shot missed and lodged in the wall, but the second one entered the back of the girl's neck and following a zigzag course, came out on the side of her right cheek. Soon after shooting the girl the would-be murderer ran from the house to the Mountain-ape bridge, where he partly dressed. He remained but a minute, however, and then went into the woods, where he shot himself twice in the head.

NO RACES ALLOWED AT VAILSBURG.
The Yale Wheelmen had intended to run a ten mile race for amateurs yesterday at the Vailsburg cycle track, in Newark, but Captain Vogel, of the 4th Precinct, stationed two policemen at the gates with orders to keep every one out. A few men and boys tried to enter, as it had been announced that no admission would be charged, but were stopped by the police.
