DOWIE DENIES HE IS INSOLVENT.

Prophet's Attorneys File Answer in Receivership Case—Court to Settle It.

Chicago, May 15.—Attorneys for John Alexander Dowie filed an answer in the federal court to-day in the receivership proceedings. Dowie denied that he was insolvent if all his property were re-acted.

Judge Landis, before whom the argument was made, finally entered an order directing the attorney to be heard on the subject alone, saying he would settle it himself. He directed that no further proceedings be taken by the attorneys for Voliva looking to the dissolution of the injunction granted some time ago, by virtue of which Voliva was confined to allow Dowie to use the tubercular in Chicago on alternate days.

The attorneys for Voliva declared that later in the day they would make application for the appointment of a conservator to take charge of the Dowie City property until the dispute between the Dowie and Voliva factions has been settled in court.

UP FOR IROQUOIS FIRE DEATHS. Chicago, May 15.—Will J. Davis, who was manager of the Iroquois Theatre at the time of the fire there, was arraigned to-day on a charge of manslaughter, growing out of the fire. By agreement with the state's attorney a continuance was taken until to-morrow.
