

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

AT NEW-JERSEY "FED."

Brutalizing Effect of Capital Punishment Discussed.

Passaic, N. J., May 31.—For the first time in the career of fourteen years the Monday Afternoon Club, of Passaic, entertained the New-Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs...

THE LESSON OF BALZAC.

Henry James's Lecture Before League for Political Education.

Standing behind a high table covered with a red cloth, like a prestidigitator behind his wonder-working outfit, wearing a white tie and a white waistcoat, with one hand continually in his trousers...

WANTED AGAINST FRAUDS.

Once again Tribune readers are reminded that the Tribune Society does not authorize canvassers or collectors to solicit money. Persons pretending to have such authority are frauds and should be reported accordingly.

MONEY RECEIVED.

Mrs. Lathrop, treasurer of the Mayflower Branch, of New-Haven, Conn., has sent $5 for ten more badges; Mrs. Mary Greenleaf, $3, for used as "little helps"; Mrs. Annie J. Hatfield, of Manhattan, $1, as T. S. S. dues and 50 cents for a badge; Mrs. Annie C. Bagley, of Maine, $1, for expenses.

HOME GARDEN BRANCH.

In order to understand the work of the home garden branch it is necessary to know something of its environment. We are situated in the Italian quarter of the upper East Side known as "Little Italy." It is not because the people there are worse than others that the law of life is the "survival of the fittest" and that the generally accepted fact among the children is that "might constitutes right."

Removal Auction Sale.

REED & BARTON CO.

Silversmiths—41 Union Square.

C. H. LUENGENE, Auctioneer.

Will sell the entire stock of goods not to be moved to the new Reed & Barton store on Fifth Avenue.

Thousands of dollars' worth of High Grade Silver Plated Tea and Table Services, Fruit and Berry Bowls, Odd and Beautiful Novelties.

Knives, Forks, Spoons, Ladles and Flat Ware Pieces of every description.

Also a moderate quantity of Sterling Silver Ware. An exceptional opportunity for the private purchaser, as well as Hotel and Cafe Proprietors, to replenish stock.

Notes: Every article guaranteed made by Reed & Barton, and in every way up to their well known standard.

SALE OPENS: Thursday, June 1st, 12 Noon to 5 P. M.

Each Day Thereafter Until Entire Stock is Sold.

Are You Looking for Board Rooms?

The New-York Tribune's Information Bureau, at its Uptown Office, 1,364 Broadway, has on file all the better class Boarding Houses and Room Houses.

FREE information as to prices and localities.

Hunyadi Janos

The Natural Laxative Water was awarded the Grand Prize at the St. Louis Exposition, 1904, for its Purity and Excellence.

FOR CONSTIPATION

During the last year the little boys made scrap-

WHITE ROSE APRON SALE.

Pretty Work Turned Out by Classes of Colored Settlement.

The apron sale which was held yesterday at the White Rose Working Girls' Home, the colored settlement at No. 217 East 86th-st., was, as well, an exhibition of the work done during the past winter in the Mothers' Club and the little girls' sewing class. Every member made two articles of a kind, one for herself and one for the sale, with the result that several dozens of aprons, besides pretty flannel nightgowns, petticoats, laundry bags, dustcaps and shoe bags might have been bought there yesterday.

WOMEN HONOR MRS. DECKER.

Only Members of Co-operating Clubs Invited to Reception.

For the first time in the history of women's clubs the presidents of the General Federation, the New-York State and the New-York City federations will stand side by side to-morrow afternoon in the receiving line at a reception which is to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria. The affair is in honor of Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, of Denver, president of the General Federation, and besides Mrs. Philip Carpenter and Mrs. Belle de Rivera, presidents of the State and City federations, respectively, the receiving party will include Mrs. Charlotte B. Wilbour, president of Sorosis; Mrs. A. J. Wilson, section chairman, and Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake, of the National Legislative League.

DE W. ALTMAN TAKEN TO SANATORIUM.

Is Violent, and Has to Be Restrained When Removed from Bellevue.

De Witt Altman, of Albany, who became violent at the Netherlands Hotel as he was about to register with his bride on Tuesday, was removed from the psychiatric ward of Bellevue Hospital yesterday by his brother and taken to Stamford, Conn., in a big touring car. The patient still showed signs of a disordered mind and attacked Dr. E. Barnes, of a sanatorium at Stamford, kicking and striking at him. A restraining belt was applied, and he was carried to the touring car. He was taken to the sanatorium. De Witt Altman was not at the hospital. Her husband cried aloud for "just one more sight of her face."

BISHOP POTTER PLANS OUTINGS.

East Side Women and Children to Visit Cathedral Grounds this Summer.

The grounds surrounding the Cathedral of St. John the Divine are now being cleared, and in about two weeks it is expected that they will be in condition to receive the first of the excursions from the East Side which are to be taken there through the summer. Every Sunday afternoon it is planned to take about three hundred women and children from the pro-cathedral parish in Stanton-st. up to the cathedral grounds for a "few hours" of open air and sunshine. At 5 o'clock a service will be held in the crypt of the cathedral, but no attempt will be made to force any one to attend against his will. In connection with these parties Bishop Potter hopes to obtain for the children and women of the East Side some relief from the heat of the streets, and give to them a fundamental idea of Judaism in any of the public parks. Canon Gillis, who will be in charge, has $400—the income of an anonymous fund—with which to pay the cartages to and from the grounds, so that the outing will cost nothing.

CALLS CHILDREN PARK VANDALS.

Complainant Says They Destroyed Many Flowers on Memorial Day.

Complaint of the laxity of the police in protecting plants from the street Arabs in Central Park on Memorial Day has been received by the Tribune from E. M. Benham, of No. 1 West 83-st. Mr. Benham declared:

In one corner of the park crowds of little wild Indians tore the flowers from the bushes and trees, only to throw them away and trample on them. For months the plants will not recover from barbarous treatment. A policeman on horseback turned his back on the depredators when I protested to him, and told me he didn't see them.

When the complaint was brought to the attention of Captain James R. Dillon, who has charge of the police in the park, he said:

I understand that there were nearly one hundred thousand children in the park yesterday. Everything was done to prevent the plants from suffering damage.

TO TRY ARMITAGE MATHEWS SOON.

District Attorney Has Weisell Estate Cases Transferred from General Sessions.

Justice Davy yesterday transferred from the Court of General Sessions to the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court the cases of Armitage Mathews, John W. Wootton and Samuel E. Ferguson, who were indicted for conspiracy and grand larceny in the alleged looting of the William Weisell estate. The cases are on for pleading to-day and District Attorney Jerome, it is understood, will move for trial early this month.

Mr. Jerome was asked yesterday if he would reply to the attack made on him Monday night by Abraham Gruber, in connection with the indictment of Mr. Mathews, and he said: "I can get down to the level of a fellow like that by entering into an altercation with him."

"SIMPLE LIFE" NOT OF DRESS.

"A Quality of Soul, Its Antonymy Duplicity." Professor Jones Tells Quaker Meeting.

The New-York yearly meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, the Hicksite or Unitarian body, continued yesterday afternoon in its meeting house at Rutherford Place and East 15th-st. In the afternoon the meeting was under the direction of the Committee on Extension of Friends' Principles, and an address was delivered on "Quakerism and the Simple Life," by Rufus M. Jones, professor of philosophy in Haverford College, Haverford, of the Orthodox Society of Friends.

The speaker, in his introduction, expressed his gratification at the opportunity of addressing the meeting, and expressed the hope that in the future the two branches of Friends might come to be more and more closely associated.

He thought that Mr. Wagner's genius was displayed chiefly in inventing the one phrase that has become a motto rather than in the actual contents of the book. "And that phrase," he said, expresses what has been a fundamental idea of Quakerism for over two hundred years. The simple life is not a matter of cost or lack of language, not of garb or personal neatness—it is a "quality of soul, its antonymy is duplicity. There cannot be the simple life without honesty of heart and purpose."

NEW MARKET TRAIN SERVICE.

A new daily market train running from Long Island City to Hammels and points on Rockaway Beach was started yesterday on the Long Island Railroad. The train carries market garden truck and other perishable freight to the market along the beach. The train starts from Long Island City before 6 o'clock in the morning, and reaches Rockaway Beach in time for the morning markets.

EXCURSION TO LAKE HOPATCONG.

The Central Railroad of New-Jersey announces one of its low priced excursions to Lake Hopatcong, on Sunday, June 4. The railroad fare for New-York will be $1. The special train leaves the foot of Liberty-st., New-York, at 8:30 a. m.

books for the Laura Franklin Hospital, and the girls presented Christmas cards and bags of candy to the children in the Harlem Hospital. The children were permitted to visit the patients and give the presents themselves, which added to their enjoyment.

Scrapbooks were also made for a mission in British Columbia, and flowers, fruit and delicacies taken to the sick.

Our friends are always ready to respond to any appeal for help, and our Sunday school, which now averages about seventy children a Sunday, gave $10 to the mission last year.

A thousand and one acts of kindness which cannot be recorded have been performed by our boys and girls. And to no one has the Tribune Sunshine Society been a greater blessing than to these boys and girls of the towering tenements of the upper East Side.

THANKS FOR HELP. Mrs. Mary Walden, of Kansas, whose mother is dying with cancer, in acknowledging with thanks the money specially contributed for her and sent through the general office, writes: "When the money came it was sorely needed. Mother has to have so much medicine and it is hard to deny her little things she craves. You have been kind to me, and the loving Heavenly Father will not forget."

FLORAL CHEER. Rosemary writes: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

ROSEMARY WRITES: "Radiant sunshine flashed upon me to-day in a large box of fragrant moss roses from North Carolina, packed by the loving hands of Mrs. M. M. Smith, aged eighty-two, to whom I offer my most tender thanks."

CONTRIBUTIONS. The following contributions of cheer have been received: A box of clothing from "Traveller"; a package of girls' clothing from Waterford, N. Y.; packages of wool from three different friends; the contents to be distributed among those who have volunteered to knit for Sunshine; illustrated magazines from Newburg; flower magazines without addresses; a book as a birthday greeting for Mrs. Morton, of Connecticut, which has been forwarded; greetings from "The Sun" and "The Evening Star" from California and from Montana; poems from John Krell.

LEWIS & CLINGER

The Largest and Best-Equipped

Housefurnishing Warehouses

Best Quality Goods Only

Eddy Refrigerators

Our Standard for a Quarter of a Century

The "Premier"

Class-Linked Refrigerator, perfection of cleanliness and economy.

Orders by mail receive prompt and careful attention.

130 and 132 West 42d Street, and 135 West Forty-first St., New York.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN GODDARD.

Church Is Filled by His Friends—President Roosevelt Sends Flowers.

A large number of people, representing all walks of life, attended the funeral of Captain F. Norton Goddard, politician, reformer and martyr, held yesterday at All Souls' Unitarian Church, 4th-avenue, and 20th-st. The floral pieces sent by the various organizations, social and political, of which Captain Goddard had been a member were many and beautiful. President Roosevelt sent a sheaf of lilies and roses, backed by ferns and palm leaves.

DE W. ALTMAN TAKEN TO SANATORIUM.

Is Violent, and Has to Be Restrained When Removed from Bellevue.

De Witt Altman, of Albany, who became violent at the Netherlands Hotel as he was about to register with his bride on Tuesday, was removed from the psychiatric ward of Bellevue Hospital yesterday by his brother and taken to Stamford, Conn., in a big touring car. The patient still showed signs of a disordered mind and attacked Dr. E. Barnes, of a sanatorium at Stamford, kicking and striking at him. A restraining belt was applied, and he was carried to the touring car. He was taken to the sanatorium. De Witt Altman was not at the hospital. Her husband cried aloud for "just one more sight of her face."

BISHOP POTTER PLANS OUTINGS.

East Side Women and Children to Visit Cathedral Grounds this Summer.

The grounds surrounding the Cathedral of St. John the Divine are now being cleared, and in about two weeks it is expected that they will be in condition to receive the first of the excursions from the East Side which are to be taken there through the summer. Every Sunday afternoon it is planned to take about three hundred women and children from the pro-cathedral parish in Stanton-st. up to the cathedral grounds for a "few hours" of open air and sunshine. At 5 o'clock a service will be held in the crypt of the cathedral, but no attempt will be made to force any one to attend against his will. In connection with these parties Bishop Potter hopes to obtain for the children and women of the East Side some relief from the heat of the streets, and give to them a fundamental idea of Judaism in any of the public parks. Canon Gillis, who will be in charge, has $400—the income of an anonymous fund—with which to pay the cartages to and from the grounds, so that the outing will cost nothing.

CALLS CHILDREN PARK VANDALS.

Complainant Says They Destroyed Many Flowers on Memorial Day.

Complaint of the laxity of the police in protecting plants from the street Arabs in Central Park on Memorial Day has been received by the Tribune from E. M. Benham, of No. 1 West 83-st. Mr. Benham declared:

In one corner of the park crowds of little wild Indians tore the flowers from the bushes and trees, only to throw them away and trample on them. For months the plants will not recover from barbarous treatment. A policeman on horseback turned his back on the depredators when I protested to him, and told me he didn't see them.

When the complaint was brought to the attention of Captain James R. Dillon, who has charge of the police in the park, he said:

I understand that there were nearly one hundred thousand children in the park yesterday. Everything was done to prevent the plants from suffering damage.

TO TRY ARMITAGE MATHEWS SOON.

District Attorney Has Weisell Estate Cases Transferred from General Sessions.

Justice Davy yesterday transferred from the Court of General Sessions to the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court the cases of Armitage Mathews, John W. Wootton and Samuel E. Ferguson, who were indicted for conspiracy and grand larceny in the alleged looting of the William Weisell estate. The cases are on for pleading to-day and District Attorney Jerome, it is understood, will move for trial early this month.

Mr. Jerome was asked yesterday if he would reply to the attack made on him Monday night by Abraham Gruber, in connection with the indictment of Mr. Mathews, and he said: "I can get down to the level of a fellow like that by entering into an altercation with him."

"SIMPLE LIFE" NOT OF DRESS.

"A Quality of Soul, Its Antonymy Duplicity." Professor Jones Tells Quaker Meeting.

The New-York yearly meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, the Hicksite or Unitarian body, continued yesterday afternoon in its meeting house at Rutherford Place and East 15th-st. In the afternoon the meeting was under the direction of the Committee on Extension of Friends' Principles, and an address was delivered on "Quakerism and the Simple Life," by Rufus M. Jones, professor of philosophy in Haverford College, Haverford, of the Orthodox Society of Friends.

The speaker, in his introduction, expressed his gratification at the opportunity of addressing the meeting, and expressed the hope that in the future the two branches of Friends might come to be more and more closely associated.

He thought that Mr. Wagner's genius was displayed chiefly in inventing the one phrase that has become a motto rather than in the actual contents of the book. "And that phrase," he said, expresses what has been a fundamental idea of Quakerism for over two hundred years. The simple life is not a matter of cost or lack of language, not of garb or personal neatness—it is a "quality of soul, its antonymy is duplicity. There cannot be the simple life without honesty of heart and purpose."

NEW MARKET TRAIN SERVICE.

A new daily market train running from Long Island City to Hammels and points on Rockaway Beach was started yesterday on the Long Island Railroad. The train carries market garden truck and other perishable freight to the market along the beach. The train starts from Long Island City before 6 o'clock in the morning, and reaches Rockaway Beach in time for the morning markets.

EXCURSION TO LAKE HOPATCONG.

The Central Railroad of New-Jersey announces one of its low priced excursions to Lake Hopatcong, on Sunday, June 4. The railroad fare for New-York will be $1. The special train leaves the foot of Liberty-st., New-York, at 8:30 a. m.

W