MANY NEW ATTRACTIONS

Changes in Bills at Both Theatres and Summer Resorts.

One more theatre closed last night, leaving the field almost entirely clear for the roof garden shows. Miss Blanche Bates will not be seen at the Belasco Theatre again until August 6, when the run of "The Girl of the Golden West" will be resumed. "The Social Whirl," at the Casino, and "His Honor the Mayor" and "The Governor's Son" at the New Amsterdam Theatre, are competing successfully with the New York roof gardens. "Dolly" will be followed this week by "Faust." The beach resorts last week naturally had a prosperous time, the week of the Fourth generally being the best of the summer for them. There is to be more diversified entertainment from baby incubators at Coney Island to a minstrel show at Manhattan Beach, and from a wild animal to a Wild West show.

Up on the New York roof, in the Wistarla Grove, that quartet of male singers, Sylvester, James Fringle and Morrell, have "made good" without the shadow of a doubt. When they made their first appearance on Monday night they got seven recalls, and they have had nearly as many every night since. Not a single one of them is an alleged comedian, and they fall to sing a single scene. "Them Cool-Worded-Folks-Forget" type, which possibly explains part of the enthusiasm with which they are received. "The Sealing New York" part of the programme will continue without change this week, as will "The Rain-Deers," Salerno, the juggler, and the other vaudeville features. When the "Rain-Deers" go away they will be succeeded by "The Crickets," a Japanese ballet. There will be a special programme to-night at the New York roof, when an added number will be an exhibition by the Barber-Ritchie trio.

By outbidding half a dozen other managers, Mr. Hammerstein has obtained for his roof garden the moving pictures of the locomotive collision at Brighton Beach on the Fourth of July. They will be shown at the roof garden this week, and depict the entire affair from the time of the engine drivers, as they started the locomotive to the final smash-up and the rush of the hundreds of spectators through the mud to the beach. The bill, however, will be headed by Arthur Fring, the ventriloquist, who was engaged because of the "hit" he made at the roof last week. Lalla Selbini, the "bathing beauty"; Emma, the talking head; Machnow, the giant, and other attractions will remain. At the concert to-night the following will appear: Dronza, Machnow, Lalla Selbini, Rice and Ferrero, Ferrero and his dog, Tom Sharp, the singer, the Six Musical Cats, Collins and Hart, the Camille Trio and the Shear brothers.

The changes in "Mam'zelle Champagne" at the Madison Square Roof have made a much happier show. John Keaney has succeeded Harry Short, as Fuller Spice, in the leading role; much dialogue has been elided and several songs have been interpolated. Miss Maude Fulton, the subrette in a red jacket, has made a splendid hit by the way in which she sings "Could I Exchange You?" and several of the other songs are being whistled. There will be a concert on the roof to-night, when the most popular selections from "Mam'zelle Champagne" and several vaudeville features will be given.

George M. Cohan's hot weather show, "The Governor's Son," at the New Amsterdam Aerial Theatre, is going on its tuneless way unchecked by summer weather. The topical song, "There's Nothing New Under the Sun," is proving the hit of the piece, a new verse being added almost every night. In the last act, when the chorus appears garbed as artillerymen, a new lighting effect has been introduced, giving the appearance of bursting shells. The show begins its run to-morrow night.

The competition of the roof gardens has in no wise affected "His Honor the Mayor," in which the pony ballet and Miss Ring are attracting crowds to the New York Theatre. Broadway seldom sees such dancing as that of the pony ballet, and the spectators show their approval each night by making the eight girls work overtime.

There will be a new-comer in the show to-morrow night, when Miss Nella Webb will play the milliner from Kankakee. She will sing two of the most popular songs of the show, "Little Girl Like Me," and "The Girl from Illinois." Miss Webb has been in several Casino houses, and for two seasons was understudy to Miss Lulu Glass.

Seats are being sold for "The Social Whirl" at the Casino up to September 1. The show, however, probably will run past that date, the show being confident that its popularity will last until October. Miss Ritchie and Miss Haywood, with their songs, are largely responsible for the success, which the chorus, which is up to the standard of the Casino beauty standard, is also a large factor.

Miss Nina Morris will appear this week at Keith & Proctor's Union Square Theatre in a play called "A Friend's Advice." Johan Palfrey, the juggler, will be another "headline" this week. Others on the bill are Colin's dogs, Arthur Barnes, in parodies; Arthur and Mildred, in "Jack and Jill"; Palfrey and Hoefler, in "The Two Rudies"; Miss Isabel Johnson, in the soprano, and several others.

Edwin and De Mille's drama, "Men and Women," originally produced at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre, will be revived this week at Keith & Proctor's One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre. When first produced, in October, 1890, it ran at the 23d Street house for 203 nights. In the present production Miss Beatrice Morgan will appear as Mrs. Edman and Paul McAllister as William Edman.

Edwin and Hart, the burlesque strong men, will make their appearance at Tony Pastor's this week. The Morris will also be there with his songs and parodies, some of the others on the bill are the two Ducks, Jeanne Ardelle and Loretta, and Bancroft in a roller skating act, and the two Puffs, Miss Louise Campbell and a score of others.

MAUD RAYMOND, in "The Social Whirl," at the Casino.

MISS DEAN EDSALL, in "The Rogers Brothers in Ireland," at Keith & Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre.

CLIFTON CRAWFORD, in "Seeling New York," on the New York Theatre Roof.

MILDRED BOYLAN, in "Jack and Jill," at the Union Square Theatre this week.

ARTHUR PRINCE, at Hammerstein's Roof Garden.

frations, but with an enlarged chorus and orchestra.

Charles F. McCarthy, of the "Seeling New York" company, has been re-engaged for his old part in "The Rogers Brothers in Ireland." Mr. McCarthy is an old associate of Harrigan and Hart.

Frank B. Hatch, for several seasons general stage manager for William A. Brady, has been engaged in the same capacity by the Shuberts for their non-musical productions.

spicuously, and as soon as the old lady came in sight of it she exclaimed at once, "That is the church I saw in my dream." On arriving at the churchyard, she marched in advance of Mr. Croker and her sons straight to the spot where she declared the will was buried. At the old woman's desire Mr. Croker communicated with the then Bishop of Lichfield with respect to the possibility of opening the grave. The bishop referred him to the Home Secretary, declining to take any action himself. There the matter was allowed to rest, and there it still rests to-day.—Dundee Advertiser.

office down there to make the first payment. You give me a commission and I'll bring in the wealthy actors of the more desirable class. See?"

"This line of talk is usually effective, for any real estate man will be glad to give up a commission to any one who will bring him a good customer. So the actors make deals to get big commissions, and go out to round up their fellow players to separate them from their hard earned savings."

"Most of the big stars have been approached so many times by actors who have played with them in past years that I'll bet nearly every star who plays in Broadway owns one or more lots in every principal subdivision on Long Island. It is hard to refuse to invest a few hundred dollars in a piece of property if your former leading man says to you:

"Of course, Miss Plunkerton, this property will be worth ten times as much when the East River tunnel is opened. The price now is almost nothing. Besides, I have just sold the adjoining lots to Maude Adams and Ethel Barrymore, and a star
