

BACCALAUREATES DECRY COMMERCIALISM.

FRATERNALISM TO WIN. DR. MACKAY AT RUTGERS.

Dr. Lyman Abbott Tells Harvard Students New Era Is Coming. Cambridge, Mass., June 17.—The celebration of class day week at Harvard was ushered in this afternoon by the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Lyman Abbott, of New York, in Appleton Chapel. At 4 o'clock the seniors, wearing caps and gowns, marched to the chapel, and after hearing the baccalaureate sermon, sang their baccalaureate hymn.

Dr. Abbott delivered a powerful address on the duties of young men who are going out into the world, saying, in part: I want to give you my interpretation of the future, with whose shaping you will have something to do. In the history of the world there have been but two conceptions of the social order. The first of these is autocracy the second individualism and the third fraternalism.

ARMY AND NAVY NEWS

(From The Tribune Bureau.) Washington, June 17. REAL FIGHT WORK FOR TROOPS.—A general order will be issued from the War Department directing instructions in regard to the exercises of the mobilization of troops in the summer at Mount Gretna and the other six camps of concentration.

But, again, there is the moral side of life, which, in speaking of the public man, have revealed as with flaming fingers, how possible it is in these days to secure reputation and success at the expense of integrity and honor.

PEARY MAY BE REAR ADMIRAL.—With the assurance of the enactment of the provision in the Naval Appropriation bill limiting the selection of the chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks to certain civil engineers, there is evidence of an interesting discussion of the successor of Rear Admiral M. T. Endicott in November, when that officer's term as bureau chief expires.

LENIENCY TO WEST POINTERS.—The two cadets, Butler and Ferris, the former from Terese and the latter from Atlanta, who misbehaved themselves on their way back to West Point after a visit of instruction to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in New York City, will not be dismissed, which was their sentence at the hands of the court martial which recently tried them at the Military Academy.

SCARCITY OF COLLIERIES.—The Navy Department continues to have much difficulty in obtaining American ships for the transportation of coal from the Atlantic ports to Mare Island and Puget Sound, which was intended by the Bureau of Equipment to ship a large quantity of American coal the present month.

FREE PASSES TO PHILIPPINES.—Secretary Taft has had so much trouble as a result of special permits he has given to travel to and from the Philippines on the army transports that he has issued strict orders that hereafter favors of this sort are to be sparingly extended.

CONFEDERATE CAVALRY NUMEROUS.—The War Department continues to receive claims from Southerners who lost their horses in the Civil War on their return to their homes from service with the Confederate Army.

FLOOD, FIRE AND WIND LOSSES.—Naval and military officers and enlisted men who have suffered by loss of personal property through the visitation of flood, fire and wind, have been anxious for a change in the law which would permit the government to reimburse them for these sacrifices.

NOTES OF THE STAGE. American Actor Managers and the Literary Drama.

There has always been more or less agitation here for the reign of the actor-manager, and numerous artistic advantages have been pointed out as likely to result from it.

Magistrate "Battery Dan" Finn, sitting in the Yorkville police court, yesterday morning talked earnestly to several women of the streets, who were before him on charges preferred by policemen from the 5th street and East 23d street stations.

Magistrate Finn then called for the bond and read from it the name of William Hecht, diamond broker, of No. 19 Second avenue. He said that Hecht had bailed out five other women.

Magistrate Finn was talking, as did several other of the women who were waiting for their cases to be disposed of. Magistrate Finn then discharged the Ross woman, and added:
