from Ivan's grasp had not Ulrica, shuddering with dread, thrust a long, thin portion of flesh over the top of the door. The hindmost dog pounced upon it, and a moment later his companions turned from the doorway and struggled fiercely for possession. Ulrica then threw overboard a great quantity of meat, and with a long stick thrust into the kennel the chunk that had fallen near the opening. When the animals withdrew to the middle of the kennel she lowered a tin of water by a...
