TO CATCH BOGUS VOTERS. Army of Policemen Watch Philadelphia Election Assessors.

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—The city election assessors, who number more than eleven hundred, opened the various polling places in this city today for the purpose of making additions and corrections to the voting lists for the November election.

The assessors will continue their sittings tomorrow. Under the law, the assessors are bound to add to the list the name of any citizen who makes personal application.

The Republican organization holds the opposite view, and says that a voter can make application to the assessor in writing or by proxy.

The work of the assessors is attracting unusual attention, because of the charges of election frauds and extraordinary padding of the voting lists with names of fictitious voters.

The Police Department has prepared a list of more than sixty thousand alleged bogus names. An affidavit has been obtained in each case, and these were presented to the various assessors when the demand was made to strike them from the lists.

DYNAMITERS OWN UP. Say Farmers Bribed Them to Blow Up Ohio Reservoir.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, Sept. 5.—Riley Colton and Parker, the two reservoir dynamiters, who were the tools for others, have made a confession to the prosecuting attorney and the officers now have the same in writing.

The story goes that Colton says that he was hired by one of the wealthy farmers under arrest, who came to him last spring, about a year after the first attempt, and repeatedly offered him $150 to blow up the gates, and he finally accepted.

This farmer, he says, represented a number of farmers who assembled at Montezuma, and there laid the plot. He says that the dynamite was stolen from Montezuma.

The prisoners in the confession mentioned the names of a dozen farmers who were in the plot, and in this way the officers located the persons who were arrested.

This morning, prior to the preliminary hearing, Fred Behrens and C. J. Haesecker, two farmers arrested, were dismissed for lack of evidence. Isaac Sheely, John Sheely and Lee Sheely were examined, and the bond of $5,000 each was continued. They were bound over to the grand jury.

THE CITY PAYS ITS INDIGENT BLIND. Joking Crowd of Afflicted Persons Assemble to Receive Annual Stipend.

Two paymasters from the city paymaster's office today paid off the indigent blind of the city at the office of Superintendent Meeks, on the Charities Department pier, in East 96th-st. Each person received $3.

Long before the paymasters took their places at the pay window 400 blind persons had assembled on the wharf. While waiting for their turn the city's wards joked with each other, making such remarks as "Now look straight ahead," "Pat, I've found your cane," and "Be careful when you count your money."

BOSTON HAS 500 TONS OF FISH. Million Pounds Aggregate of Fresh Fish Was Landings.

Boston, Sept. 5.—For the third time this season a million pounds aggregate of fresh fish was landed at the wharves today. Thirty-two fishing schooners brought in a total of 1,122,200 pounds. The best prices of the season for a large market prevailed.

BEATEN, DRINKS ACID. Wife Seeks Death After Alleged Cruelty of Husband.

Driven desperate by the alleged brutal treatment of her husband and by the lack of food for her four little children, Mrs. Gabrielle Marcano, 25 years old, of No. 510 East 116th-st., attempted suicide yesterday at her home by taking carbolic acid.

MARSHALL IN THE TOMBS. Alleged Pittsburg Insurance Swindler Held in $2,000 Bail.

Arthur G. Marshall, alleged insurance swindler, who was arrested at No. 2 Manhattan-ave. on Monday night at the request of the Pittsburg police authorities, was photographed for the Rogues' Gallery at Police Headquarters yesterday morning and subjected to the scrutiny of the detectives there.

The police have taken before Magistrate Breen, in the Tombs police court, where Detective Sergeant McConville made a short affidavit accusing the prisoner of being a fugitive from justice.

Moses H. Grossman, Marshall's counsel, attacked the affidavit as not in keeping with legal procedure, inasmuch as no criminal act was charged, and McConville showed Magistrate Breen a dispatch from Chief of Police McQuade, of Pittsburg, stating that Marshall was wanted for "embezzlement, forgery and perjury."

By advice of the Magistrate the detective made a new affidavit, alleging, on information and belief, that Marshall was "a fugitive from justice, charged with the larceny of $750." Mr. Grossman attacked the second affidavit, and also said that the police have the right to make an arrest when it is believed that a felon has been committed to the extent of breaking into one's home, said Magistrate Breen.

"In every similar case I have had the holding of the court has been reversed," said Mr. Grossman. "Well," said Magistrate Breen, "if you reverse me in this instance, I'll never find another prisoner in this way. I will hold the prisoner in $2,000 bail for examination to-morrow at 2 o'clock."

Police Headquarters yesterday morning Marshall admitted his identity, but said he was not guilty of the charges against him. His daughter, he said, would stay in the care of Carl W. Appella, a brother Knight of Pythias, at No. 2 Manhattan-ave.

According to information received in the detective bureau, Marshall and Frank D. Dunbar started some bogus insurance companies in Pittsburg, of which they were president, treasurer and all the other officers rolled together, and, with the aid of agents, they collected premiums on worthless insurance policies of a face value of about $200,000.

The swindle was exposed, it is said, by a suit brought by Silas M. Kunkle, a Pittsburg section hand, who was locked up in the Tombs in connection with the case. A receiver for the company was appointed, and Marshall and Dunbar disappeared from Pittsburg. Dunbar had not been caught, according to the latest advice from Pittsburg.

FELL AFTER GETTING DEATH NEWS. Aerialist Says His Mind Was a Blank After Learning Mother Was Dead.

When Ernest Clarke, the aerial performer at the Hippodrome, executed the triple somersault and "twister" at the matinee yesterday, he missed the outstretched hands of his brother, the "catcher," by almost a foot, and fell heavily into the net below. He lay as if stunned for several seconds, then mounted dejectedly to the lofty perch, accomplished the feat successfully, and dashed off the stage in tears.

News of the death in Boulogne, France, of Mrs. Charles Clarke, mother of the three Clarke boys, reached the playhouse as two of the brothers entered their rigging yesterday afternoon, and there they learned of their bereavement. Ernest said later that he had finished his perilous exhibition in a mental blank. He remembered nothing of his fall and nothing of his precipitate exit.

The Clarkes had bravely recovered their composure last night, and went through their act with grim fortitude. Their father is still alive. He was a famous foreign circus man years ago. A sister married "Volvo the Volant," who, in private life, is a practicing physician.

Janette Marbury has become one of the "freaks" in "A Yankee Circus on Mars" at the Hippodrome. She has just worked her way back to America from the McCadden circus, which was stranded in France. Miss Marbury is the "mystery link."

RUSSIAN COLONY IN CALIFORNIA. Los Angeles, Sept. 5.—The Rancho Guadalupe, comprising 13,000 acres of tillable soil and wooded lands in Lower California, has been sold to 104 Russian families through a Los Angeles agency.

The immigrants propose to establish on their purchase a Russian colony for the raising of stock and grain and the milling of cereals. Water is to be developed at considerable cost and a town laid out.

TIFFANY & CO.'S NEW BUILDING. At 5th-ave. and 37th-st., which was opened yesterday.

Tiffany & Co. opened for business yesterday the new building at 5th-ave. and 37th-st. This marble structure is a beautiful example of Venetian architecture and is an ornament to the avenue. As early as 8:15 a. m., a quarter of an hour before opening time, many women were waiting at the doors, each anxious to be the first purchaser at the new establishment.

The first sale was made to a new customer, whose name was not given, who paid $6,75 for two diamond corsage ornaments. For the most part, however, the Tiffany patrons were the men and women who came merely on a visit of inspection. The visitors looked over the many interesting objects with the same freedom as in a museum.

THE IRISH WAREHOUSE SCANDAL STORY DENIED. Romance of University Settlement Declared Without Foundation.

Emphatic denial was made yesterday by Professor James H. Hamilton, of the University Settlement, to the story printed yesterday which charged that all sorts of scandalous proceedings had taken place at the Settlement. The story particularly involved the former assistant headworker, Kellogg Durland; W. Patten Behrens, a reporter for a local paper, who had conducted a class of boys at the Settlement, and Miss Edna McCaughy, of No. 2 West 49th-st., who had charge of the girls' clubs at the Settlement.

Professor Hamilton declared that, while all three had left the Settlement, this had not been due to any of the alleged scandals. He scouted the notion that Durland had fled to escape the threatened violence of Miss McCaughy's friends, and said that he was at Woodbine, N. J., investigating the Jewish school there. He declared that so far as he knew none of the alleged disgraceful proceedings had ever taken place, and that he knew of nothing reflecting upon the character of any of the persons whose names were used in connection with the story.

Professor Hamilton said that he would refer the matter to the settlement council, which Henry W. Taft is president, for investigation. It is the belief of those connected with the Settlement that the story was put out as the result of a private quarrel between Durland and Behrens. Durland is a young Harvard graduate, formerly in charge of the Boston House of Housers, a resident of the South End House in Boston. He is also a writer on "East Side problems." He was best man at the wedding of J. G. Phelps Stokes and Rose Pastor, and, it is charged, was engaged to Miss McCaughy, a charge generally disbelieved at the Settlement.

The various details of scandal connected with the Settlement file are declared by absolute unimpeachable authority to be a matter of fact neither Behrens nor Miss McCaughy lived at the Settlement at any time. Professor Hamilton said:

I wish to deny most positively that there is any truth in the story of wine suppers in the residents' rooms. Nothing of this kind ever happens. The meals are always taken in the common dining room in the usual way. There is nothing in our manner of living to excite comment of any sort. The story of a pajama dance is absolutely false. It has been carefully investigated and there is not a particle of truth in it.

CONKEY ISLAND'S MARDI GRAS. Ex-Senator William H. Reynolds, president of Dreamland, is making extensive preparations for Conkey Island, Sept. 19, 21, 22 and 23. At least 100,000 more electric lights will be added to those which already adorn the resort.

Instructions have been given to Dreamland's electricians to construct and erect 100 electrical arches. Creation, Chutes, Canals of Venice, airships, Coasting Through Switzerland, Iporotte Village, Bumps, Hill Gate, Togo's Victory, Japanese Theatre, Foolish House and Thompson's Scenic Railway expect to do their share of entertaining the visitors. Senator Reynolds has arranged a programme for the free hippodrome, Georgia entertainers and the biograph. One feature will be Pedro, the aerialist, who will walk a rope suspended from the tower, 375 feet high, to the chutes, a distance of 500 feet.

PETITIONS IN BANKRUPTCY. The petitions in bankruptcy filed yesterday in the United States District Court were as follows: Heineman Brothers, M. J. Lopez & Co. and Charles Brownlow have filed an involuntary petition against Moses Nathan, receiver of a real estate, the address of which is not given in the papers. The claims of the petitioners aggregate $2,250. Preferences are alleged.

The schedules of Robert S. Bishop give the bankrupt's liabilities at $2,375 and the assets, second floor debts due on open accounts, $2,845. The debts were contracted in this city, Baltimore, Norfolk and Washington. Fifty creditors are named in the schedules, and the claim of Thomas Bishop, of No. 37 Quincy-st., Brooklyn, for $3,950, is the largest.

J. D. Julliard & Co., H. A. Caesar & Co., and Broeseck, Broeseck & Co., in a joint petition, have asked that S. Adelson & Co., manufacturers of suits and overcoats, be declared bankrupt. The claim of the petitioners aggregate $10,000. The petition seeks to be relieved of debts amounting to $4,750. He says he has no assets.

Lester E. Lisle, of No. 43 1/2-ave., by petition asks to be declared a bankrupt because he owes $495 which he is unable to pay. His liabilities were contracted in Chicago in 1902. Lisle's liabilities consist of a bill of $50 for merchandise, $250 for medical services, $245 for painting and decorating and $50 for groceries and meat.

Judge Holt has appointed Taylor Moore receiver for S. Adelson & Co., and Isaac Silverlight, of No. 204 Montague-st., Brooklyn, receiver for Moses Nathan.
