PHILANTHROPY SCHOOL. Opens To-day with Lecture Courses for Social Workers.

The formal opening of the second season of the School of Philanthropy, a function to which the public is invited and at which President Butler of Columbia and several other well known men will speak, will be held this evening in one of the halls of the Charity Organization Society Building, at No. 116 East 22d-st. To-day is enrollment day. Tomorrow morning the regular sessions of the school begin.

The School of Philanthropy, which last year was more or less of a tentative undertaking, may now be regarded as an established institution. From the point of view of the students who were graduated in June from the nine months' course it has already proved itself a success. Almost without exception the graduates are filling good positions in some form of organized social service.

NEW LECTURES.

The lectures, as in last year's work, will be given in groups, and several new groups are added to the list. Group A, which takes a general survey of the field, is now created last winter, and includes the same speakers, Anna Garlin Spencer, Edward T. Devine, Samuel McCune Lindsey, Florence Kelley, Graham Taylor, Henry R. Seager and John Graham Brooks. In Group B, which treats of racial traits and social conditions, some new speakers will be heard, such as Professor of anthropology at Columbia, and Frank Boas, professor of anthropology at the University of Chicago. In Group C, which deals with constructive social work, and in which Jane Addams was lecturer last year, the same speakers will be heard, and the course will be resumed with the old group D is a new one, in which Frank Tucker, Alexander Johnson, Edward Devine, William H. Allen, general agent of the National Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor, James H. Cantwell, librarian at Columbia, and other competent men, will instruct the students in the administration of charitable institutions. Few people have any notion of the many things that are to be thought of in the way of the marriage of a public for its funds. For instance, the marriage notices in the newspapers have to be scanned, in order that appeals be not wasted on dead men, or the bride of this spring address in the newspapers. It is expected to turn out a class of graduates who will be able to extract money from a miser, and also to administer dead money in the wisest way.

THE PATTON LECTURES.

Four important branches which received a good deal of attention last winter—the care of dependent families, the treatment of criminals, the question of the State in the relation to the poor, and the care of the poor—will be continued in four separate groups. The great new feature of the year—the crack feature—will be the Kennedy lectures. These are to be given by Simon N. Patton, of the University of Pennsylvania, whom some protectionists rank among the foremost of the political economists, but whom free traders do not like to hear mentioned. Dr. Patton will deliver ten talks on "The New Basis of Civilization," and it may be remarked in passing that the said basis is not high tariff. Each of these lectures is to be repeated at a meeting to which the public will be admitted by ticket. The first of these meetings will be held on Monday, October 2, at 8 o'clock, at the University of Pennsylvania. One new special course will include addresses on the social aspects of free education, by Anna Garlin Spencer, Booker T. Washington and others; another, which is to treat of intemperance and immorality and like social evils, will have for its principal speaker the Right Rev. William N. Vickar.

TOURS OF INSPECTION.

By way of varying the monotony of listening to lectures and reading books on social science and taking examinations, the students will have a taste of practical work in connection with the branches of the Charity Organization Society. The personally conducted tours of last year will be resumed, and the itinerary enlarged; by the end of the course the students will have seen pretty thoroughly the workings of the city hospitals and reformatories and all the rest of New York's great network for the relief of poverty and sickness and the reclamation of the vicious, as it may be, of the vicious. At least, they may see as much as any outsider can.

WOMEN BARRED.

In the current month's issue of "The Columbian," official organ of the Knights of Columbus, the following is published as leading editorial:

SMITH GIRLS' NAMES.

The freshmen class at Smith College, which numbers 55, is a study in names as well as in the of feminine beauty. Fashion dictates what a girl shall be named, with the result that certain names flood the country one generation and are dropped the next for different ones. The Helens predominate in the Smith freshmen class this year, but a few years ago the Ethels were in the ascendancy. There are 17 Helens. Elizabeth comes next with 16 representatives. The solid standbys, Mary, is third with 12. Next come Alice and Florence, with 12 each. Louise follows with 11, then Ethel with 10, and Eleanor, Edith, Margaret and Ruth with 9 each. There are 6 Dorothys, 5 Gertrudes and 5 Lucys. Marion and Mabel are represented by 7 apiece. Ann, Annie and Grace are represented by each. Others are Martha, Charlotte, Catherine, Frances, Josephine, Marjorie and Sarah, 4 each; Clara, Ellen, Edna, Harriett, Gladys, Jess, Mildred, Pearl and Rachel, 3 each; Bessie, Ada, Alma, Annie, Carol, Carrie, Blanche, Esther, Emily, Elsie, Hannah, Hazel, Julia, Jennie, Jessie, Jean, Katherine, Laura, Marguerite, May, Olive, Ruby, Rose, Rosamond, Susie, Susan and Vera, 2 each.

GOOD CHEER.
Have you had a kindness shown—
Pass it on.
'Twas not done for you alone—
Pass it on.
Let it travel down the years,
Let it wipe another's tears,
Till in heaven the deed appears.
Pass it on.

DAILY THOUGHT.
If the day has a way of weeping a bit,
What matter, what matter to you?
To-morrow the spectre of tempest will flit,
The skies will be cheery and blue;
So, though the world move in a devious way,
Look upward and onward, not down,
For Care writes his record in wrinkles and gray,
It is as easy to smile as to frown.
—(Selected for the column by a Weehawken member.)

HIS OUTING ENDED.

Adolph Koch, the invalid member at the Home for Incurables, Chicago, has written a long account of his delightful Sunshine outing for two weeks in Michigan. He says in part:

If I never have another, I shall always look back upon this one as the greatest event of my invalid life, and I can never thank the T. S. S. friends half enough for providing the means for such a lovely vacation to a poor crippled man. I could not realize my good fortune at first; it seemed like a fairy tale that I who for fourteen years have never spent a single night away from the home, could enjoy life in the world once more. But I did, and everybody was so kind to me. It seemed strange to sit at the table with friends once more, when all these years I had eaten my meals alone in my little room. The day after I arrived a lady sent me a basket of choice fruit and a bouquet of lovely flowers. I went driving through the orchards and picked ripe peaches from the trees; I was taken through parks, sat on the beaches and watched the bathers; took a sail over the lake; was driven over high hills and through lovely valleys and saw the beautiful work of God in nature as I never expected to see it again. On my return I found my room in the home all decorated with flowers, a large printed motto, "Welcome home," over the door, and both the doctor and the superintendent welcomed me back. It made me feel good to think I had been missed, and all seemed so pleased to see me again. To those I know who contributed to the party, I have written personal thanks, but I desire through the column to express my gratitude to Mrs. B., who sent me $5 for my birthday, and a similar sum for my trip.

WOULD SELL SWEATER.

Miss L. Teague, a T. S. S. member, of Lady Lake, Fla., has a white handknitted sweater she would like to sell. The work by this member is especially well done, and any one desirous of purchasing it will please communicate with Miss Teague. Her mother, who is more than eighty years old, is knitting an afghan and has not enough wool to finish it. Any color will do.

GIVING CHEER.

Miss Seymour is dividing fifty copies of Sunday school papers each week between a mission school in Kentucky for mountain whites and a colored branch in Florida. A Brooklyn member pays liberal dues to the T. S. S. by responding to appeals in the column, and many are helped by her thoughtful gifts.

Mrs. George Perkins Lawton, president of the Saratoga branch, was in town a few days ago, on her return from a two weeks' automobile trip in New-England, but she will not return permanently to the city until October 20. She will forward 100 pretty scrap pictures to an East Side kindergarten, and in holding regular matter each week to invalids in isolated places and in hospitals.

Mrs. B. Tohitt, of Ohio, has paid her initiation fee to the T. S. S. by sending sunshine to Florida Chamberlain, of Dale, Tex., from whom she has received an appreciative letter. She will send other gifts to the child, who is so thankful for rays of cheer.

S. A. M., of Jersey City, is another new member who will pass on cheer to schools in isolated places.

The librarian of the Free Public Library of Bayonne, N. J., kindly offers to send a box of new class magazines, to be distributed to those who would appreciate them. Miss Gaines, of Long Island, will help supply reading matter for the coastwise steamers through a branch president in Brooklyn.

Mrs. C. Humphrey, of Utica, is desirous of sending a Christmas box to the Labrador mission; full instructions have been given to her.

WOULD LIKE AFGHAN.

A Manhattan member writes: "I would like an infant's afghan—crocheted or knitted. I am quite unaccustomed to that or knitted. It occurred to me that some 'shut in' might like to make one. I am willing to pay for a pretty one. I would furnish the wools, but as I do not know the kind or quantity, I believe it better for the party to do it all. Considering the uncertainty of getting any one, I leave it in your hands to ascertain if I get one through the T. S. S."

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN.

None of the many soft materials for which the season is remarkable is more attractive or better suited to full pleatings and tucks than the radium silk used for the making of this attractive gown. In this instance the color is one of the new pale greens combined with cream lace and chemisette cuffs, but just as the season is prolific in materials, so also is it generous in color, and there are many new and attractive shades from which to choose.

The Great Foreign Fashion Exhibition Continues But Magnificent Wraps Take the Stage Instead of the Paris Gowns

The great authorities on fashion, who viewed last week's remarkable exhibition, tell us that never has the equal of it been known before. Many of these people have the entree to all the important sources of information in Paris, and are familiar visitors to the ateliers of the world's greatest designers. But all admit that even they could never see such gowns as these, or any such quantities.

Today we announce an entirely new exhibition, that is no less great, no less extraordinary—

WRAPS and COATS From the Great Tailors of Paris and Berlin

Here again you will see marvelous workmanship, elaborate trimming, artistic and original design. The product of the genius of Francis, Dœuillet, Laffiere, Bob Marie, Maurice Mayer, Artus, Ignace, Raffin, Gerson, Dietz, Rosenthal, and many more.

As in Paris Gowns, so in Foreign Wraps, there is no such assembly to be seen elsewhere in America, as invites you to WANAMAKER'S today.

Then these elaborate confections are reinforced by the greatest stock of staple coats and wraps, from abroad, that we have shown—Lace Wraps, Broadcloth Wraps and Coats, for evening wear, Silk Coats, Velour and Plush Coats, Silk-and-Rubber Coats. And the popular-priced garments are as remarkable in value, as the elaborate wraps are in beauty and exclusiveness.

Second floor, Broadway.

Men's Suits to Order

We have already discovered a very great demand for dark blue fabrics this season, and we have ready a fine collection of chevots, unfinished worsteds and thibets in the desired blue shade. They make up handsomely for business suits, particularly in the stylish single-breasted long sack coat, with side or back vents. Another style, the new double-breasted sack coat, is also quite popular.

We make up these suits to your order, in these fabrics, either blue or black, guarantee fit and satisfaction, at $30 and $35. Or the same fabrics will be made up in the stylish English cutaway coat, at $32 and $37 a suit. Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Three Attractive Groups Of Popular SILKS

First is a collection of 8500 yards of 24-inch All-silk Crepe de Chine, of 85c and $1 qualities

At 65c a Yard

Notwithstanding the enormous popularity of Crepe de Chine this season, we discovered a manufacturer in a hurry to get his looms at work on something else, and we snapped up even this large lot in a hurry, at the concession offered.

The color-assortment is very complete, and includes much of the wanted white, cream, ivory and black, as well as all the evening shades and dark colorings.

Regular 85c and $1 qualities, at 65c a yard. The second offering presents 4500 yards of 19-inch Swiss-Finished Taffetas

At 55c a Yard, worth 65c

These taffetas are particularly suited to the making of foundations for Crepe de Chine, as well as for dress purposes. Fresh, new, perfect goods in fifty different shades, including white, ivory, cream, evening shades, as well as the new and staple dark colorings. 55c a yard; 19 inches wide.

Also 1800 yards of 27-inch All-Silk Crepe de Chine from Japan; very handsome; particularly crinkly weave; in white and ivory only. For dress and waist purposes.

At 55c a Yard, worth 75c Under-Price Store, Basement.

Women's Gloves, $2

New and fresh from France—Gloves that will meet the severest demands of fashionable women.

Two large pearl clasps—pique kid gloves in pale blue, pink, red, green, mode, lavender, tan, bluet and white. The white gloves are embroidered in blue and pink; the others, in white.

Two dollars a pair. Tenth st.

Silk Stockings At $1.15 a Pair

The maker calls these "seconds" because they are slightly, very slightly, imperfect in the weave. It's a fair guess, though, that nine women out of ten couldn't find the miss, if they tried. The looks and wear do not suffer in the least. Colored or black.

At $1.15 a pair, instead of $1.50 to $2.50. Broadway.

Children's Coats At $2 to $5, worth $3 to $7.50

Crashtrunk cloth, melton cloth, crushed plush and golf cloth. The latest Fall styles are included; for instance, the Empire effect is present in an unusually attractive coat of red golf cloth—double-breasted; collar, cuffs and buttons of black velvet. This is $5. Sizes for 2 to 6 years. $2 to $5, worth $3 to $7.50. Under-Price Store, Basement.

Interesting Additions to Our Stock of ORIENTAL RUGS

Rug fanciers will find much to admire in our present magnificent stock of authentic examples of Oriental Rugs. Newly arrived shipments have brought many specimens of great beauty and interest, inspection of which we welcome.

Beside the fact that the Wanamaker Rug collection is second to none in America, in variety and beauty of the pieces composing it, there is to be noted the important consideration that every rug, whether antique or modern, is genuine, and priced in strict relation to its value. There is no misleading juggling of values—based on similarity of names, but ignoring a wide variation in quality—to be met with here. The rug buying public is to a large degree dependent on somebody else's statements; hence rugs should be bought from a store that can be trusted.

Each one of the rugs mentioned below will be found strictly as described, and priced on an absolutely fair merchandising basis:

- About one hundred large rugs, including Gorovan or Serapi, Mahal, Mushabad, Sirook, Kirmanshab, etc., all fresh, new rugs, carefully inspected and selected for their fineness of weave, purity of color and wool, and the absence of questionable methods in the preparation of materials and the construction of the fabric. In light, medium and dark effects; in sizes ranging from 7 x 9 feet to 15 x 20 feet.
- A small collection of very fine Persian Runners, including a number of the Serabad, or pear design; in both red and blue grounds. Widths from 2 ft. 10 in. to 4 ft., and from 10 ft. to 25 ft. in length.
- Special effort has been made to procure worthy specimens of the antique varieties; and we are pleased to be able to show quite an assortment of really representative pieces, both antique and in modern productions, of Feraghan, Mohol, Shiraz, Kirmanshab, Sirook and Tabriz Rugs.
- Of the many varieties of small and medium sized rugs from the mountainous districts of Persia and Turkey, we have added about a thousand pieces to our stock:
  - Daghestan Rugs at $1.50, $10, $12.
  - Shiraz Rugs at $14, $15, $16, $18 and $20.
  - Cabestan Rugs at $22, $25, $30,
