

DELICATA WINS THE JUMP COY. MAID GALLOPS HOME.

The moment he struck the ground, however, he began rolling vigorously out of the path of the oncoming horse and had almost succeeded when one of them bit him and laid him low. He was taken to the jockeys' dressing room in an ambulance, almost recovered, and apparently was not much the worse for his fall.

A Big Crowd at Belmont Park in Spite of the Poor Card.

Until the glory of October gives way to the gloom of November and the selling plates of the winter tracks there is not likely to be an afternoon of more commonplace racing than that which the Westchester Racing Association offered its patrons at Belmont Park yesterday.

As a public trial for the Harbor Hill Cup, to be run for the first time next Thursday, the race for maiden three-year-olds, which was the most interesting of the day, it brought out a field of twelve green jumpers, in which were included the much heralded Delacanta and Paul Jones—the former owned by Mr. Cotton and the latter by Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.

As long as the latter stood up the judgment of the speculators was justified. In the first quarter of a mile he and Delacanta shook off their company, and for nearly a turn of the big field had it hot and heavy. A jump in the backstretch, however, proved Paul Jones's Waterloo, and he went down with a crash.

St. Amant trailed off behind his victory at Emsom last year, and until to-day had not been seen on a racecourse this season. He was not considered to have a chance in the victory race, for which Government started a hot favorite at 11 to 8 on. The betting was 100 to 7 against St. Amant, 5 to 2 against Polymelus, and 20 to 1 against Mondamin.

Lucien Lyne, who was suspended by Mars Cassidy on Wednesday for the balance of the Belmont Park meeting, has decided that it will not be in the East, and has planned to sail for England to-morrow. When Lyne rode for James R. Keene in England a few years ago was one of the most popular of the Yankee jockeys. He has had many invitations to visit there since his return. Since Hitchcock's horse was revoked he has been riding principally for Harry Payne Whitney.

PADOCK PARAGRAPHS.

Just So, always close to the pace, came away easily in the last sixteenth. King Pepper was best of the others. Embarrassment, practically left at the post, closed a big game. Jetam dropped out of it after breaking well, but came again at the end and would have been third in another.

STRONG GOLFING FEED.

Sixty-four Women Enter for the National Championship.

Sixty-four entries were received for the women's national golf championship, to be held all next week over the links of the Morris County Golf Club. This is twenty less than last year, when the tournament was held at the Merion Cricket Club, near Philadelphia.

The first pair to tee up at 10 o'clock on Monday in the qualifying round at 15 holes medal play will be Mrs. H. B. Clark, of Apawamis, and Miss K. Van Ostrand, of the Jefferson Country Club.

The opinion of the millbirds that Gwen Tompkins has made a first class "lepper" of the three-year-old Delcanta, which Mr. Cotton bought last spring from Mike Clancy, was substantiated yesterday when he won the steeplechase from practically all the three-year-old jumpers in training.

A. E. Thompson's four-year-old colt, Hello, which broke down in a race on Wednesday, has been destroyed. Hello was by Pontiac-Salutation, and was bred by John E. Madden. At one time he was thought to be of stake calibre, but his performance disabused the public of that idea.

The chestnut gelding Just So, by George Kessler—Verly, was bought by John A. Drake after he had won the first race yesterday. Drake is said to have paid over a hundred dollars for his victory. He raced in the name and colors of E. A. Chinn.

The Duchess of Marlborough was at Belmont Park yesterday, but left after the fourth race. She was the guest of her mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, and occupied one of the Belmont boxes in the club enclosure.

Arthur Redfern, who broke his arm ten days ago, is still in bed, and will probably not be seen at the races again this year.

Only one track record was broken at Belmont yesterday, which in itself is a record for the meeting. The record was provided by Just So, which reduced the time for seven furlongs from 1:26 1/2 to 1:25 1/2.

ST. AMANT A SURPRISE.

Beats Government in Rich Jockey Club Stakes Abroad.

London, Oct. 5.—The race for the Jockey Club Stakes of $50,000, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and three-quarters, was run at Newmarket to-day and was won by St. Amant. Polymelus was second and Mondamin third. Six horses started.

Mondamin led to the bushes, when St. Amant went to the front and won by three parts of a length. Four lengths separated the second and third horses.

M. Blano's great horse Government was shipped from France to avenue, if possible, his defeat in the Derby of 1904 by Leopold de Rothschild's St. Amant, but the French horse was not even placed.

St. Amant trailed off behind his victory at Emsom last year, and until to-day had not been seen on a racecourse this season. He was not considered to have a chance in the victory race, for which Government started a hot favorite at 11 to 8 on.

STAKE FOR ETHEL'S PRIDE.

Wins Classic Transylvania—Dan Patch Equals His Record.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—One of the largest crowds that ever attended the trotting races here saw Ethel's Pride, the favorite, win the classic Transylvania stakes in straight heats to-day.

There were nine starters, and Ethel's Pride sold favorite, with Turley second choice. In the first heat Turley finished second, close up. Geers making his drive too late. In the second heat Ethel's Pride took the lead and held it throughout. Turley could not overtake her and finished second, with John Caldwell coming fast in the stretch. Ethel's Pride led by a length all the way in the heat.

Ethel's Pride is owned by John Shepherd, of Boston, and was driven by W. J. Andrews. The stake was worth $5,000. Dan Patch, the world's champion pacer, equalled his record of 1:56 to-day, and also broke the track record for the fastest mile ever trotted on packed ground.

McGraw, the manager of the Giants, shook his head in the umpire's face yesterday over a decision in ruling Brown out while trying to steal home in the fourth inning of the second game. He was ordered off the field for his offense.

With the exception of Lewis, every player on the Brooklyn team made a hit in the first game with Boston yesterday.

The benefit for the Giants is to be held on Sunday night at the Majestic Theatre. The entire team will be present. The programme will be announced later.

It is said that Davy Johnson has wagered $3,000 against $10,000 that the Athletics will beat the Giants in the world's championship series.

WOMEN ON THE COURTS.

Some Fast Play in Doubles Tournament at Essex County Country Club.

Spectacular lawn tennis marked the women's tournament yesterday on the courts of the Essex County Country Club, Orange, N. J.

PROBABLE MAKE-UP OF THE PHILADELPHIA TEAM WHICH WILL MEET NEW-YORK.

The going attraction to-day will be the start of the tricity match-up at Morris County between the New-York and Philadelphia teams.

Some of the visiting team was not announced officially, but it was said at the links yesterday that it would probably be made up as follows:

Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, Huntington Valley Country Club; Mrs. R. H. Barrow, Merion Cricket Club; Miss Frances N. Ayres, Riverton Cricket Club; Mrs. Florence C. Grason, Merion Valley Country Club; Miss Milton C. Work, Huntington Valley Country Club; Mrs. A. Z. Huntington, Wyoming Valley Country Club; Mrs. H. I. Fitzgibbon, Merion Cricket Club; Mrs. W. S. Miller, Huntington Valley Country Club; Miss Mary G. Freshmuth, Riverton Cricket Club; Mrs. F. M. Taylor, Merion Cricket Club; Mrs. S. C. Price, Merion Cricket Club; Mrs. H. Toulmin, Merion Cricket Club; Miss R. C. Huntington, Valley Country Club; Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Merion Cricket Club; Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Merion Cricket Club; Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Merion Cricket Club.

SARTORI IN FAST TRIAL.

Paul Sartori, in Alfred G. Vanderbilt's 90-horsepower Fiat car, who will start last in the Vanderbilt Cup race, was out on the course yesterday morning and gave as fast and daring an exhibition of driving as has been seen this year.

He was timed over the circuit of twenty-eight miles in close to 25 minutes. Sartori was to have driven this car in last year's race, but arrived too late and was disqualified. In spite of this he drove over the circuit at astonishing speed.

The course was in excellent condition for fast driving yesterday, and many of the drivers were out. Duryev went over the circuit with his 130-horsepower Darracq, and Hemery drove another Darracq. Szlez, with his Renault, and Janatzky, with his big Mercedes, also indulged in some lively spins.

Chevrolet had Major C. J. S. Miller's 90-horsepower Fiat on the course, and from the speed he made it was evident that the accident he met with on Monday had not shaken his nerve.

PRINCETON ATHLETIC MANAGERS.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 5.—Frank F. Davis, '07, of New-York, has been elected assistant manager of the Princeton basketball team, and John G. Thomas, '07, of Baltimore, was chosen assistant manager of the hockey team.

DEWHURST A CHAMPION.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—E. B. Dewhurst, of the University of Pennsylvania, defeated Karl H. Behr, of Yale, in the final round in singles for the Intercollegiate lawn tennis championship, at Haverford to-day. He won three in four sets by a score of 6-2, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4.

It was a hard fought match from end to end and marked by many brilliant strokes and dazzling rallies. Dewhurst won largely by his clever passing strokes.

Owing to the late start it was impossible for Dewhurst and Behr to finish the match in time to start the final round for the championship in doubles. This match will be played to-morrow, at Haverford, at 11 o'clock. The Pennsylvania meeting, H. F. Wells and S. Field, of Yale.
