Simpson Crawford Co.

(SIXTH AVE. IS TO 20th STREETS.)

The biggest sensation ever created on the New York Stock Exchange outrivalled to-morrow by this tremendous sale of $3.50 Kneipp pure linen mesh underwear for men, $1.50.

TWELVE THOUSAND cool, perfect Summer weight garments of absolutely pure linen sold to Simpson Crawford Co. at less than half price by a prominent New York importer, formerly sole agent for the Kneipp underwear in America. The manufacturers transferred the account to another importer. This action impelled the former representative to clear out every garment right at the beginning of the season, and he offered his entire stock to this store because of our mammoth successful sales in the past. Every garment was made especially for the present Summer. The sale will continue until the 12,000 are disposed of.

It is the biggest individual purchase ever made by any house in America. The price concession was greater than any ever granted before. The quality of the merchandise is the highest of any underwear ever sold under like circumstances. Years ago, Father Kneipp, a noted German priest, discovered the health-giving properties of linen underwear, and year after year it has been improved, until to-day it has reached a state of perfection. Costs more to manufacture than any other underwear, while the buttons are mother of pearl. The shirts have long or short sleeves, the former having extra fine ribbed cuffs. The drawers have double-strength bicycle seats. All seams are double felled, preventing irritation and their pulling apart.

Extraordinary sale of men's $1 negligee shirts at 68c; $1.50 white plaited shirts at $1, and 65c fine, cool cambric night shirts at 39c.
